35th Anniversary Media Guide

ON THE COVER

The 1994 season marks the 75th anniversary of the National Football League and the 35th anniversary of the Denver Broncos. Our 1994 media guide cover celebrates Denver's 35 years in pro football by portraying the 15 members of the Broncos' Ring of Fame. Pictured clockwise from top center are #57 Tom Jackson (LB, 1973-86), #70 Paul Smith (DT, 1968-78), #36 Billy Thompson (S, 1969-81), former owner Gerald H. Phipps, #18 Frank Tripucka (QB, 1960-63), #20 Louis Wright (CB, 1975-86), #53 Randy Gradishar (LB, 1974-83), #44 Floyd Little (RB, 1967-75), #12 Charley Johnson (QB, 1972-75), #25 Haven Moses (WR, 1972-81), #87 Richard Jackson (DE, 1967-72), #7 Craig Morton (QB, 1977-82), #23 Goose Gonsoulin (S, 1960-66), #15 Jim Turner (K, 1971-79), and #87 Lionel Taylor (WR, 1960-66). The drawing is by National Football League Creative Services artist Cliff Spohn.

THE PAUL D. BOWLEN MEMORIAL BRONCOS CENTRE

On March 5, 1990 the Denver Broncos moved into the Paul D. Bowlen Memorial Broncos Centre, the new, state-of-the-art headquarters for the National Football League team. The complex is named for the Bronco owner's late father and is the culmination of Pat Bowlen's desire to maximize a positive working environment for his team, which was the only American Football Conference club to appear in the three Super Bowls during the 1980's.

The training facility is situated on 13.5 acres in the rapidly expanding Dove Valley Business Park in south Arapahoe County, and it includes an administrative building, two full-size practice fields, and a smaller workout field.

The Bowlen Broncos Centre is a two-story building totaling 59,000 square feet, well over twice the size of the team's previous facility. The ground floor houses the main entry, visitors area and trophy display area, and media room, in addition to the play related facilities, which encompass the locker room, meeting rooms, training area, weight room, equipment room, and video department.

It is on the second level, which is accessible through two stairways adjacent to the lobby area, that most of the administrative offices are located. These include the offices for Pat Bowlen, Wade Phillips, and John Beake, as well as those of all assistant coaches and football operations personnel. The second floor is divided into one wing for administrative offices and another for coaches and meeting rooms. The Broncos' extensive computer operation also is located on the second floor.

There is ample practice space now available for use by the Broncos, as both practice fields are 100 yards and one of them has a unique design system which includes underground wiring that prevents the turf from freezing and thus allows the Broncos to practice year round on unfrozen natural grass. The complex also includes a smaller, 50-yard workout field and the Broncos' indoor "bubble," which houses a 70-yard artificial turf field.

The expansive weight room and training room are among the largest in the entire league, and the Bowlen Centre also includes a separate building which houses two racquetball courts for training and leisure use by players and staff members.

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

PAT BOWLEN

President and Chief Executive Officer

Pat Bowlen begins his second decade as the Denver Broncos' owner in 1994, and he does so with his franchise building on an almost unmatched level of success attained during these first 10 years. Both in Denver and within the structure of the National Football League, Bowlen has earned a reputation as a bold, dynamic leader who is single-minded in his pursuit of excellence.

Nineteen ninety-four marks the 75th anniversary of play for the NFL and the 35th for the Broncos, and it also will be the 25th straight year of home sellouts at Mile High Stadium; with that streak just one measure of the Pat Bowlen success story in Denver.

During his tenure as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Broncos (1984-93) Bowlen's team has dominated the American Football Conference Western Division in posting more winning seasons (seven), division titles (five), playoff appearances (six), conference Championship Game appearances (four), and Super Bowl appearances (three, with no other AFC West team having gone) than any other club in the division.

The 1993 campaign began a new era both for the Broncos and the NFL, and Pat Bowlen played an integral role in both, selecting a new head coach in Wade Phillips while playing a pivotal role in the creation of the new collective bargaining agreement and the new television contract, changing the face of professional football in the process.

Bowlen's choice of the charismatic Phillips immediately proved to be extremely popular, and the Broncos responded with a 9-7 record and a return to the NFL playoffs as a wild card team. Denver's rejuvenated offense led the AFC in scoring with 373 points last year.

The Broncos' dynamic chief executive followed up the hiring of Phillips by quickly becoming a major player in the league's free agency. Under Bowlen's leadership Denver has been very aggressive in the marketplace, last year signing running backs Rod Bernstine and Robert Delpino, along with guard Brian Habib, and this year adding wide receiver Anthony Miller and cornerback Ray Crockett to the team. In addition, Bowlen signed future Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway to a new contract that places the superstar signalcaller at the pinnacle of the NFL's salary structure.

Bowlen has made all these moves with one goal unchanged—to aggressively position the Broncos for yet another run at a Super Bowl championship for the Mile High City.

In addition to his role with the Broncos, Bowlen was a key figure in spearheading both the labor and TV contracts in his role as a member of both the NFL Management Council Executive Committee and Broadcasting Committee, and he recently was named Chairman of the NFL Broadcasting Committee. He also has served on the NFL Finance Committee.

He presides over a franchise that by any standard has been one of the NFL's most successful in this time frame (1984-93). Bowlen has watched the Broncos play 13 postseason games in 10 years of ownership, with all regular and postseason games sold out at Mile High Stadium.

While the Broncos had a disappointing 8-8 record in 1992, in 1991 they had the greatest turnaround in team history, finishing with a 12-4 record that included the American Football Conference Western Division title and the fourth AFC Championship Game appearance of Bowlen's vibrant ownership.

Having missed the Super Bowl by just four points as recently as 1991 and making several more bold personnel moves this offseason, Bowlen's focus for the coming year is to once again put his team in line to contend for the AFC Championship that it won in 1986, 1987, and 1989. Denver was the only AFC franchise to make three Super Bowl appearances in the 1980's and without question Pat Bowlen provides the organizational thrust that has served as the catalyst to the Broncos' outstanding record.

Bowlen's Broncos represented the AFC in Super Bowls XXI (Pasadena), XXII (San Diego), and XXIV (New Orleans). In addition, Denver has had just one losing campaign during the past nine years, that being the very disappointing 5-11 season in 1990.

No one sets higher standards for the Broncos than Pat Bowlen himself, whose unchanging goal is to have his franchise annually regarded among the finest in pro football, with victory being the measuring stick for that success. Thus, the goal of Denver's dynamic and energetic chief executive remains firmly set on capturing the world championship that so far has eluded the Mile High City.

The Broncos once again will pursue a championship season from their new headquarters, the Paul D. Bowlen Memorial Broncos Centre, a 59,000-square-foot state-of-the-art office and training complex in Arapahoe County's Dove Valley location. The move into this new facility, which came on March 5, 1990, accomplished one of Bowlen's significant goals, that being to upgrade the Broncos' working facility and in so doing solidify the foundation for continued success.

Bowlen's 10 years of ownership have resulted in the best home record (62-18) in the AFC. Bowlen finished second in The Sporting News 1987 Executive of the Year balloting.

He presides over a franchise that has won four division crowns and, has had regular season win totals of 13, 11, 11, 10, 11, and 12. In fact, six of the seven finest campaigns in team history have come during the Bowlen regime.

Pat Bowlen was introduced as the majority owner of the Denver Broncos on March 23, 1984, and that announcement triggered a new era in franchise history, one which has coupled success on the playing field with enthusiasm for an even brighter future.

He immediately put his own mark on the Broncos, establishing a solid administration and creating a positive atmosphere that was a major factor in the team's success both on and off the field.

The team responded with a 13-3 record and the American Football Conference Western Division championship in 1984, following that up with an 11-5 record that just barely kept the Broncos out of the playoffs in 1985.

Meanwhile, Bowlen has seen the Broncos' consecutive home game sellout streak stretch to 188 straight regular and postseason non-strike games through the end of the 1993 campaign, as Denver led the entire National Football League in actual in-stadium attendance over that nine-year period. The Broncos have drawn over 5.7 million fans to Mile High Stadium from 1984-93, tops in the NFL.

Having established a solid foundation, Bowlen took a dramatic step toward the future during 1986 with the construction of 60 luxury Penthouse Suites atop the west side of Mile High Stadium.

Bowlen and the Bowlen family acquired 100% ownership of the Broncos in July of 1985. He is active in day to day operations of the football club.

Born in Prairie du Chien, Wis., he attended high school there and went on to the University of Oklahoma, where he earned degrees in both business (1965) and law (1968).

Bowlen has served as the Honorary Chairman of the Colorado Relay Classic to benefit St. Joseph's Hospital (1985-92), the Colorado Special Olympics (1986-92), and the 1989 Centennial Scholarship rally at the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley. Along with being honorary chairman of the Special Olympics, he was last year's Outstanding Celebrity. He was also Co-Chairman of the Rose Medical Center Critical Care Campaign from 1986-89.

In addition, Bowlen was elected to the University of Denver Board of Trustees in 1987, and is active on several committees including Trustee Affairs and Buildings and Grounds, and has served on the Institutional Advancement Committee and Institutional Advancement/University Relations subcommittee. He was also named to the Colorado Academy Board of Trustees in 1991.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Denver Broncos Youth Foundation, and was the 1992 honoree at the American Ireland Fund dinner.

He also serves on the Board of Trustees of the Hawaii Maritime Center.

Bowlen has real estate and natural resource holdings in Alberta, as well as real estate holdings in Colorado, Arizona, and California.

Bowlen also is Chairman of the Board and Director of Hambledon Estates Limited, and Northern Development Company Limited of Edmonton.

An outstanding athlete in his own right, he has competed in the Ironman Triathlon – an event in which one must swim 2.4 miles, ride 112 miles on a bicycle, and run 26.2 miles, all consecutively – as well as in other triathlon races and several marathons.

Bowlen is a member of several clubs and societies, including the Young President's Organization, the Canadian and Edmonton Bar Associations, and the Law Society of Alberta.

GENERAL MANAGER

JOHN BEAKE General Manager

In 1993 the Denver Broncos returned to the National Football League play-offs with a dramatically restructured organization, and one of the driving forces in the franchise's resurgence is General Manager John Beake.

John Beake has a pivotal role in developing and maintaining front office stability as one of the team's strengths, and the end result is that the Broncos enjoy a long-standing reputation as one of the NFL's most successful franchises both on and off the field.

Now well into his third decade in pro football, John enters the 1994 campaign in his 16th year with the Denver Broncos and his 10th season as the club's General Manager. In his previous nine years as general manager John has been a vital cog in a Denver club that has dominated the American Football Conference Western Division, posting more winning seasons (six) and winning more division titles (four) than any other AFC West team.

Overall, this marks John's 26th season in professional football as either coach or administrator, as the Broncos this year couple success on the playing field with their 25th consecutive sellout campaign at Mile High Stadium. Beake has perhaps the broadest range of experience of any NFL general manager, the only one in the NFL who has coached championship teams on the pro, college, and high school levels, as well as having served in a wide variety of administrative roles.

A member of four Super Bowl teams during his pro football career, John Beake plays a critical role in Denver being one of the league's most active teams in pro football's new free agency marketplace. Working closely with team President Pat Bowlen and Head Coach Wade Phillips in assembling an organization that represents the Broncos and the Mile High City in the most successful and positive manner, John embodies the philosophy that one should combine performance with community involvement.

As General Manager, he is responsible for all day-to-day operations of club administration, with special concentration in the area of player contract negotiations, an area in which he has considerable experience. He also personally directs the Broncos' contractual relationships with the City of Denver, local radio, and television entities.

John Beake's prominence in the Broncos' hierarchy is paralleled by continuing respect within the National Football League. Active in the NFL's international development, his involvement is one of the keys to the Broncos being among just four teams (along with Miami, San Francisco, and the Los Angeles Rams) to have been selected for American Bowl games in London, Tokyo, and Berlin. Of course, this year the Broncos will add Barcelona to its list of American Bowl sites, with Denver thus joining San Francisco as the only two NFL clubs to have been chosen to play American Bowl games in all four cities. In addition, he played an integral role in Denver being the only American Football Conference club to win three conference crowns and thus make three Super Bowl appearances (XXI, XXII, and XXIV) in the 1980's.

In 1991 John was named to the Board of Directors of the World League of American Football. As a key member of the Board of Directors for the World League, he spent a considerable portion of that offseason lending administrative guidance to the WL offices in New York and Dallas. John was instrumental in determining the methodology by which 101 NFL players were provided to the WL for its 1992 campaign. Along with his commitment to the World League, John serves as chairman of the NFL International Working Group, which is primarily comprised of other NFL general managers and player personnel directors. He is also a member of the NFL College and Pro Relations Committee.

One of his most visible recent Bronco accomplishments has been to provide a key leadership role in the construction of and move into the team's new training facility, the Paul D. Bowlen Memorial Broncos Centre, a 59,000-square foot state-of-the-art complex in Arapahoe County. This project, several years in the planning stages, was the fulfillment of one of John's key goals as the Broncos general manager.

John continuously works with the City of Denver on issues concerning the lease, capital improvements, and fan comfort. Some of the completed improvements at Mile High Stadium include the renovation of the Stadium's press box and the new theatre-styled seats throughout the Stadium. These projects represent the general manager's desire to continually improve the game-day experience at Mile High Stadium.

In addition to contract involvement, one of John's prime areas of interest is working closely with city and state representatives on a variety of community concerns. For the past six years, John has served as the chairman of the Red Ribbon Campaign, a strong educational anti-drug, chemical and substance abuse association that works in conjunction with the Colorado Federation of Parents.

An avid skier, he is on the Board of Directors of the National Sports Center for the Disabled, which is funded by the Winter Park Ski Resort and the Broncos Challenge. John is an annual participant in the Winter Park Pro-Am race to benefit the disabled skiers program.

As part of the continuing plan to broaden the team's community role and strengthen a family spirit within the club, John is actively involved with the Performing Arts Center.

John was Assistant General Manager in 1984 and was the Broncos' Director of Football operations the previous year, so his position at the helm of the club's administration is the culmination of a steady rise within the organization.

He joined the Broncos in 1979 as the Director of Pro Personnel and became Director of Player Personnel in 1981, having concentrated on the coaching aspects of the game prior to coming to Denver.

As assistant coach for the Kansas City Chiefs from 1968 through 1974, John was the offensive backfield coach for the Chiefs when they defeated the Minnesota Vikings to win Super Bowl IV in New Orleans. He also coached the running backs at New Orleans in 1976. On the college level, he coached at Penn State in 1961-62 and was the offensive coordinator at Colorado State University in 1975.

Upon receiving his master's degree from Penn State in 1962, John coached for six years at the high school level, where his teams lost just four games. He has a bachelor's degree from Trenton State College in New Jersey, in addition to his graduate degree from Penn State.

John and his wife, Marcia, have three children, Jerilyn, Chip, and Chris.

HEAD COACH

WADE PHILLIPS Head Coach

The Denver Broncos come into 1994 with renewed optimism for another championship season, and much of that optimism is founded in the talent, leadership, and charisma of Head Coach Wade Phillips.

The Broncos returned to the playoffs in 1993, the team's first year under Phillips, who guided the youngest club in the National Football League to a 9-7 record and a wild card playoff spot in the American Football Conference.

Phillips, 46, was named Denver's head coach on January 25, 1993 and wasted no time in putting his own stamp on the Broncos, quickly putting together a coaching staff that includes seven members who have previously been head coaches in college or pro football.

His roster changes resulted in the NFL's youngest club, with an average of just 3.05 previous years of NFL experience among Denver's 1993 53-player roster. There were 27 new faces on last year's squad (50.1 percent), including 15 who were rookies or first-year players.

The end result was a rejuvenated Denver offense that led the AFC in points scored (373, third in the entire NFL and the fourth highest total in franchise history), while the defense still finished fifth in the AFC in points allowed with 284. The Broncos' new offensive attack ranked third in the AFC in both total offense and passing offense, with last year's 27 touchdown passes tied for the most ever by a Denver team. Denver's defense finished near the top among all clubs with 46 quarterback sacks.

The extremely popular head coach has played a pivotal role in numerous key roster moves, including the acquisition of veteran talent under the National Football League's new free agency system.

Phillips enters his second season as the Broncos' head coach after having served four years as Denver's defensive coordinator, a role which he filled very successfully from 1989-92.

Under Phillips' leadership as defensive coordinator the defense led the American Football Conference in fewest points allowed in two of the past four seasons (1989 and 1991), and the 1991 12-4 Denver team was paced by a defensive unit that led the AFC in 12 different categories. Among the categories in which the Broncos led the AFC were fewest points (235), fewest TDs (20), fewest rushing TDs (eight), fewest passing TDs (12), most sacks (52), most interceptions (23), fewest passing yards (2,755), and lowest third down conversion percentage (31.1%).

In 1989 he was the mastermind of a defense that led the NFL in fewest points allowed (226) and allowed the fewest rushing yards in the AFC (1,580). His new-look defense that year ranked second in the conference in both quarterback sacks (47) and takeaways (43), and allowed a total yardage figure (4,407) that was second best in the AFC and third in the NFL.

In addition to his role as defensive coordinator, Phillips assumed the capacity of interim head coach during the 1990 preseason period, posting a win over Indianapolis while in that position.

Going into his sixth overall season with the Broncos, Phillips came here from Philadelphia, where he was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Eagles from 1986-88. Under Phillips in 1988 the Eagles were second in the NFL in turnovers (44) and second in interceptions (32) as they won their first division title since 1980.

He served as defensive coordinator at New Orleans from 1981-85 and was the interim head coach for the final four games of the 1985 season (1-3 record). During his tenure at New Orleans the Saints led the NFC in defense in 1983 and led the NFL in pass defense in 1983 and 1984. Overall, the Saints finished among the top five in the NFL defensively in three of his five seasons.

Prior to joining the Saints, Phillips spent five seasons at Houston, coaching the linebackers (1976) and defensive line (1977-80). The Oilers made three playoff appearances during that period.

Phillips began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Houston, in 1969 and then coached at Orange (Texas) High School for three years before moving to Oklahoma State (1973-74) and Kansas (1975).

The son of former NFL coach Bum Phillips, Wade was born in Orange, Texas (6/21/47) and attended Port Neches-Groves High School. He went on to be a three-year starter at linebacker at Houston under head coach Bill Yeoman.

An extremely civic-minded and popular individual, he has concluded his fourth year as Honorary Chairman of the Provenant Health Partners' Sack'Em project, a charity fund raiser for Flight for Life.

Wade and his wife Laurie have two children, Tracy and Wesley.

ASSISTANT COACHES

VERNON BANKS

Strength and Conditioning

Vernon Banks is in his second season as the Broncos' strength and conditioning coach, having come to Denver from the University of Wyoming, where he headed the Cowboys' strength and conditioning program in 1992.

Banks, 38, previously was the assistant strength coach on the college level at Colorado (1990-91), Stanford (1987-90), Wyoming (1986-87), and Houston (1985-86).

A 1981 graduate of Texas A&M in parks and recreation management, Banks played cornerback for the Aggies after transferring from Blinn (Texas) Junior College. Banks completed all his course work toward a master's degree in exercise science at the University of Houston in 1986.

A native of Alvin, Texas (5/24/56), Banks lettered in football and track at John Foster Dulles High School in Stafford, Texas. He is a three-time state champion powerlifter, winning titles in Wyoming (1987) and California (1989 and 1990).

Vern and his wife Mary reside in Aurora.

BARNEY CHAVOUS

Defensive Line Assistant/

Strength and Conditioning Assistant

Barney Chavous is in his sixth season with Denver, assisting Rex Norris with the defensive line and Vernon Banks with the strength and conditioning program. He was a coaching intern in 1988, working in the same areas.

Chavous, 43, was a defensive end with Denver from 1973-85 and is tied for fourth in team history with 72 quarterback sacks. He is also one of only five people to play for 13 or more seasons with Denver.

He has coached with defensive coaches Earl Leggett and Pro Football Hall of Famer Ernie Stautner.

Chavous was All-Conference and defensive most valuable player at South Carolina State, where he was a three-year starter. In addition, he was named to the Mid-Eastern Atlantic Conference Hall of Fame and was named All-American by the Associated Press during his collegiate career.

A native of Aiken, S.C. (3/22/51), Barney and his wife Odessa have four children, sons Shedric and Barney Amon, and daughters Jasmine and Nikeya Monique.

JIM FASSEL

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator

Jim Fassel (pronounced FAHS-el), 45, is in his second year with the Broncos, and after the club's outstanding year on offense in 1993, Fassel was promoted to assistant head coach/offensive coordinator in 1994. He will continue his duties as quarterbacks coach in leading Denver's powerful offense.

Under Fassel's direction, Denver's offense had an outstanding season and quarterback John Elway had the best year of his career. The Broncos finished 1993 ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in total offense, and their 373 total points ranked first in the AFC and third in the NFL. In addition, Denver's 373 points scored ranked as the fourth highest total in team history, while the 42 touchdowns are tied for fourth best and the 27 passing touchdowns are tied for first in team history.

Prior to coming to Denver, Fassel spent two years with the New York Giants as quarterbacks coach in 1991 and was promoted to offensive coordinator for the Giants in 1992.

A former collegiate and NFL quarterback himself, Fassel began his coaching career in 1973 as an assistant at Fullerton Junior College, then became a player-coach in the World Football League with Hawaii. He then moved on to Utah as quarterbacks-receivers coach in 1976, then spent two seasons (1977-78) as offensive coordinator at Weber State.

Fassel coached at Stanford for five seasons (1979-83), including his last four as offensive coordinator. While at Stanford he was credited with recruiting and coaching John Elway's entire college career. In 1984, he was named offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Breakers in the USFL before being named head coach at the University of Utah in 1985. In addition, Fassel was known for employing one of the most innovative, creative offensive strategies in college football while at Utah (1985-89).

He actually has coached three Broncos quarterbacks, including Elway at Stanford, former Bronco Steve DeBerg at Fullerton JC, and ex-Bronco Norris Weese with the WFL's Hawaii Hawaiians. Other NFL quarterbacks coached by Fassel on the college level include Turk Schonert at Stanford and Scott Mitchell at Utah.

A native of Anaheim, California (8/31/49), Fassel was a standout quarterback at Anaheim High School before going to Fullerton JC, where he quarterbacked that club to a 25-1 record over two seasons, winning the national junior college title in 1967. Fassel then went on to play at the University of Southern California prior to concluding his college playing career at Long Beach State in 1971, where he led the 49ers to the PCAA championship, ultimately being drafted by the Chicago Bears in 1972.

He also was with the Houston Oilers and San Diego Chargers before ending his playing career.

Jim and his wife Kathryn have four children, John, 20, Brian, 18, Jana, 15, and Mike, 13. Jim is an avid golfer and tennis player.

MAURICE (MO) FORTE

Wide Receivers

Mo Forte is in his seventh season with the Denver Broncos and his second coaching the wide receivers, as he coached the club's running backs during his first five National Football League campaigns. Forte came to Denver from North Carolina A & T State University, where he was head coach from 1982-87. Forte led the Aggies to a 9-3 record and the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championship in the 1986 campaign.

Forte, 47, had been an assistant coach for 12 years at major college programs prior to going to North Carolina A&T. His previous coaching career included stints at Arizona State (1980-81), Michigan State (1978-79), Duke (1976-77), and Minnesota (1970-75).

With Forte coaching the Broncos' running backs, Denver was one of just 12 teams ever to have three straight 1,000 yard seasons produced by two different backs (Bobby Humphrey and Gaston Green).

The 1978 Michigan State team won the Big 10 title and the 1981 Arizona State club established a number of Pac-10 records.

While at Michigan State he coached two-sport star Kirk Gibson (1978) and in 1980 three of his Sun Devil players (John Mistler, Melvin Hoover, and Ron Washington) were drafted by NFL teams.

A native of Hannibal, Missouri (3/1/47), Forte was a starting running back at the University of Minnesota, from which he graduated with a bachelor's degree in education in 1971.

Mo has a daughter, Dawn.

LEON FULLER

Defensive Backs

Leon Fuller is in his first season as the Broncos' defensive backs coach, coming to Denver from the University of Texas at Austin.

He was the defensive coordinator for the Longhorns for the last five years and is credited with helping mold the Texas defense into a unit that helped the 1990 Longhorns to a 10-2 record and a 1991 Cotton Bowl appearance, a defense that featured current Denver Bronco Shane Dronett.

Fuller, 56, has had 30 seasons as an NCAA Division I coach, and was one of the most respected defensive coordinators in college football. In between his two coaching stints at Texas (1989-93 and 1977-81), Fuller spent time in Colorado as the head coach at Colorado State University from 1982-88. In addition, he has coached at Wyoming (1975-76), West Texas State (1974), New Mexico (1969-73), Kentucky (1967-68), and Oklahoma State (1963-66).

A native of Nederland, Texas (7/28/38), Fuller began his playing career at Nederland High School under head coach Bum Phillips. Following his outstanding prep career, Fuller went on to play for the legendary Bear Bryant at Alabama as a linebacker (1957-60). He was named team most valuable player and academic all-American as a senior, and participated in three bowl games during his college career at Alabama.

Leon and his wife Pam have three children, Scott, Kelly, and Brooke.

BISHOP HARRIS

Running Backs

Bishop Harris is in his second season with the Broncos as running backs coach. He came to the Broncos from North Carolina Central, where he was the head coach (1990-91).

Prior to joining the coaching staff, Harris was familiar with the Broncos organization, having spent two summers at training camp in Greeley (1989-90) working with the coaching staff under the NFL/College Minority Fellowship Program.

Harris, 52, was on the staff at the University of Minnesota from 1986-90, coaching the outside linebackers in his first two years with the Golden Gophers before becoming assistant head coach and running backs coach for the latter three campaigns.

An all-conference defensive back at North Carolina Central, Harris began his coaching career on the junior and senior high school levels from 1963-71. In addition to his bachelor's degree from North Carolina Central, Harris earned a master's degree in education, with an emphasis on supervision and administration, from Duke University in 1972.

He coached at Duke from 1972-75 and after leaving the Blue Devils was head coach at Broughton High School in Raleigh, N.C. in 1976.

Harris coached linebackers on the collegiate level for the next nine seasons, at North Carolina State (1977-79), Louisiana State (1980-83), and Notre Dame (1984-85), moving on to Minnesota the following year.

A native of Phoenix City, Alabama (11/23/41), Bishop and his wife Margareta have three children, daughter Angela and sons Dennis and Gregory.

JOHN LEVRA

Offensive Line

John Levra is in his second season as the Broncos' offensive line coach, coming to Denver from Chicago, where he coached the Bears' defensive line for the past seven years.

Levra, 57, is a coaching veteran of both sides of the line of scrimmage who is coming into his 13th season in the NFL. Levra was in Chicago from 1986-92, after serving five years as offensive backfield coach for the New Orleans Saints (1981-85). He was the offensive coordinator for the Saints in 1985 during Wade Phillips' four-game tenure as head coach.

Following a playing career at linebacker for Pittsburg (Kansas) State, Levra coached at Kansas high schools for seven years (1959-65). His first college job was at New Mexico Highlands, where he was an assistant (1966) and later head coach (1967-70), posting a 35-4-1 record.

Levra moved to Stephen F. Austin State University as head coach and athletic director (1971-74), where his teams were 18-5 in his final two seasons and made the first bowl appearance in school history.

He became offensive coordinator at the University of Kansas (1975-78) and North Texas State (1979) before entering the pro ranks as defensive line coach for the British Columbia Lions in 1980.

A native of Arma, Kansas (10/2/37), John and his wife Rosie have two children, Gina and Craig.

REX NORRIS

Defensive Line

Rex Norris is in his first season as the Broncos' defensive line coach. He comes to the Broncos from the University of Texas, where he coached in 1992-93.

Norris, 54, will be entering his 30th season in the coaching profession in 1994. Among his pupils on the defensive line were Lombardi Award winner Tony Casillas (currently with the Dallas Cowboys) and Outland Trophy winner Lee Roy Selmon. Norris coached both Casillas and Selmon while at Oklahoma.

After stints at Carrollton Turner High School and Navarro Junior College, Norris joined Texas A & M in 1972, moving to Oklahoma as a key assistant to Barry Switzer for 11 seasons. During that time he coached the defensive line in addition to serving as assistant head coach in 1981, 1982, and 1983. During his 11 seasons at Oklahoma, Norris produced seven first-team All-Americans and helped lead the Sooners to eight bowl games.

In 1984 Norris moved on to coach at Arizona State and joined the Detroit Lions as defensive line coach from 1985-87.

Norris returned to the college ranks in 1988 as defensive line coach at Florida, with the Gators finishing third nationally in total defense in both 1988 and 1989. In 1990 Norris joined the staff at Tennessee, where he accompanied the Volunteers to the Fiesta and Sugar Bowls.

A native of San Angelo, Texas (12/10/39), Norris was a Junior College all-American at San Angelo Junior College before completing his playing career as captain of East Texas State's team in 1962.

Norris and his wife Melinda have four children, Rex Jr., Whitney Rae Gohlke, Nolan Watson and Amanda Watson.

ALVIN REYNOLDS

Assistant Defensive Backs/ Quality Control

Alvin Reynolds is in his second year as Assistant defensive backs/Quality control for the Broncos. Reynolds' duties range from working with the defensive backs and special teams coaches to performing quality control for the Broncos defense.

Reynolds, 35, came to the Broncos from Indiana State University, where he was on the coaching staff for 10 years (1983-92), the last three as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator in addition to being secondary coach for the Sycamores.

A four-year strong safety who received Heisman Trophy mention as a senior at Indiana State, Reynolds followed his playing career by serving one year as a graduate assistant at ISU, being elevated to a full-time coaching position the following year.

In addition to his role as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator, Reynolds had various other off-the-field administrative roles, including working with the ISU athletic academic coordinator.

Reynolds was president of the ISU University Club and the Charles T. Hyte University Center, and his group involvements included the Indiana Democratic state convention, the Indiana State employee search committee, the President's Commission on Ethnic Diversity, Indiana Black Expo, and the Minority Student Retention Programs Committee.

A native of New Orleans (6/24/59), he has a bachelor's degree in business management and a master's degree in political science from Indiana State.

Reynolds has a son, Alvin, Jr., age nine.

HAROLD RICHARDSON

Special Assistant to the Head Coach/Offense

Harold Richardson is in his sixth year on the Broncos staff and his second in the capacity of offensive assistant, a role which primarily involves quality control and administrative assistance in the area of player personnel. Richardson joined the Broncos as the special teams coach in 1989 and coached that unit for four seasons, also coaching the team's tight ends in the last two seasons.

Richardson, 50, came to the Broncos from Colorado State University, where he was defensive coordinator in 1987 and 1988. Prior to that he served as receivers and special teams coach with the NFL New Orleans Saints (1981-8

Working on the collegiate level (1972-80), Richardson coached North Texas State, Texas Christian, Oklahoma State, and Southern Methodist, where he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1971.

A native of Houston, Tex. (9/27/44), Richardson earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Southern Methodist in 1968.

Harold and his wife Ramona have a son, Blake Lee.

RICHARD SMITH

Special Teams/Linebackers

Richard Smith is in his second season as the Broncos' special teams coach and also assists in coaching the linebackers. Smith came to Denver after five seasons coaching the special teams for the Houston Oilers (1988-92).

In 1990-91 Smith also had assisted in coaching the linebackers, and he had coached the team's tight ends in 1988-89, prior to the 1990 introduction of the run-and-shoot offense in Houston.

His trademark as special teams coach at Houston was producing units noted for hustle, desire, and hard-hitting play. That unit, which helped pace the Oilers into the playoffs all five years, blocked 18 punts from 1988-92, including one against the Broncos last year. They tied the then-NFL record for blocked punts in a season with five in 1988, then followed up with four more in 1989, plus four blocked kicks each in 1990 and 1991.

The Oilers in 1992 led the entire NFL both in kickoff coverage with a 15.7 mark and in gross punting average with a 46.9 figure. They ranked in the NFL's top four in net punting average in 1990 and 1991 and were in the top six in punt return and kickoff return defense.

Smith, 39, went to Houston from the University of Arizona, where he coached special teams in 1987, and he was the special teams/outside linebackers coach for Joe Kapp at California from 1984-86. He was the defensive line coach at Fullerton State from 1981-83, helping the Titans win the PCAA title in 1983. He began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Rio Hondo (California) College from 1979-80.

A native of Los Angeles (10/17/55), Smith received his bachelor's degree from Fresno State. He was an offensive lineman at Rio Hondo before transferring to Fresno State in 1976, with the Bulldogs winning the PCAA title in 1977.

Richard and his wife Patti have four children, daughters Morgan, 11, Aimee, five, Whitney, three, and son Travis, eight.

LES STECKEL

Tight Ends

Les Steckel is in his second season coaching the Broncos' tight ends. Prior to coming to Denver, Steckel was the offensive coordinator at the University of Colorado (1991-92).

Steckel, 48, began his coaching career at Colorado, first as a graduate assistant with the defense in 1972 and then coaching the tight ends and receivers from 1973-76.

He was the offensive line coach at Navy in 1977 and moved into the pro ranks the following year, joining the San Francisco 49ers as their receivers coach.

Steckel was with the Minnesota Vikings from 1979-84, serving as the Vikings' head coach in his final campaign there.

Following his stint in Minnesota Steckel coached the quarterbacks and wide receivers for the New England Patriots from 1985-88, playing a key role in the Patriots' 1985 Super Bowl campaign. He was the offensive coordinator at Brown University in 1989 and did not coach in 1990.

A decorated Vietnam veteran as an infantry officer, Steckel was commissioned as a second lieutenant at the conclusion of Officer's Candidate School and currently is a Colonel in the United States Marine Corps Reserve. He also was a two-year starter at tailback for the Quantico Marines during his military career.

Born in Northampton, Pennsylvania (7/1/46), Steckel grew up in the Lehigh Valley area, where he attended Whitehall High School prior to attending the University of Kansas, where he lettered twice at tailback. Steckel also was a Golden Gloves boxing champion in 1966.

Les and his wife Chris have three children, daughter Lesley, 13, and sons C.T., 16, and Luke, nine, and the family resides in Louisville.

CHARLIE WATERS

Defensive Coordinator

Charlie Waters is in his second year as the Broncos' defensive coordinator and his seventh season in the Mile High City.

Under Waters' direction, Denver's defense had a good year in 1993 and shows great promise going into 1994. With 46 total sacks, Denver's defense ranked third in the AFC and tied for fourth in the NFL, and their 284 points allowed ranked fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in 1993. In addition, the Broncos' defense with a 33.0 third down efficiency percentage ranked second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in 1993.

Waters, 46, has 20 years of NFL experience, having joined the Denver staff in 1988 as special teams coach. In 1989 he took over as the defensive backfield coach, a position in which Waters was able to draw from his experiences as one of the game's finest defensive backs during his own 13-year NFL playing career.

Waters played for the Dallas Cowboys from 1970-1982 in which he started in five Super Bowls and was a three time Pro Bowl choice and was voted All-NFL in 1976, 1977 and 1978. A versatile athlete, he was a quarterback-turned wide receiver in college, and spent the first five years in the pros at corner and free safety, before anchoring the Cowboys secondary at strong safety.

An inductee into both the Clemson and South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fames, Waters was superb in the playoffs for the Cowboys. He holds the existing NFL career record for most interceptions in the playoffs (nine) and most in a single game NFC (three). He is third in Dallas history in career regular season pass thefts with 50.

"I knew Charlie would experience success as a coach," says Hall of Famer Tom Landry, "because as a player he was always prepared. He left nothing to chance. Charlie's last seven years at strong safety were like having a coach on the field. He coordinated our defense... this coach-like preparation enabled him to reach his fullest potential and thus provided great satisfaction as a coach."

A native of Miami, Florida (9/10/48) and raised in North Augusta, South Carolina, Charlie graduated from Clemson University in 1970. He and his wife, Rosie, have three sons, Cody, Ben, and Cliff.

JOHN PAUL YOUNG

Linebackers

John Paul Young is in his second season coaching the Broncos' linebackers. Prior to coming to Denver he was the head coach for the Dallas Texans of the Arena Football League, leading the Texans to a division title in 1992.

Young, 54, has over 30 years experience as a coach, and 1994 will mark his 13th year in the National Football League. He has also had a long coaching relationship with Head Coach Wade Phillips, as this marks their tenth season on the same NFL staff. They previously worked together in Houston and New Orleans.

His first position in the NFL was that of linebackers and special teams coach for the Houston Oilers, under head coach Bum Phillips, from 1978-80. He was on the New Orleans Saints' staff in the same position from 1981-85, assuming the position of defensive coordinator when Wade Phillips was named the Saints' interim head coach for the final five games of the 1985 season.

Young was defensive coordinator of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1986-88, and served as linebackers coach at Texas Tech from 1989-91.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Texas at El Paso (1962-63), before a three-year stint (1964-66) at Jacksonville (Fla.) High School. Young returned to the college ranks in 1967, coaching at Southern Methodist for two seasons (1967-68) prior to becoming the defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State in 1969.

Young was the linebackers coach and also managed the stadium, fields, and athletic dorm at Texas A & M from 1970-77.

A three-time all-conference linebacker at UTEP, Young twice earned honorable mention All-American honors and is a member of the Miners' all-time team.

A native of Dallas (12/31/39), Young went to Abilene (Tex.) High School, where he played linebacker, guard, and defensive end on three consecutive state championship teams and was all-district and all-state.

John Paul and his wife Dolores have two sons, John Paul, Jr., and Jason.

STEVE ATWATER CONTINUED HIS AGGRESSIVE PLAY AT THE SAFETY POSITION IN 1993, AS HE LED THE TEAM IN TACKLES WITH 141 FOR THE SEASON. ATWATER WAS ALSO SELECTED TO HIS FOURTH CONSECUTIVE PRO BOWL.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

BOB FERGUSON

Director of Football Operations/
Player Personnel

Bob Ferguson is in his second season as the Broncos' Director of Football Operations/Player Personnel, and as such is in charge of the team's entire college and professional scouting department. He works very closely with Head Coach Wade Phillips and General Manager John Beake in making determinations relative to player acquisition.

He is also largely responsible for Denver's very aggressive approach to free agency over the last two years, an attitude that resulted in Denver signing several highly sought after free agents.

Included in these free agents are running backs Rod Bernstine and Robert Delpino, wide receiver Anthony Miller, offensive lineman Brian Habib, linebacker Dave Wyman, and cornerback Ray Crockett.

Ferguson, 43, is in his 18th season in the National Football League, coming to Denver from the Buffalo Bills, where he had a key role in the development of the very talented Bills roster during his eight seasons with that club.

He joined the Bills in 1985 and had several positions in player personnel, culminating in Ferguson being named Assistant General Manager/Director Pro Personnel in 1989, a position in which he continued until coming to the Mile High City.

A native of Federal Way, Wash. (11/5/50), Ferguson began his NFL career with the Seattle Seahawks as Director of Sales and Special Events, handling a number of duties during his tenure there from 1975-79, and then moved into a scouting combine (serving Buffalo, Dallas, San Francisco, and Seattle) as an area scout from 1981-83. He joined the Cowboys to handle performance testing (1984-85) prior to going to Buffalo.

Ferguson lettered three times as a linebacker at the University of Washington, graduating in 1973 with a degree in radio-television communications. He had free agent tryouts with San Diego (1973), the Los Angeles Rams (1974), and Portland of the World Football League (also 1974).

Bob and his wife Colleen have three daughters, Vanessa, Nathalie, and Allison.

CORNELL GREEN

Assistant Director of Player Personnel

Cornell Green was promoted to Assistant Director of Player Personnel in 1994, as he enters his eighth year as an area scout for the southwest region for the Broncos and his 15th year in scouting overall. Prior to the Broncos, Cornell scouted for the Dallas Cowboys during and after his illustrious player career.

He began scouting for the Cowboys in 1970, while still an active player, and continued scouting through 1979, at which time he entered private business until coming to the Broncos in 1987.

Green, 54, was signed by the Cowboys as a free agent and went on to play for Dallas from 1962-75, at cornerback for 10 years before moving over to safety for his last four seasons. Green earned Pro Bowl honors seven times, winning that honor at both cornerback and safety.

He did not play college football but was a two-time All-American basketball player (1959-60 and 1961-62) at Utah State, where Green averaged 23 points per game at forward for the Aggies from 1959-62.

A native of Boley, Oklahoma, Cornell and his wife Betty have two children, Randy and Ronney, and make their home in Dallas.

JEFF SMITH

Director of College Scouting

Jeff Smith is in his second year as the Broncos' Director of College Scouting. He coordinates all phases of the college scouting program with Bob Ferguson, Director of Football Operations/Player Personnel, which include the scouting department's budget, division of territory, and travel itinerary.

Jeff is entering his 15th season as a scout in the NFL, including nine seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1984-92), also directing the Cowboys' signing of free agent rookies in his last three years with the team (1990-92).

Smith, 47, became a full-time scout with Seattle in 1980, after four seasons working as a part-time film grader with the Seahawks while also coaching full-time at Mercer Island (Wash.) High School.

In 1970 Smith began his coaching career at South Mercer Junior High School, also coaching at Kalles Junior HS in Puyallup (Wash.) and again at South Mercer Island Junior HS.

After two years as an offensive tackle with Washington State, Smith transferred to the University of Hawaii. He later returned to Washington State, where he earned his degree in science education and mathematics.

Born in Williamsport, PA. (5/20/47), Smith grew up in Clarkston, Wash., where he attended Clarkston HS.

Jeff and his wife Ann Bixby moved to Dallas to scout the south-central United States in 1980 when he was still with Seattle, and he continues to make Dallas his home in his new role with the Broncos.

SCOTT DiSTEFANO

College Scout

Scott DiStefano is in his 12th year as an area scout for the midwestern region, all with the Denver Broncos.

DiStefano, 37, was a quarterback at Colorado State University from 1976-80, also serving as a graduate assistant coach at CSU (1980-81) before coming to the Broncos.

A native of Alliance, Ohio, DiStefano was an all-conference quarterback in 1975 at Alliance High School, the same school at which Pro Football Hall of Famer Len Dawson played quarterback. He received the 1974 Massillon JayCee's conference sportsmanship award.

Scott has a son, Patrick, and he makes his home in Chicago.

DAVID GETTLEMAN

College Scout

David Gettleman is in his first year as an area scout for the Broncos and his eighth in scouting overall, concentrating on the east coast region for Denver.

Gettleman, 43, became a full-time scout with the Bills in 1987, was assigned as the Bills' representative to the BLESTO combine in 1988, and continued in that capacity through 1993.

He began his coaching career at Spackenkill High School in Poughkeepsie, New York as their head coach (1972-78), leading his team to a pair of league titles. He then spent a year as a graduate assistant at Cal State-Long Beach (1979-80) before joining the faculty at Kingston (N.Y.) High School as a teacher-coach in 1982. In 1984 he became the head coach at Kingston High School and led his team to a playoff berth.

Born in Boston, Massachusetts (2/21/51), he earned a bachelor's degree from Springfield (Mass.) College in 1972 and was an offensive tackle for the football team for two seasons. In addition, he has two master's degrees: one in physical education from Southern Connecticut State (1978) and another in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami (1986).

David and his wife JoAnne have two sons, Aaron and Sam and they reside in Hamburg, New York.

CHARLIE LEE

College Scout

Charlie Lee is in his second year as an area scout for the central United States region and his 14th year with the Broncos' organization. Prior to moving to the player personnel department, Charlie spent 11 years on the administrative side of the organization as the Director of Player and Community Relations.

Lee, 49, joined the Broncos as running backs coach in 1981, coming to Denver from the University of Texas, where he coached wide receivers from 1977-80. Prior to his experience at Texas, Lee coached at Arizona from 1974-76 and at Northwest Missouri State in 1973.

He began his career as a highly successful prep coach in football and track at Kansas City (Missouri) Central High School for five years, winning five consecutive state track titles.

A native of Liberty, Missouri, Lee was a leading scorer and rusher at Northern Arizona, twice earning Little All-American honorable mention honors. A 1968 graduate with a degree in education, Lee is a member of the Northern Arizona University Sports Hall of Fame.

Charlie has a son, Charles, Jr., and makes his home in Liberty, Missouri.

JACK ELWAY

Pro Scout

Jack Elway is in his second year as a pro scout for the Broncos, in which his duties include opponent scouting and veteran player evaluation.

Prior to coming to the Broncos, he was the head coach of the Frankfurt Galaxy in the World League (1991-1992) and scouted for the New York Jets (1990). Jack has also had an outstanding career as a college head coach, serving at Cal State Northridge (1976-78), San Jose State (1979-83), and Stanford (1984-88).

Elway also was head coach at Grays Harbor Community College (1961-66) and served in assistant roles at Montana (1967-71) and Washington State (1972-75). He posted a .650 winning percentage as a head coach and assistant coach on the high school, community college, Division I and Division II levels during his 34 seasons before moving into the pros.

Always noted for creative, multi-dimensional offenses, Elway also has served as head coach of the Blue-Gray Game and East-West Shrine Game.

Elway, 63, is a native of Hoquiam, Wash., he played quarterback at Washington State, where he earned both bachelor's and master's degrees.

Jack and his wife Jan have three children, Lee Ann, John Jr., and Jana. John Jr. was the number one pick in the 1983 NFL draft and has led the Broncos to three Super Bowl appearances.

TED SUNDQUIST

College Scout

Ted Sundquist is in his third season with the Broncos, his second as a Player Personnel Assistant. He works closely with Jack Elway in opponent scouting as well as veteran player evaluation. Ted will also be an area scout for the north-west region.

Sundquist, 32, played collegiately at the Air Force Academy before graduating into the coaching ranks. He joined the Air Force coaching staff for the 1984 season, and returned for the 1988-91 seasons. Along with his coaching duties Sundquist was also the Head Coach for the USAFA Preparatory School (1990-91) and took an active part in scouting for the Falcons.

Ted is single and makes his home in Denver, CO.

DENVER'S WINNING TRADITION

In addition to being the 75th anniversary of the National Football League, the 1994 season marks the 35th anniversary campaign for the Denver Broncos. This will be the 25th consecutive sellout season at Mile High Stadium, where Bronco fans have watched their team amass one of the NFL's finest records since Denver's first winning season in 1973.

Since Denver's first winning season in 1973, Denver has had just three losing seasons, as the list below shows.

This season also is Pat Bowlen's 11th as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Broncos, and also following are figures showing Denver's success record for the Bowlen era, 1984-93, both within the context of the entire NFL and within the American Football Conference Western Division.

Steve Atwater earned his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance in 1993 and was named All-AFC (UPI and Football News). He started every game for the Broncos in 1993, leading the team in tackles with 141 (80 tackles and 61 assists). Atwater also posted one sack, two interceptions and two forced fumbles on the year. His big game came in a losing effort at San Diego (12/5), where he racked up 14 total tackles (nine solo and five assisted), which was one of six games in which he finished with double figure tackles. 1992: Atwater earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth in 1992, and was also named All-NFL (AP, NEA, PFW/PFWA, TSN,) and All-AFC (Football News). He led the secondary and was second on the team with 151 total tackles, (73 tackles and 78 assists), and also posted two interceptions, a sack, 12 passes defended, two fumble recoveries, and two forced fumbles. Atwater sat out the season opener against the Raiders (9/6) with a sprained ankle but rebounded to post 17 total tackles in week two against the Chargers (9/13), one of nine games in which he recorded double figures in tackles. Atwater had a big game at Buffalo (12/12), recovering a fumble and intercepting a pass. 1991: In 1991 he earned his second straight Pro Bowl berth after a season in which he tied for the team lead with a career-high five interceptions and finished second on Denver's AFC-leading defense in total tackles with 150. Atwater was also named All-NFL (AP, Pro Football Weekly, College and Pro Football Newsweekly second-team) and All-AFC (Football News, Pro Football Weekly). For the season he registered 83 tackles, 67 assists, 11 passes defended, a sack, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery. Atwater was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Seahawks (9/15) in which he had 10 total tackles, picked off a pass, and recovered a fumble. He was in double figures in total tackles nine times that year, with a high of 14 vs. Phoenix (12/15). In post-season play Atwater had 17 total tackles and three passes defended, and he intercepted a pass vs. Houston (1/4). 1990: He made his first appearance in the Pro Bowl after a tremendous 1990 campaign in which he finished second on the Broncos' defense with 173 total tackles, including a team-high 112 solo tackles, despite missing one game due to injury. For his efforts he was also named All-NFL (College and Pro Football Newsweekly 2nd team, Newspaper Editors Association – 2nd team) and All-AFC (UPI, Football News), and was voted by his teammates as Denver's most valuable defensive player. In addition, Atwater also posted two interceptions, four passes defended, two forced fumbles, and a quarterback sack, while also registering 10 total tackles on special teams. From his strong safety position Atwater posted five of Denver's top 10 single game tackle totals, including a personal high of 18 vs. Pittsburgh (10/14), and had 12 or more total tackles in nine games. He cemented his reputation as a hard hitter after a thunderous collision with Kansas City's Christian Okoye in a nationally televised Monday night game (9/17). Atwater sat out the game vs. Seattle (9/23) with a rib strain and saw limited action against the Chargers (12/16) after suffering torn rib cartilage early in the first half. 1989: Atwater was named NFL All-Rookie (Pro Football Weekly, College and Pro Football Newsweekly) for a fine campaign in 1989. He made an immediate impact as the Broncos' first-round pick, taking the place of former defensive captain Mike Harden at free safety and combining with strong safety Dennis Smith to form one of the NFL's most physical safety tandems. Atwater started every regular season game and led the Bronco defense with 86 first hits. He was second on the squad with 129 total tackles and also claimed three interceptions, 10 passes defended, and a fumble recovery. Atwater had two interceptions in the week three contest against the Raiders (9/24), the second setting up the game-clinching field goal. He had six games with 10 or more total tackles, including a high of 12 vs. San Diego (10/8).

COLLEGE: Atwater was a three-time All-Southwest Conference selection and two-time All-American at the University of Arkansas. He became the Razorbacks' all-time interception leader with 14 over his four active campaigns. He went to the school as a wishbone quarterback but was moved to the secondary as a redshirt freshman.

Atwater closed out his college career with an appearance in the Senior Bowl, a game in which he had two interceptions.

PERSONAL: Steve and his wife Letha reside in the Denver suburb of Aurora with their two sons, Stephen Jr. and Di Andre. A native of Chicago, Ill., he was all-conference and league MVP as a wishbone quarterback at Lutheran North HS in St. Louis Mo., where he was named the school's top scholar-athlete. Steve lettered three times in football, once each in baseball and track, and four times in basketball, garnering all-league, all-district, and All-America honors in that sport. He was selected to play in the McDonald's All-Star Classic, but missed the contest due to the chicken pox. He enjoys playing pool, fishing, basketball, and bowling. Steve is involved with the Colorado Coalition for the Homeless and plays in charity golf tournaments across the country during the off-season. Steve's cousin Mark Ingram is a wide receiver for the New York Giants.

No. 33 ROD EARL BERNSTINE

Running Back

Birthdate — February 8, 1965

Birthplace — Fairfield, California

Residence — San Diego, CA

How Acquired — Unrestricted FA, 1993

College — Texas A&M

High School — Bryan HS.

Bryan Texas

Height — 6-3

Weight — 238

Pro Year — 8th

Year with Broncos — 2nd

Rod Bernstine posted excellent numbers in his first year as a Denver Bronco. Even with an injury early in the team's final home game against Tampa Bay (12/26) and being placed on injured reserve that following week, Bernstine still managed to end the season with 816 rushing yards, sixth in the AFC, and 1,188 total yards, also sixth in the AFC. Bernstine's most productive rushing day came at Chicago (12/18), rushing for 103 yards on 20 carries. Bernstine got his first 100-yard rushing day as a Bronco versus the Raiders (10/18), carrying a season tying high 23 times for 101 yards. Bernstine, a former tight end, also amassed 44 receptions, tying wide receiver Derek Russell for second on the team. His big receiving game came against Seattle (10/31), catching six passes for 47 yards. He also had a six catch day versus Minnesota (11/14). For the year, Bernstine caught at least one pass in 14 of the 15 games in which he played. 1992: The 1992 season was difficult for Bernstine because of injuries. In the week seven game vs. Indianapolis (11/1/92) Bernstine rushed for 150 yards on 23 carries before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with a shoulder injury. For his efforts Bernstine was awarded AFC player of the week honors, but he was also placed on injured reserve. Prior to game seven Bernstine led the Chargers in rushing. He returned to the active roster prior to game 14 against Cincinnati (12/13/93). In the following week's game vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/20/93) he sprained his right ankle which forced him to see limited action in the season finale against Seattle (12/27/93). Bernstine's injury problems continued into the playoffs. On his first carry in the Wild Card game against Kansas City (1/2/93) he sprained his left ankle forcing him out of the contest, and he was inactive for the Divisional playoff game vs. Miami (1/10/93). 1987: Bernstine was drafted by San Diego as a tight end with the 24th pick in the 1987 draft. He spent the 1987 season as an understudy to Kellen Winslow catching four passes for 31 yards, including a 10 yard touchdown pass from Dan Fouts against Cleveland (11/1). Bernstine showed his toughness on special teams and his teammates rewarded his efforts by voting him the Chargers' Outstanding Rookie of the Year. 1988: In 1988 Bernstine played the entire year at tight end before suffering a knee injury (12/4/88). He finished the season tied for fifth on the team with 29 receptions for 340 yards. He accounted for the two longest plays from scrimmage for the team in 1988 with 57 and 59 yard catches. His big day during the 1988 season was a nine-reception game vs. San Francisco (11/27/88) which was a team high in the 1988 season. 1989: In 1989 Bernstine took his first snaps at running back but was still vital to the Charger passing game. He led the team in receptions weeks two through four with his big day being an eight reception game against Houston (9/17/89). After suffering a sprained knee versus the Broncos (10/8/89), Bernstine was placed on injured reserve for the remainder of the season. 1990: The 1990 season saw Bernstine establish himself as a running back, saving his best performance for the last game of the year. In the season finale against the Raiders, he rushed 27 times for 114 yards, finishing the season with 124 carries for 589 yards, with a 4.8 yard average and 4 touchdowns. 1991: In 1991 Bernstine finished second on the team and seventh in the AFC in rushing with a career-high 766 yards on 159 carries (4.8 average). He led the team in touchdowns (eight) and was second on the team in scoring (48 points). Bernstine's rushing high in 1991 was 112 yards against Kansas City (9/29), but his most impressive game may have come against Miami (12/15). In that game he rushed for 104 yards on 13 carries, scored three touchdowns, and averaged eight yards per carry, a Charger team high in 1991.

COLLEGE: Bernstine converted from fullback to tight end in his junior year at Texas A&M. He led all tight ends nationally in receptions with 65 and finished eighth overall in receptions in his senior year. He participated in the Hula and Senior Bowls along with being named first team All-Southwest Conference and All-America in 1986.

PERSONAL: Rod and his wife Stephanie have one child, Payton (10/28/92), and the family resides in San Diego, Calif. He played his high school football at Bryan HS in Texas, where he was a three time All-District selection and was listed in Texas Football's Top 30. He was chairman of the Multiple Sclerosis 1989 Read-a-thon and now serves on the Board for Home of Guiding Hands which helps the mentally retarded.

College – Baylor
High School – Van Vleck HS,
 Van Vleck, TX
Height – 6-3
Weight – 207
Pro Year – 2nd
Year with Broncos – 2nd

Melvin Bonner saw little action in his rookie season, but hopes to make a bid for more playing time in 1994. He was inactive or did not play the first 11 weeks of the season, seeing action for the first time at San Diego (12/5).

COLLEGE: Bonner finished his college career as one of the best big play receivers in college football, posting regular season career totals of 92 receptions for 1,984 yards, a 21.6 average, and 19 touchdowns. His bowl game stats show seven catches for 198 yards and two TDs. As a senior, Bonner was selected to the Southwest Athletic Conference's first team and was a second team All-America (The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft). He was also an All-SWC first team (Football News, Dallas Morning News, Austin American-Statesman) selection as a junior. Bonner set a John Hancock Bowl record with 166 yards on five catches, scoring from 61 and 66 yards away. He was a radio/television major at Baylor.

PERSONAL: Melvin is single and makes his home in Bay City, TX. He was a first team all-district selection as a receiver and second team as a safety at Van Vleck HS in Van Vleck, TX. He was a two time All-Greater Houston selection and a member of the Nifty 50 squad (Houston Chronicle). He lettered twice in football, three times in basketball, and four times in track. He earned all-district and all-state in basketball, and was named male track athlete of the year.

Birthdate – October 1, 1970
Birthplace – Minot, ND
Residence – Boulder, Colo.
How Acquired – FA 1993
College – Colorado
High School – Adams City HS, Commerce City, Colo.
Height – 5-10
Weight – 188
Pro Year – 2nd
Year with Broncos – 2nd

Ronnie Bradford became a valued member of the Broncos' secondary in 1993 and will challenge for a starting spot in 1994. He was signed as a free agent by the Broncos after being drafted in the fourth round by the Miami Dolphins and released by the team in their 1993 training camp. Bradford made a key interception versus Kansas City (12/12), stopping a Chief drive and setting up a Jason Elam field goal, that cut the Chiefs' lead to four early in the contest. The following week at Chicago (12/18), Bradford earned his first start.

COLLEGE: Bradford was a four year letterman and two year starter at the University of Colorado. He was an honorable mention All-America (Football News) and first team All-Big Eight (Coaches) as a senior. Bradford racked up 53 solo tackles, 21 assists, three interceptions and two fumble recoveries for his career. He was a communications major at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Ronnie is single and resides in Boulder, CO. He was an All-America honorable mention (USA Today) as a senior at Adams City HS in Commerce City, CO. As a senior Ronnie finished the year with four interceptions, 14 passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal.

No. 10 JEFF CAMPBELL

Wide Receiver

Birthdate – March 26, 1969
Birthplace – Vail, CO
Residence – Denver, CO
How Acquired – FA, 1994
College – Colorado
High School – Battle Mountain HS,
Vail, CO
Height – 5-8
Weight – 167
Pro Year – 5th
Year with Broncos – 1st

Jeff Campbell came to the Broncos as an unrestricted free agent after playing his entire career with the Detroit Lions, and he hopes to contribute as a wide receiver and on special teams. Campbell's playing time fell in the 1993 season due to the Lions' use of a tight end. He played in 10 games with two-reception days at New England (9/12) and at Tampa Bay (10/3). Campbell finished the 1993 season with seven receptions for 55 yards. 1992: Campbell bounced back from injuries he suffered in 1991, beginning the season as a backup. His big reception came on a 78-yard scoring toss versus Tampa Bay (10/25), his longest career reception. Campbell made his first start versus Green Bay (11/1), catching a season high three passes for 29 yards. Campbell missed three games toward the end of the season with an ankle injury. He finished the year with eight receptions for 155 yards and one touchdown, returning for the final two regular season games. 1991: Campbell won a starting assignment in the season opener at Washington (9/1), but left the game with a back injury which forced him to miss the next two contests. He played in the remainder of the regular season games upon his return, catching his first pass of the season, a 21-yard reception from Rodney Peete, in the week seven matchup at San Francisco (10/20). Campbell finished the year with two receptions for 49 yards. He sustained a knee injury in preparation for the playoffs that kept him out of both playoff contests. 1990: Campbell made his first career reception at Minnesota (10/7), a 29-yard reception. He drew his first career start versus Minnesota (11/11), making a team high four receptions for 53 yards, including an 18-yard touchdown reception. He had a career high seven receptions at the New York Giants (11/18) for 33 yards. For the year Campbell finished with 19 receptions for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

COLLEGE: Campbell's weaving and spinning style propelled him to Colorado's career school record with 904 punt return yards, and he also tied the school mark with 84 punt returns. He finished his collegiate career with 28 receptions for 802 yards (28.6 avg.) and one touchdown. He also had some success in the rushing department, gaining 439 yards on 23 carries (19.1 avg.). As a senior Campbell earned All-Big Eight honors as a return specialist and was selected to the second team as a receiver. He was also an All-America honorable mention by the Sporting News. Campbell owns the school record with a 90-yard TD catch. Campbell graduated with a degree in sociology.

PERSONAL: Jeff is single and makes his offseason home in Denver, CO. He was a four-year letterman in football, hockey and track at Battle Mountain HS in Vail, CO. He was a two-time state champion in the 100 and 200-meter dashes, and ranked in the top 25 prep hockey players in the country.

Ray Crockett came to the Broncos as an unrestricted free agent from the Detroit Lions in the 1994 offseason. Crockett is expected to step in and contribute immediately in pass coverage for the team, after a very productive career with the Lions. In 1993 Crockett finished the season with 68 tackles (57 solo), two interceptions, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. In Crockett's five seasons in the NFC he's earned the reputation as one of the game's most physical cornerbacks. 1992: Crockett was slowed early in the season by injuries, but had a good outing versus Minnesota (9/13). He finished the game with a pass interception and four tackles (three solo). Two weeks later versus Tampa Bay he picked off his second pass of the season, and was credited with four tackles. His best all-around performance came versus Chicago, where he recorded a sack, intercepted a pass, and made five solo tackles. He ended the season with 52 tackles (41 solo), four interceptions, one forced and one recovered fumble. 1991: Crockett tied for the NFC lead and finished second in the NFL in interceptions with six. His interception return of 96 yards was the NFL's longest of the season, Crockett's 141 return yards were the most by a Lion since 1967. He was named Defensive Player of the Week after recording a team high eight tackles and the 96-yard interception return versus the Dallas Cowboys (10/27). Crockett finished the year with 86 tackles (74 solo), six interceptions and one forced fumble. 1990: Crockett finished second on the team in interceptions with three. He played primarily in nickel situations, earning his first start against the Broncos on Thanksgiving Day (11/22). Crockett finished the game with five solo tackles and an interception. His best game came at Green Bay, finishing with eight tackles, one interception, and a fumble return for a touchdown. For the season Crockett's numbers were 59 tackles (53 solo), three interceptions, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. 1989: Crockett played as a nickel back in all 16 contests, finishing the season with 46 tackles (34 solo), one interception and one forced fumble.

No. 51 MIKE CROEL

Linebacker

Birthdate – June 6, 1969
Birthplace – Detroit, Mich.
Residence – Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired – Draft #1, 1991
College – Nebraska
High School – Lincoln-Sudbury,
Sudbury, Mass.
Height – 6-3
Weight – 231
Pro Year – 4th
Year with Broncos – 4th

Mike Croel started every game in 1993 for the second straight year, finishing the year fourth on the team in tackles with 110 (79 solo). Croel's big game came at Seattle (11/28), where he racked up eight solo tackles and three assists with two sacks. At Green Bay (10/10), Croel recorded his first professional interception, returning it 22 yards for his first professional touchdown. At Chicago (12/18), Croel's sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery, all on the same play, led to a key Bronco score that helped propel the team to a much needed victory. 1992: Croel started every game at outside linebacker in 1992 and had 66 tackles, 31 assists, while also posting five sacks, four passes defended, two forced fumbles, and a fumble recovery. Against Kansas City (10/4) Croel had a sack and forced a fumble, and had 2.5 sacks vs. San Diego (9/13). He set the tone for Denver's defense when he threw Jeff Hostetler for a 10-yard loss on the first play of the game against the Giants (11/15). 1991: Croel had a tremendous season in 1991 and for his efforts was named the NFL Rookie of the Year (Bert Bell Award-World Almanac, Washington Touchdown Club, Pro Football Weekly, Pro-Set). The fourth player taken in that year's draft, Croel was also named AFC Defensive Rookie of the Year (AP, College and Pro Football Newsweekly) and NFL All-Rookie (Football News, Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, College and Pro Football Newsweekly). He began the regular season backing up Tim Lucas at outside linebacker, but became a starter after Lucas was injured early in the third game of the year. Croel started the next nine games until a sprained ankle, and then chicken pox, sidelined him for three contests. He returned to start the regular season finale and both post-season games. Croel in 1991 finished second on the team with 10 sacks, and was on pace to break Leslie O'Neal's NFL rookie sack record of 12.5 before his injury. Midway through the season he had a stretch of six games in which he posted at least one sack, including two vs. Kansas City (11/17). He forced a team-leading four fumbles, one of which was returned for a TD at Seattle (11/24) by Warren Powers. In regular season play, Croel also netted 55 tackles, 29 assists, and two passes defended, and had five tackles and an assist on special teams. In the Broncos two postseason games he had eight total tackles and broke up one pass.

COLLEGE: Croel was a consensus All-Big Eight selection in his senior season at Nebraska, and also earned several All-American honors. Regarded as the fastest linebacker in the country, as well as one of the fastest defensive players, he closed out his college play with 142 tackles, 12 sacks, and 13 passes broken up, while also blocking four kicks on the Huskers' special teams unit. He was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award as a senior. As a junior Croel was named an honorable mention All-American and made the All-Big Eight second team.

PERSONAL: Mike and his wife Cassaundra make their offseason home in Aurora, Colo. A native of Detroit, Mich., he was an all-state and all-league selection as a tight end at Lincoln-Sudbury (Mass.) HS, leading his team to a string of 25 consecutive victories during his three year career. As a senior Croel average 29.0 yards on 19 receptions, scored touchdowns on a kickoff return, punt return and on a free kick, blocked three punts, and led the team in tackles. He was also a standout in track, winning the New England prep 100-meter title as a sophomore with a 10.7 second time. Mike was an art major at the University of Nebraska, and has furthered his art career by hosting an annual Mike Croel Art Show which showcases his work, along with the work of other artists. His special area is design graphics, but he also likes to paint abstracts. Mike is also a spokesperson for the Rocky Mountain Adoption Exchange.

Residence – Scottsdale, AZ

How Acquired – Unrestricted FA, 1993

College – Missouri

High School – Dodge City Hs.
Dodge City, Kansas

Height – 6-0

Weight – 210

Pro Year – 7th

Year with Broncos – 2nd

Robert Delpino finished his first season with the Broncos second on the team in rushing behind Rod Bernstine. He finished the season with 445 rushing yards on 131 carries. He impressed the coaches with his versatility and nose for the end zone. His eight touchdowns ranked him tied for fourth in the AFC. Delpino's big rushing day came against Indianapolis. On the day he carried 16 times for 83 yards and a touchdown. Delpino also proved to be a valuable receiver, catching 26 passes for the season. Delpino also caught at least one pass in 14 of the 16 regular season games and finished with a team high 20.9 kickoff return average. 1992: Delpino is known to be an excellent all-purpose player, and showed off his skills in the first game of the 1992 season against Buffalo (9/6/93). In that game Delpino rushed for 30 yards on nine carries and caught five passes for 46 yards. In the weeks following the first game, Delpino remained a solid contributor for the Rams before sustaining a sprained left knee in a week five matchup against San Francisco (10/4/93). The injury forced Delpino out of action for the next six games, before being activated for the week 13 matchup vs. Minnesota (11/29/92). He played spot duty in that game and for the remainder of the season, primarily seeing action on passing downs. 1988: Delpino was taken by the Rams in the fifth round of the 1988 draft and played in 15 of the 16 regular season games, starting three. He received several awards for his play that year including team rookie of the year and special teams player of the year. 1989: In 1989 Delpino appeared in all 16 regular season games and started one. He finished the season with 1036 all purpose yards and racked up 11 tackles on special teams. 1990: In 1990 he appeared in 15 regular season games and accounted for 613 all-purpose yards. He also made three special teams tackles. 1991: The 1991 season was Delpino's best year as a pro. He accounted for 1305 yards in total offense. He was first on the team in rushing with 688 yards on 214 carries and nine touchdowns, and finished second on the team in receiving with 55 catches for 617 yards and one touchdown. Delpino's sixty points (10 touchdowns) placed him in a tie for sixth in NFL scoring for the '91 season.

COLLEGE: Delpino transferred from Dodge City Community College to the University of Missouri in 1986 for his last two collegiate seasons. In 1985 he was named Kansas Junior College League MVP by compiling a total of 59 catches for more than 600 yards and seven touchdowns. He went to the Tigers as a wide receiver, but converted to running back in his senior year. As a senior he rushed for 750 yards on 115 carries for a 6.5 yard average.

PERSONAL: Robert and his wife Danielle were married on April 9, 1994, and the couple makes their home in Scottsdale, Az. He attended Dodge City HS in Dodge City, Kansas, where he played tight end and wide receiver on the football team.

Shane Dronett continued to have a nose for the ball in his second professional season with the Broncos. He picked off two interceptions (Green Bay 10/10 and Chicago 12/18), one behind the team leaders, and racked up seven sacks with five passes defended. He finished the year with 49 total tackles, 32 solo. Dronett's interception at Chicago stopped a Bear drive deep in Bronco territory early in the second quarter. He also had a two sack performance versus Seattle (10/31) and at Cleveland (11/7), finishing the year with seven total. 1992: Dronett had an impressive NFL debut in 1992, playing well enough to move into the starting line-up for the final two games of the campaign. He closed out the season third on the team with 6.5 sacks, while also posting 30 tackles, 23 assists, five passes defended, two fumble recoveries, and a forced fumble. Midway through the season he had two sacks against the Jets (11/8) and the following week forced and recovered a fumble against the Giants (11/15).

COLLEGE: Dronett was a first-team All-American and a two-time all-conference choice during his sterling career at the University of Texas. A consensus All-Southwest Conference player as a senior, Dronett posted 72 tackles (44 solo), 25 quarterback pressures, four blocked kicks, four forced fumbles, and nine passes broken up. Dronett became a starter at left defensive end as a freshman with the Longhorns.

PERSONAL: Shane is single and has a daughter, Berkley (8/31/92). He makes his offseason home in his native Orange, Texas, where he attended Bridge City HS. He was a second-team Class 4A all-state selection as a tight end, earning third-team honors on the Texas Sportswriters' Super All-State squad. He was rated the best tight end prospect overall by the Austin American-Statesman, closing out his career with an appearance in a Texas all-star game in which he played against Tommy Maddox. Shane was a pre-business major at Texas.

Year with Broncos – 12th

John Elway comes into his 12th NFL season after a magnificent 1993 campaign in which he further solidified his position as one of the game's all-time greats. During Elway's era (1983-93), the Hall of Fame-caliber quarterback has spurred his team on to three victories in four AFC Championship Games, five AFC Western Division titles, and six playoff berths, including last year's Wild Card playoff spot.

Last year he was named AFC Player of the Year (Football News), AFC Offensive Player of the Year (UPI, Kansas City 101 Club), and AFC Most Valuable Player (NFL Players Association), in addition to being named All-AFC (UPI and Football News) and second-team All-NFL (AP, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest). He also was named by his peers as Denver's offensive MVP and as the AFC Pro Bowl starter at quarterback.

Dan Fouts, San Diego	6	1979 – 81, 1984 – 86	15	43,040

Elway comes into 1994 with 34,246 career passing yards (seventh best all-time) and 36,681 yards of total offense (sixth best all-time and 3,319 away from 40,000). In addition, he has 2,435 rushing yards in his career (eighth among all-time quarterbacks and fifth among all-time Bronco rushers). Elway has accounted for 205 TDs as a pro, 183 passing and 22 rushing, and he has generated 3,006 career points in regular season play. For his career, he has directed Denver to scores in better than three in 10 drives (30.7%). He holds or is tied for 19 regular season Bronco records, including most touchdown passes (183), highest average gain per rush (4.5), and lowest career interception avoidance percentage (.034). He holds an NFL record with seven consecutive campaigns (1985-91) with over 3,000 yards passing and over 200 yards rushing.

In his career, Elway has engineered 32 fourth quarter, game-saving drives, and the team has a record of 31-0-1 in the contests. Those games include 25 fourth quarter, game-winning drives and seven fourth-quarter, game tying drives (See complete listing of drives farther into this bio).

Elway now is 105-65-1 (.617) as a starting quarterback but can claim a 101-59-1 (.630) mark since taking over as the permanent starter in the first game of 1984. He is pro football's winningest quarterback in total wins from 1984-93. Elway has a career regular season record of 98-59-1 (.623), including a 62-18 (.775) mark at Mile High Stadium.

He has completed 50 passes of 50 or more yards as a Bronco and has 20 regular season (23 overall) 300-yard passing games, including four last year, three in the regular season as well as the playoff game vs. the Raiders. He has had 33 overall games with 300 or more yards of total offense and Denver is 19-13-1 in those contests.

In postseason play Elway has started 13 of 14 games and has completed 229 of 431 passes for 3,321 yards, with 19 touchdowns and 18 interceptions. He has gained 372 yards rushing on 71 attempts, scoring four times in postseason play.

1993: Elway was named AFC Most Valuable Player (NFL Players Association), AFC Offensive Player of the Year (UPI, and the Kansas City 101 Club), and AFC Player of the Year (Football News) in 1993. Elway performed at an MVP-pace all year, earning all-AFC (UPI, Football News) and second-team all-NFL (AP, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football Digest), and he was the starting quarterback in the 1994 Pro Bowl after a regular season that saw him lead the AFC in all six major quarterback stats categories. Elway's 1993 stats and rankings included a 92.8 rating (first in the AFC, third in the NFL), 551 attempts (first in the entire NFL), 348 completions (first in the entire NFL), a 63.2 completion percentage (first in the AFC and third in the NFL), 25 TD passes (first in the AFC and second in the NFL), 4,030 yards (first in the AFC). Elway's 1.8 interception avoidance percentage was fourth in the AFC, but stands as the best in Denver history for any quarterback with more than 75 single-season attempts. Last year he set new personal and Denver records for total yards offensively (4,183), completions (348), passing yards (4,030), TD passes (25), and completion percentage (that 63.2 mark tied the figure set by Norris Weese in 1978). Nineteen ninety-three was Elway's first 4,000-yard season and his eighth 3,000-yard season. He also rushed for 153 yards last year. Elway was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week twice and was named by his teammates as Denver's offensive MVP. In the regular season finale at Los Angeles he had his second highest passing yardage figure of the year (361, his third 300-yard game of the campaign), throwing three TD passes. His 382 yards of total offense in that same Raiders' game marked the sixth best Bronco figure in team history. Elway completed over 60% of his passes in 11 of the 16 games. At San Diego in game 12 (Dec. 5) his streak of consecutive games with at least one TD pass ended at 12 (it had begun with a TD pass in the last game of the 1992 campaign, and it ended one game short of his personal best of 13 straight), and he twice had long single-game completion streaks (Elway completed 13 straight passes vs. Minnesota on Nov. 14 and hit on 10 straight at Seattle Nov. 28). That streak of 13 straight completions is Denver's second highest single-game total ever. Elway had 30 completions against the Vikings, one of two 30-completion games in 1993 for Elway. Elway at Green Bay (Oct. 10) set personal bests for attempts (59, a new team record), completions (33, the second highest ever by a Bronco), and set a new team record with 64 total plays from scrimmage, including 59 passes and five rushes. In addition, Elway's 394 yards of total offense at Green Bay were the fourth highest ever by a Bronco, and the second highest ever by Elway (he had 432 at Seattle 12/20/85). Elway utilized no fewer than six receivers in any game last year, with the high being nine on opening day vs. the Jets (Sept. 5). He threw TD passes to eight different receivers in 1993.

ELWAY NAMED 1992 EDGE NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

John Elway was named the 1992 Edge NFL Man of the Year for his work with the Elway Foundation, a non-profit organization which has raised over $1,000,000 that was directed toward the prevention and treatment of child abuse throughout Colorado.

Among the groups assisted by the Elway Foundation are Family Focus and the Kempe Children's Foundation. The Elway Foundation in 1991 alone raised over $400,000.

Elway is also a member of the Mayor's Council on Physical Fitness and has served as chairman of the National Kidney Foundation for the Rocky Mountain region.

The Edge NFL Man of the Year award is truly unique in that it is the only league-sponsored award that recognizes a player's off-the-field community service work as well as his playing excellence. Perhaps the most prestigious of all NFL awards, it has been in existence since 1970.

1992: Elway completed 174 of 316 passes for 2,242 yards, with 10 touchdowns and 17 interceptions. He gained 94 yards and scored twice on 34 rushing attempts. He missed games 11 through 14 because of a bruised tendon in his right shoulder, suffered while running for a first down against the Giants (11/15). Elway earned two AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors last year, grabbing the first one for his performance on opening day. Against the Raiders (9/6) he drove Denver 85 yards in seven plays to score the winning points with 55 seconds left, a score set up by a 48-yard pass to Arthur Marshall. His second player-of-the-week honors came after he threw two touchdown passes in the final two minutes to give Denver a 20-19 victory over Kansas City (10/4). Elway passed for 311 yards in that game, his only 300-yard effort of the season. In week two against San Diego (9/13) Elway threw two TD passes and scored on an eight-yard run. Against the Jets (11/8) he threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Arthur Marshall, his longest regular season TD pass ever. He turned in a sterling performance against Houston (10/18), directing a three-play, 80-yard drive for the winning score with less than two minutes remaining in the game.

1991: Elway completed 242 of 351 passes for 3,253 yards, a total ranked sixth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL. He threw 12 touchdown passes and tied a career low with just 12 interceptions. He had 36 pass completions of 20+ yards, nine of 40+, five of 50+, and four of 60+. Elway was third on the team with 258 yards rushing, and his six TDs led the team and set a new career single season high. He was bothered throughout the second half of the season by a shoulder problem that was corrected by arthroscopic surgery in the 1992 offseason.

Against Cincinnati in the season opener (9/1), Elway threw for 262 yards and two touchdowns, scored two rushing TDs, and caught a 24-yard pass from Steve Sewell. Against Kansas City (10/20) he combined with Mark Jackson for a 71-yard gain on a fourth-and-13 play to set up the winning field goal. Elway had his only 300-yard passing performance of the year in Denver's loss at Houston (10/6), with 301 yards. His heroics were never more evident than in the Broncos' 26-24 Divisional Playoff Game victory over Houston (1/4). He rallied Denver from a 21-6 deficit, and on a drive in which he completed a fourth-down pass to Michael Young for a first down, he drove his team to a touchdown to cut the Oilers' lead to one point at 24-23. Houston's next drive stalled but a punt gave the Broncos the ball on the two. Twice Elway converted fourth down plays, first on a seven-yard run and later with a 44-yard pass to Vance Johnson, to set up Denver's winning field goal. For the game Elway completed 19 of 33 passes for 257 yards, with one TD and one interception, and rushed six times for 39 yards. In the AFC Championship Game loss at Buffalo (1/12) he completed 11 of 21 passes for 121 yards and an interception before having to leave the game in the fourth quarter with a thigh injury.

1990: Elway completed 294 of 502 passes in 1990, (a .586 completion percentage that stands as the highest of his career), for 3,526 yards, 15 touchdowns, and 14 interceptions. He gained 258 yards on 50 rushing attempts and scored three touchdowns on the ground. Elway turned in several gutsy performances last season, and played some of his best games in the midst of Denver's six game losing streak, including a 328-yard, two-TD performance at Kansas City (12/9). That performance was his 17th career 300-yard game and the 27th time in which he totaled over 300 yards of total offense. Denver is 18-8-1 in those games. Elway had three of his top six career completion percentages in 1990, with a high of .800 at Minnesota (11/4), and also tied his personal single game completion mark with 30 vs. Seattle (9/23). Elway and wide receiver Vance Johnson combined on Denver's most memorable play of the season when on fourth and 10 against Kansas City (9/17) they connected on a 49-yard pass that set up a last second game-winning field goal attempt. He also set a new regular season rushing high with a mark of 52 yards against the Raiders (12/2).

1989: Elway in 1989 led Denver to its third AFC Championship in four years. He completed 223 of 416 passes for 3,051 yards, with 18 touchdowns and 18 interceptions, and he rushed for 244 yards on 48 carries, scoring three times. Elway had one 300-yard passing game in the regular season, passing for 344 yards and two TDs in the Broncos' overtime win at Seattle (10/22). He led Denver to a 38-0 halftime lead against the Seahawks (11/26) after passing for 217 yards and four TDs. In the divisional playoff game vs. Pittsburgh (1/7/90) Elway completed 12 of 20 passes for 239 yards, including completions of 51 and 37 yards, and rushed for 44 yards, with one run of 32 yards. He had one of the best performances of his career in the AFC Championship Game against Cleveland (1/14), totaling over 300 yards total offense for the third time in a conference title game. He completed 20 of 36 passes for 385 yards and three TDs. Elway combined with Michael Young on a 70-yard scoring play, completed a 43-yard pass to Steve Sewell, threw a 39-yard TD pass to Sammy Winder, and gained 25 of his 39 rushing yards on one play. In Super Bowl XXIV (1/28) he completed 10 of 26 passes for 108 yards and scored Denver's only TD of the game on a three yard run.

1988: In 1988 Elway threw for 3,309 yards and rushed for 234 yards despite being bothered for most of the season by several nagging injuries. He was voted by teammates as Denver's most valuable offensive player for the fourth straight year, sharing the award with running back Sammy Winder, following a campaign in which he completed 274 of 496 passes, with 17 touchdowns and 19 interceptions. He had his only 300-yard passing game of the season against the Raiders (12/4) with 324 yards and two touchdowns.

1987: Elway was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player (AP) and the AFC's starting quarterback in the Pro Bowl after turning in a tremendous season in 1987, a year in which he became the first AFC signal caller since Terry Bradshaw (1978-79) to lead his team to consecutive conference crowns. Elway was named All-NFL (The Sporting News, NEA, AP-second team) and All-AFC (UPI, Pro Football Weekly, The Football News), in addition to being tabbed as the AFC MVP (NFLPA), AFC Player of the Year (The Football News), AFC Offensive Player of the Year (UPI, Kansas City 101 Club), and Colorado Pro Athlete of the Year (Colorado Sports Hall of Fame). He was dynamic in the AFC Championship Game against the Browns, completing 14 of the 26 passes for 281 yards and three TDs, while also rushing 11 times for 36 yards. In Super Bowl XXII he completed 14 of 38 passes for 257 yards, ran for 32 yards on three carries, and became the first quarterback in Super Bowl history to catch a pass, a 23-yarder from Steve Sewell. Elway's 56-yard scoring strike to Ricky Nattiel on Denver's first play from scrimmage provided the earliest TD in Super Bowl history (elapsed time of 1:57). He was voted the Broncos' offensive MVP for a regular season performance in which he completed 224 of 410 passes for 3,198 yards, an average of 267 yards per game, with 19 TD passes. Elway had four 300 yard passing games that year, a team record. He led all AFC quarterbacks in rushing for the fourth straight season was second on the team with a career-high 304 yards, scoring four times.

1986: Elway led the Broncos to their first AFC Championship in nine seasons in 1986, while earning his first Pro Bowl berth. He was honored with the Seattle Gold Helmet Award (Professional Football Player of the Year) and received the King of the Hill award from the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame, in addition to being named honorable mention All-NFL (AP) and All-AFC (UPI-second team). Along with his 18 TD passes that year, Elway also scored on an 11 -yard run and a 23-yard pass reception from Steve Sewell that is the longest TD catch by a full-time starting QB in NFL history. His best statistical game of the season came against the Giants (11/23) when he passed for 336 yards and led the team with 51 yards rushing. Elway directed one of the greatest drives in NFL postseason history in pacing Denver to a 23-20 overtime win over Cleveland for the AFC title. He completed 22 of 38 passes for 244 yards and a TD, that coming on a five-yard strike to Mark Jackson that capped a 15-play, 98-yard drive that tied the game at the end of regulation. In overtime Elway drove the team 60 yards in nine plays to the winning field goal. In Super Bowl XXI Elway completed 22 of 37 passes for 304 yards and one TD, also scoring on a four-yard run.

1985: Elway took some spectacular steps forward in 1985, as the Stanford graduate rewrote the Denver record book Elway set Bronco single season records for attempts (605, which led the NFL and fell just four passes short of the NFL record of 609 held by Dan Fouts), completions (327, second in the NFL), passing yards (3,891, second in the NFL), total rushing and passing plays (656, first in the NFL), and total offense (4,414, also first in the league).

1984: Elway led the Broncos to a 12-2 record in his 14 regular season starts in 1984. He completed 214 of 380 passes for 2,598 yards, with 18 TDs and 15 interceptions. Not only was his passing a factor in his leadership of the offense, but he finished third on the team in rushing with 237 yards.

1983: Elway started 10 games in 1983, including the first five before being replaced by Steve DeBerg and five more after DeBerg was injured. While Elway did not have impressive stats as a rookie, finishing 17th among AFC passers, he carried a tremendous emotional burden, having come to the NFL as the most publicized college prospect since Joe Namath in 1965. Elway was the first player chosen in the 1983 draft and joined the Broncos by trade with Baltimore on May 2.

COLLEGE: John concluded his college career with five major NCAA Division 1-A records and nine major Pac-10 marks. Elway completed 62.1 percent of his career passes (774 of 1,243, both NCAA highs) for 9,349 yards and 77 touchdowns, while setting an NCAA record for the lowest percentage of passes intercepted in a career (3.13 percent). As a senior, John was a consensus All American and finished second in Heisman Trophy balloting while setting virtually every Pac-10 and Stanford career record for total offense and passing. A two-sport star, John played baseball for the New York Yankees' Oneonta (N.Y.) single-A farm club in 1982, hitting for a .318 average and knocking in a team-high 24 runs batted in. He was the Yankees' first selection in the 1981 summer draft. He hit .349 with nine homers and 50 RBI in 49 games in his final college baseball season as a sophomore. Elway has a degree in economics from Stanford.

PERSONAL: John and his wife Janet have four children, including three daughters, Jessica Gwen (10/17/85), Jordan Marie (6/1/87), Juliana (3/7/91), and a son, Jack (8/11/89). The family makes its home in Englewood, Colo. A native of Port Angeles, Wash., Elway was the most highly recruited prep athlete in the nation in 1979 and was listed on Parade, Scholastic Coach, Football News, and National Coaches Association All-America teams. He had an unparalleled football-baseball career at Granada Hills HS. John was 129 of 200 for 1,837 yards and 19 TDs as a senior, while leading the baseball team to the Los Angeles City championship with a .491 batting average and a 4-2 pitching record. He completed 60 percent of his high school passes for 5,711 yards and 49 TDs. The Kansas City Royals selected him in the 1979 summer draft, although he already had signed a national letter of intent with Stanford. John's father, Jack, coached his son in the East-West Shrine contest in which John earned Offensive MVP laurels, and is currently a member of the Broncos' scouting department.

(*—the second number is the percentage the quarterback has put his team in position to score, allowing for missed field goal and subtracting those drives ended by the clock and replaced due to injury. #—drives for 1984 add to one more than drives started because Elway replaced Kubiak on one drive.)

NOTES:

- For his career, he has directed Denver to scores in better than 3 in 10 drives; when you adjust the figure as stated above, the figures work to 38 in 100).
- In 1,807 career drives, started, he has been replaced only six times due to injury (based on if a replacement QB earned at least one first down on the drive; that's 0.0033 percent, or 3 in 1,000).
- As far as drive efficiency was concerned, Elway had his best season in 1993 (he had better numbers only in 1987, but that was a strike year).

JOHN ELWAY FOURTH-QUARTER HEROICS

In his career (1983-93) John Elway has engineered 32 fourth-quarter, game-saving drives for the Broncos, and the team has a record of 31-0-1 in those contests. Those games include:

- 25 fourth-quarter, game-winning drives (marked below with an asterisk). The Broncos have scored the winning points 17 times with less than three minutes remaining, 14 times under two minutes, and eight times with less than a minute left.
- seven fourth-quarter, game-tying drives. Denver went on to win six of those contests in regulation or overtime, and one game ended tied. The Broncos won in regulation vs. New England (11/4/84) and at Seattle (12/20/85). In overtime, Elway directed the game-winning drive in the AFC Championship Game at Cleveland (1/11/87), while the defense and special teams set up OT wins vs. San Diego (11/17/85), at San Francisco (10/9/88), and at Seattle (10/22/89). The game at Green Bay (9/20/87) ended in a tie.

*1983 vs. Baltimore – Throws three fourth-quarter TD passes, the last a 26-yarder to Gerald Willhite with 0:44 left in 21-19 win.

1984 vs. New England – Directs eight-play, 78-yard drive for seven-yard TD pass to Butch Johnson with 4:03 left to tie score at 19-19; Dennis Smith returns a fumble 64 yards for TD with 1:45 left in a 26-19 win.

*1984 at San Diego – Directs 10-play, 77-yard drive for Sammy Winder one-yard TD run with 0:38 left in 16-13 win.

*1984 vs. San Diego – Directs 12-play, 40-yard drive for Rich Karlis field goal with 2:08 left in 16-13 win.

*1985 vs. Atlanta – Directs three scoring drives (two TDs, one FG) in fourth quarter, erasing 28-27 deficit, in 44-28 win.

*1985 vs. San Francisco – Directs nine-play, 63-yard drive for Rich Karlis 24-yard field goal with 1:27 left in 17-16 win.

1985 vs. San Diego – Directs seven-play, 48-yard drive for Rich Karlis 34-yard field goal with 0:05 left to tie San Diego; Denver wins 30-24 on Louis Wright's 60-yard TD return of a blocked field goal in OT.

*1985 at Pittsburgh – Directs seven-play, 58-yard drive for Steve Sewell two-yard TD run with 1:45 left, taking a 24-23 lead; Mike Harden returns an interception 42 yards for a score for 31-23 win.

*1985 vs. Kansas City – Directs eight-play, 59-yard drive for Sammy Winder one-yard TD run with 0:22 left in 14-13 win.

1985 at Seattle – Directs eight-play, 80-yard drive for Steve Sewell one-yard run to tie game at 24-24 with 2:35 remaining; then passes for 27 yards to start a five-play, 34-yard drive (Gary Kubiak takes over when Elway is injured) for a Rich Karlis 43-yard field goal with 0:55 remaining in 27-24 win.

*1986 vs. L.A. Raiders – Directs nine-play, 39-yard drive for seven-yard pass to Gene Lang with 5:11 left in 38-36 win.

1986 at Cleveland (AFC Championship Game, 1/12/87) – Directs 15-play, 98-yard drive for five-yard TD pass to Mark Jackson with 0:39 left to tie game 20-20; in Denver's first OT possession, directs 60-yard drive for Rich Karlis 33-yard FG in 23-20 win.

1987 at Green Bay – Directs 18-play, 80-yard drive for Steve Sewell one-yard run with 5:53 remaining to tie game at 17-17; game ends in an overtime tie.

*1987 vs. Chicago – Directs eight-play, 61-yard drive for Steve Sewell four-yard TD run with 4:58 left in 31-29 win.

*1987 vs. New England – Directs six-play, 74-yard drive for two-yard TD pass to Mark Jackson with 12:41 left for 24-20 lead; Mark Haynes later returns an interception for 14 yards and a score in 31-20 win.

*1987 vs. Cleveland (AFC Championship Game, 1/17/88) – Directs five-play, 75-yard drive for 20-yard TD pass to Sammy Winder with 4:01 left for 38-31 lead; after safety and Ernest Byner fumble, Denver wins 38-33.

1988 at San Francisco – Directs nine-play, 58-yard drive for eight-yard TD pass to Vance Johnson with 8:37 left to tie game 13-13; Broncos win in overtime when Steve Wilson's interception sets up Rich Karlis 22-yard field goal 8:11 into overtime.

*1989 vs. San Diego – Directs 11-play, 74-yard drive for Bobby Humphrey 17-yard TD run with 1:03 left in 16-10 win.

1989 at Seattle – Throws 54-yard TD pass to Vance Johnson 2:19 left (only play of drive) to tie game 21-21; Dennis Smith interception sets up David Treadwell's 27-yard field goal at 7:14 of OT for 24-21 win.

*1989 at Kansas City – Directs 10-play, 72-yard drive for David Treadwell 26-yard FG with 0:01 left in 16-13 win.

*1989 vs. Pittsburgh (Playoffs, 1/7/90) – Directs nine-play, 71-yard drive for Melvin Bratton one-yard run with 2:27 left in 24-23 win.

*1990 vs. Kansas City – Directs 10-play, 79-yard drive for David Treadwell 22-yard FG with 0:00 left for 24-23 win.

*1990 at Indianapolis – Directs nine-play, 58-yard drive for David Treadwell 42-yard FG to break tie with 3:45 left; then directs five-play, 56-yard drive for Steve Sewell two-yard run with 1:41 left in 27-17 win.

No. 73 SIMON RAYNARD FLETCHER

Linebacker/Defensive End

Birthdate – February 18, 1962
Birthplace – Bay City, Tex.
Residence – Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired – Draft #2b, 1985
College – Houston
High School – Bay City HS,
 Bay City, Tex.
Height – 6-6
Weight – 240
Pro Year – 10th
Year with Broncos – 10th

Simon Fletcher continued to be a force at the linebacker position in 1993, being selected second team All-NFL (Football Digest). Fletcher was rewarded for his efforts by his teammates, being selected as the Broncos' defensive MVP for the second straight season and the third time in his career. He led the Broncos in sacks for the sixth straight season, posting 13.5 for the year. Fletcher's 13.5

sacks in 1993 tied for the second highest season totals in team history. The season sack record of 16 was set by Fletcher in 1992, and the 13.5 second place record was set by Fletcher in 1991. He now holds the all-time career sack mark with 85.5, surpassing Rulon Jones' 73.5 sack record in the home opener versus San Diego (9/12). Fletcher's 10th straight game with a sack at Kansas City (9/20) set a professional record for consecutive games with a sack. Fletcher had sacks in the last seven games of 1992 and the first three of 1993. Fletcher finished the season with 62 solo and 37 assisted tackles, one fumble recovery and three forced fumbles, while recording four two sack games (Pittsburgh 11/21, Seattle 11/28, Chicago 12/18 and Tampa Bay 12/26).

1992: In 1992 Fletcher earned his second career team defensive MVP award after recording 16 sacks to set a new single season record for the club. He broke the previous mark of 13.5, set in 1986 by Jones and tied by Fletcher in 1991. His total ranked second in the AFC behind San Diego's Leslie O'Neal, who had 17, and was the fourth highest mark in the NFL. He was Denver's sack leader in each of the past five seasons, also a first in team annals, and shares the team single-game sack record of four with Karl Mecklenburg. Having never missed a game in his pro career, Fletcher is second among all active Broncos in consecutive games in consecutive games played (124) and started (95). Last year he led the team with five forced fumbles and topped all non-defensive backs with nine passes defended. He registered 64 tackles and 35 assists as well. He had at least one sack in each of the last seven games of the campaign, including three and one-half at Seattle (11/30) and two each vs. the Giants (11/15), Seahawks (12/20), and Chiefs (12/27). In addition, Fletcher had two and one-half sacks in Denver's victory over Houston (10/18), a game in which he also broke up two passes and forced a fumble.

1991: Fletcher led the Broncos in sacks in 1991 for the fourth straight season, the first player in team history to accomplish that feat. His 13.5 sacks tied the club record set by Rulon Jones in 1986 and ranked second in the AFC. That season Fletcher had at least a half sack in the final 10 regular season games and had two-sack performances vs. Pittsburgh (11/3) and at San Diego (12/22). In addition to the sacks, he also posted 46 tackles, 43 assists, three passes defended, two forced fumbles, and a fumble recovery. Fletcher was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December. In postseason play he registered 14 total tackles and Denver's only sack.

1990: In 1990 Fletcher led Denver with 11 sacks, and had 55 tackles, 42 assists, a team-high four forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, and a pass defended. At Minnesota(11/4) he tied a team record with four sacks and he had two games in which he forced two fumbles.

1989: Fletcher set a new career high and ranked fourth in the AFC with 12 sacks in 1989. He had two or more sacks in three games, including a two and one-half sack performance at Cleveland (10/1). In addition, that year he had 61 first hits, 44 assists, three forced fumbles, two passes defended, and a fumble recovery. He had 13 total tackles at Seattle (10/22) and 12 at Kansas City (11/12).

1988: Fletcher had a tremendous season in 1988 and was voted Denver's Most Valuable Defensive Player by his teammates. He led the team with a career high nine quarterback sacks, a figure tied for sixth in the AFC. Three times in 1988 Fletcher was named the Broncos' overall player of the game and was honored as the defensive player of the game twice. Against Cleveland (11/13) Fletcher posted 11 total tackles, including two sacks, and he forced and recovered a fumble. In addition to the nine sacks, Fletcher's season totals show 115 total tackles, his first interception as a professional, and six passes defended.

1987: He had a fine season in 1987 as Denver's starting strong outside linebacker, his first campaign ever as a linebacker. Bronco coaches moved him from defensive end after the 1986 season to take advantage of his size and ability to drop off into pass coverage. Fletcher's top performances in the 1987 regular season included an 11-tackle, one-sack game against Green Bay (9/20), a 12-tackle game against the Raiders (11/22), and a strong performance vs. Kansas City (12/19) in which he netted two quarterback sacks fumble recovery. He closed out regular season play with 49 first hits, 21 assists, and four sacks. Fletcher was impressive in post-season play, registering 10 first hits in Super Bowl XXII (1/31) and five first hits and a sack in the AFC Championship Game vs. Cleveland (1/17), while posting six quarterback harassments in the three games. 1986: He played in every game in 1986, starting twice (at Philadelphia on 9/21 and as an outside linebacker vs. Washington on 12/13) and finishing the campaign with 43 tackles, two passes defended, and two fumble recoveries. Fletcher blocked a key field goal attempt in a Bronco win over the Raiders (11/2) and deflected an extra point in Denver's one-point win over the Redskins (12/13). He saw action in both AFC playoff games and in Super Bowl XXI, contributing seven tackles and two assists during post-season play. 1985: Fletcher played in all 16 games in 1985 and increased his playing time as the season went on, making his first pro start at Pittsburgh (12/1). Denver's second pick in the second round, Fletcher finished the season with 17 total tackles and one quarterback sack, that coming in the season finale at Seattle (12/20).

COLLEGE: Simon was a three-year starter at the University of Houston, where he posted 209 total tackles, including 30 tackles for losses and 14 quarterback sacks. Fletcher also defended 10 passes during a career in which he started 33 of the 37 games in which he played for the Cougars. As a senior he had 11 tackles for losses and eight sacks despite playing the last six games with a pinched nerve in his shoulder. He started at both right tackle (1982 and 1984) and right end (1983) during his college career, which he closed out with a Cotton Bowl appearance against Boston College.

PERSONAL: Simon is married (Pinkie) and has two daughters, Ashley Nicole (1/12/84) and Neomi Patrice (1/25/88), and the family makes its home in Aurora, Colo. He earned letters in both football and track at Bay City HS, and has an older brother who played football at Texas A&I.

No. 68 RUSSELL WILLIAMS FREEMAN

Tackle

Birthdate – September 2, 1969

Birthplace – Homestead, Pa.

Residence – Homestead, Pa.

How Acquired – FA, 1992

College – Georgia Tech

High School – Taylor Allderdice HS,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Height – 6-6

Weight – 272

Pro Year – 3rd

Year with Broncos – 3rd

Russell Freeman gained a lot of confidence with his play throughout the 1993 season, making a successful switch from the left tackle position he played in 1992, to right tackle after the Gary Zimmerman acquisition. He started every game in which he played in 1993, becoming a vital part of an offensive line that allowed quarterback John Elway the time to produce career numbers. Freeman missed two games because of a pulled rib muscle he suffered during pregame warm-ups at Seattle (11/28). 1992: Freeman was named NFL All-Rookie (College and Pro Football Newsweekly) for his play in 1992. He started every game at the key position of left tackle, after having been moved to the position midway through training camp. He was named a starter just prior to the final preseason game. Freeman joined the Broncos as a rookie free agent.

COLLEGE: Freeman played tackle at Georgia Tech from 1988-91 and was a member of the Ramblin' Wreck teams that played in the Citrus and Aloha Bowls. As a senior he was named first team all-conference and third team All-America by the Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft.

PERSONAL: Russell is single and resides in his native Homestead, Pa. At Allderdice HS in Pittsburgh, Pa., he lettered twice each in football and basketball and once in track, and was named academic all-state. He led the football team in quarterback sacks and started on both the offensive and defensive lines. Russell suffered a stroke his sophomore year due to a blood clot in the back of his head and spent six months in the hospital. A business major at Georgia Tech, Russell is single and enjoys playing basketball.

No. 75 BRIAN RICHARD HABIB

Guard/ Tackle

Birthdate – December 2, 1964
Birthplace – Ellensburg, Washington
Residence – Woodville, WA
How Acquired – Unrestricted FA, 1993
College – Washington
High School – Ellensburg HS, Ellensburg, Wash.
Height – 6-7
Weight – 299
Pro Year – 7th
Year with Broncos – 2nd

Brian Habib spent his first year as a Bronco entrenched at the right guard position. His solid play helped propel John Elway to his finest year as a pro. Habib started every game for the Broncos at right guard and steadily improved each week. He was a key part of the offensive line's success in the last two games versus the Raiders. In those two matchups, the offensive line allowed only one sack in 90 passing attempts. 1992: He started at the right guard position in 15 of the 16 regular season games for the Minnesota Vikings in 1992, and also started in the Vikings playoff game against the Washington Redskins (1/2/93). 1988: Habib was drafted as a defensive lineman in the 10th round by the Vikings in 1988, and was the 264th player taken overall. He spent the entire 1988 regular season on injured reserve after injuring his right shoulder vs. Miami (8/26/88), but was activated for the Vikings two playoff games. Midway through that season he was moved to the offensive side of the ball because of the lack of depth on the offensive line. 1989: In the 1989 season Habib played on the special teams in all 16 regular season games and saw action in the playoffs. 1990: In 1990 he played a back-up role at offensive tackle and continued his play on special teams. 1991: Habib started in eight of the 16 games in 1991, seeing action at both the guard and tackle positions.

COLLEGE: Habib had a productive senior season for the University of Washington improving on his junior year totals. During his final college campaign he racked up 70 tackles, two sacks, seven tackles-for-loss, and two fumbles. In 1986 he finished the season with 64 tackles, one sack, and three tackles-for-loss, which made him an All-Pac 10 honorable mention selection.

PERSONAL: Brian and his wife Shannon make their home in Woodville, WA, with their daughter Kaitlin Alexandra (4/30/93). In high school Brian was a four sport athlete. He participated in football, basketball, powerlifting, and was a state record holder in swimming. Brian holds a real estate license and is working toward certification for health and life insurance.

Randy Hilliard joined the Broncos as an unrestricted free agent this offseason, coming to Denver after four years with the Cleveland Browns. Hilliard is expected to fill a valuable role in the Broncos' defensive backfield this year. In 1993 he played in 12 games for the Browns and started five, recording 41 total tackles, including 26 solo and 15 assists. Hilliard knocked down 10 passes, fourth best among Cleveland defenders, and had one interception which he returned 54 yards. He has been a valuable special teams performer throughout his career, in addition to his defensive backfield duties. 1992: He had 27 tackles, seven passes defended, forced one fumble and recovered another for the Browns, as he played in every game and started four. Hilliard started in the six-DB alignment vs. Houston (12/20) and recorded six stops, including an 11-yard quarterback sack, forced a fumble which he also recovered. 1991: He started 10 of 14 games and recorded 59 tackles, with two sacks, nine passes defended, one interception, and a fumble recovery. Hilliard started at right cornerback for the final six games. He posted his first career interception to thwart a Patriots' drive in a Cleveland win over New England. 1990: His rookie season was spent mostly on special teams, making five tackles on kick coverage and two more in the Cleveland secondary. Hilliard was the Browns' sixth round selection in the 1990 draft.

COLLEGE: Hilliard returned three of his 10 career interceptions for touchdowns, earning first-team All-Southland Conference and second-team All-American honors as a senior at Northwestern Louisiana. He was honorable mention All-Conference as a junior and second-team All Southland as a sophomore. His longest touchdown run was on a 73-yard interception return as a freshman.

PERSONAL: Randy is married (Lynette), and they have thus far made their home in the Cleveland suburb of Strongsville. A native of Metairie, La., he was a three-time all-district choice at East Jefferson HS in Metairie, where he won MVP honors as a senior. Randy also lettered in track as a prep athlete. A journalism major at Northwestern Louisiana, Randy hopes to get into broadcasting after his playing career.

College – Florida State

High School – Escambia HS,
Pensacola, Fla.

Height – 6-2

Weight – 256

Pro Year – 4th

Year with Broncos – 4th

Reggie Johnson hopes for a healthy season in 1994, after battling injuries for much of the 1993 season. He played well in the games he participated, posting career high numbers. Johnson caught 20 passes for 243 yards and one touchdown for the year. His big day came in the season opener versus the Jets. In the game he caught four passes for 70 yards, with a long of 38 yards. 1992: He moved into the starting line-up for the final two games of the 1992 regular season, and was also in on the first play in five other games. He caught six passes for 41 yards and a TD in the final two contests to boost his season totals to 10 receptions for 139 yards, both career highs. Johnson set personal single-game highs with four catches at Kansas City (12/27) and 48 yards against the Chiefs in Denver (10/4). Johnson, who missed the season opener with a separated shoulder, returned a kickoff 34 yards against San Diego (9/13). 1991: Johnson played in every game in 1991, except the AFC Championship Game at Buffalo, and started three times. He closed out his rookie campaign with six receptions for 73 yards. Johnson's lone TD of the year came on his first pro catch, a one-yard toss in the season opener against Cincinnati (9/10). Denver's second-round draft choice that year, Johnson impressed Bronco coaches with his blocking ability.

COLLEGE: Johnson caught 52 passes for 544 yards in his career at Florida State, where he was known as an extremely effective blocker. He earned honorable mention All-American status as a senior, and led the blocking up front as the Seminoles rushed for 27 touchdowns. In his junior season Johnson set career highs with 18 receptions for 219 yards.

PERSONAL: Reggie is single and makes his offseason home in Safety Harbour, Fla. A native of Pensacola, Fla., he attended Escambia HS there and played every position on the football team except quarterback.

He was one of 11 seniors on his prep squad to earn college scholarships. Reggie has a degree in criminology.

Keith Kartz returns for his eighth season with the Broncos in 1994, after battling injury for much of the 1993 season. After missing several weeks in mid-season, he returned to the starting lineup in week thirteen to solidify the line for the home stretch. As a pro, Kartz has started in 89 of the 100 games in which he has played and is regarded as a team leader by his peers. His competitive nature and toughness earned him the team's nomination for the Ed Block Memorial Award For Courage in 1990. 1992: Kartz continued his fine play as Denver's starting center in 1992. He started 15 games last year, missing the season opener because of a strained calf. Now entering his 7th season with the Broncos, Kartz has started 78 of 88 games played. 1991: He started every regular season game in 1991 but saw only limited action against Houston and Buffalo in the playoffs because of a thigh strain. He took the field only to snap on field goals and extra points in those games. 1990: He is considered by Denver coaches to be one of the NFL's top centers, and in 1990 was named the Broncos' Most Inspirational Player by his teammates. He was also honored as Denver's nominee for the Ed Block Memorial Award For Courage. 1989: Kartz started every game at center in 1989 for Denver, his first season ever at that position. His play was impressive enough to garner alternate status for the Pro Bowl. 1988: He started 12 games at the right guard position for Denver in 1988 but was hampered late in the season by a dislocated right toe. He began the season as a reserve but moved into a starting role in week two after Stefan Humphries was injured. Kartz started the next 11 games before injuring his toe at New Orleans (11/20). He sat out the following three contests but returned to start in the season finale vs. New England (12/17). 1987: Kartz joined the Broncos as a free agent in 1987 and was placed on injured reserve with a back injury in early September. He rejoined the active squad before the Oct. 4 contest vs. Houston and started all three replacement games. Kartz went on to play in all but one of the remaining regular and postseason games. He turned in a fine performance in Super Bowl XXII (1/31) after Dave Studdard left the game with an injury. 1986: Kartz attended Seattle's training camp in 1986.

COLLEGE: Kartz was all-conference and All-West Coast as a tackle at the University of California. He played for the Golden Bears in 1981-85, redshirting in 1983. Kartz has a bachelor's degree in social science.

PERSONAL: Keith is single and resides in Aurora, Colo. In Encinitas, Calif., he attended San Diequito HS and lettered three times each in football and track, and twice in basketball. He was born in Las Vegas, Nev.

No. 8 THOMAS ALFRED (Tommy)

MADDOX

Quarterback

Birthdate – September 1, 1971

Birthplace – Shreveport, La.

Residence – Aurora, Colo.

How Acquired – Draft #1, 1992

College – UCLA

High School – L.D. Bell HS, Hurst, Tex.

Height – 6-4

Weight – 195

Pro Year – 3rd

Year with Broncos – 3rd

Tommy Maddox made major strides in the 1993 preseason, but saw very little quarterbacking action in the regular season. He is expected to get a lot of work in the 1994 preseason, in preparation for possible duty at some point in the future. Maddox's only regular season passing attempt in 1993 resulted in a one-yard touchdown to linebacker Dave Wyman on a fake field goal at San Diego (12/5). He played in every contest, primarily holding for field goal kicker Jason Elam. 1992: Maddox started four games and took snaps in three others in 1992 after joining the Broncos as the team's first round draft choice.

Maddox started in place of John Elway in weeks 11 through 14 and also played at Washington (10/12), vs. the New York Giants, and in the season finale at Kansas City (12/27). For the season Maddox completed 66 of 121 passes, a .545 percentage, for 757 yards, with five touchdowns and nine interceptions. He rushed nine times for 20 yards. In his first pro action, at Washington, Maddox completed two of eight passes for 10 yards, with one interception. With his appearance against the Redskins, he became the youngest quarterback (21 years, two months) to throw a pass in the NFL since Elmer Angsman of the Chicago Cardinals in 1946. After Elway was injured in the second quarter of the Giants game, Maddox came in to complete nine of 13 passes for 134 yards, leading Denver to 13 second-half points. The following week he made his first pro start, against the Raiders (11/22), and completed 18 of 26 passes for 207 yards, with two interceptions. He threw his first career touchdown pass the next week, at Seattle (11/27), connecting with Mark Jackson. In weeks 13 and 14 he alternated snaps with Shawn Moore. Against Dallas, Maddox threw interceptions on Denver's first two drives, but compensated by hitting Jackson and Vance Johnson with touchdown passes on the Broncos' next two possessions. Maddox completed 10 of 17 passes in the game for 104 yards, with three touchdowns and four interceptions. At Buffalo (12/12) he threw for 122 yards and a score, while completing 13 of 28 passes, and also rushed for 15 yards.

COLLEGE: Maddox in 1991 was a first team sophomore All-American (in his third year at UCLA) and led the Bruins to a 9-3 record and a victory in the John Hancock Bowl. In the Bruins' 12 games he completed 209 of 343 passes for 2,681 yards and 16 TDs. Selected first team All-Pac 10 (Football News) and a UPI All-American honorable mention, Maddox was the first player in Pac-10 history to have passed for at least 5,000 yards by the end of his sophomore year. He is the only quarterback in UCLA history to pass for at least 350 yards twice in a career, and is the only one to pass for over 330 yards three times. The only UCLA quarterback to have passed for over 2,500 yards twice, he was just the fourth Pac-10 QB to have cracked the 2,500 barrier more than once (John Elway did it three times at Stanford). In his 23 collegiate career, Maddox completed 391 of 670 passes (.584) for 5,363 yards and 33 TDs. As a redshirt freshman in 1990 he led the Pac-10 in total offense and earned first team Freshman All-American honors. On the season he passed for 2,682 yards, the highest freshman total in Pac-10 history and the second best mark in school annals.

PERSONAL: Tommy and his wife Jennifer make their offseason home in the Denver suburb of Aurora with their daughter Kacy Lauren (9/15/93). A native of Shreveport, La., he was first team all-state, all-metro, and all-American (Parade and Super Prep magazines) at L.D. Bell HS in Hurst, Tex., where he was rated the top quarterback prospect in the nation. He was chosen the Southwest Texas High School offensive player of the year and was selected district and area most valuable player while serving as team captain in his senior year. An outstanding all-around prep athlete, Tommy lettered twice in football and three times each in basketball and baseball. In basketball he was first team all-state and all-metro and was named area offensive player of the year as a senior. In baseball, he compiled a record of 7-1 as a pitcher and batted .415 as a senior, twice garnering all-district and all-area honors as well. He currently works with the March of Dimes as the Walk America Honorary Chairman with his wife Jennifer. Tommy was a history major at UCLA.

Bob Meeks played a back-up role on a very talented offensive line in 1993, but is expected to challenge for more playing time in 1994. Meeks is considered one of the strongest offensive linemen on the team and can play both guard and center, but will primarily focus on the guard position in 1994. He played in seven games during the 1993 season. 1992: Meeks earned a spot as the third center on Denver's roster in 1992. He was one of the Broncos' inactive players for 10 games and was active but did not play in six others. Meeks joined the team as a 10th-round draft choice.

COLLEGE: Meeks was a first team All-Southeast Conference and honorable mention All-America candidate as a senior center at Auburn. A team captain that year, he was also named the Tigers' best lineman and offensive player of the year. He closed out his college career with appearances in the Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl all-star games.

PERSONAL: Bob is married and he and his wife are expecting their first child. The couple makes their home in Evergreen, Ala., where at Evergreen HS he lettered four times in football and three times in basketball. How Acquired – Draft #2, 1993
College – Stanford
High School – Santa Monica HS,
Santa Monica, CA
Height – 5-8
Weight – 177
Pro Year – 2nd
Year with Broncos – 2nd

Glyn Milburn showed the versatile talents the Broncos expected in his rookie season, catching 38 passes for 300 yards and three touchdowns, rushing 52 times for 231, returning 40 punts with a 10.6-yard average (fifth in the AFC and eight in the NFL) and returning 12 kickoffs with a 15.7-yard average. He finished his rookie season with 1,125 all-purpose yards. Milburn had a sterling debut at the New York Jets (9/5), accounting for 148 all-purpose yards, including a 50-yard reception, a 36-yard punt return, and a 25-yard touchdown reception. Two weeks later at Kansas City (9/20), Milburn caught a season high eight receptions. Versus Minnesota (11/14), he accounted for a season high 173 all-purpose yards, handling the ball 16 times as a rusher, pass receiver and return man. Versus Tampa Bay (12/26), Milburn broke loose for his longest punt return of the season, 54 yards.

COLLEGE: Milburn was one of the most exciting players in college football his last three years at Stanford, accounting for 6,049 all-purpose yards during his collegiate career. His 2,263 rushing yards ranks third in Cardinal history, and he added 1,558 receiving yards, 1,186 kickoff return yards, 1,042 punt return yards, and scored 24 touchdowns in his three years at Stanford. As a senior Milburn was a first team All-American (Associated Press and Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft), rushing for 851 yards and four touchdowns, catching 37 passes with two touchdowns, and finishing with a 17.3 yard punt return average with three touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Glyn is single and makes his offseason home in Inglewood, CA. He received numerous accolades as a prepster, including prep All-America (Super Prep Magazine), second team All-America (USA Today), and "Best of the West" (Long Beach Press Telegram) to name a few.

No. 83 LAWRENCE ANTHONY MILLER

Wide Receiver

Birthdate - April 15, 1965

Birthplace - Pasadena, CA

Residence - San Diego, CA

How Acquired - FA, 1994

College - Tennessee

High School - Muir HS,
Pasadena, CA

Height - 5-11

Weight - 190

Pro Year - 7th

Year with Broncos - 1st

Anthony Miller came to the Broncos as a free agent in the 1994 offseason from the San Diego Chargers. This Pro Bowl receiver is blessed with blazing speed and good hands, which earned him a spot on the AFC's Pro Bowl squad for the fourth time in his career. In the last two seasons Miller has amassed 2,222 receiving yards, fifth among all NFL receivers in the same time span. He finished second in the AFC in receptions after the 1993 season, with a career high 84 catches good for 1,162 yards and seven touchdowns. He led his Charger team in receptions 10 of the 16 regular season games and had a career high six 100-yard receiving games, the most since Kellen Winslow's six in 1982. Miller has 19 100-yard reception days in his career. In the season finale at Tampa Bay (1/2) Miller caught seven passes for 119 yards and a touchdown. His big day reception wise came at Seattle (10/3), where he caught a career high 10 passes for 123 yards and a score. Miller's big yardage day came at Minnesota (11/7), where he racked up 142 yards on seven catches and a TD. 1992: After arthroscopic knee surgery prior to training camp, Miller finished 1992 as the only AFC receiver to surpass the 1000-yard mark, exploding after a slow start to finish fifth in the conference with 72 catches for 1060 yards and eight touchdowns. He added four 100-yard reception performances with his big yardage day coming at Cleveland, where he finished the day with 110 receiving yards on seven receptions. His big catch day came at Seattle, where he caught nine passes, tying his career mark. 1991: Miller averaged nearly four catches per game despite being slowed by injuries in 1991. He still managed to surpass the 100-yard mark twice, going for 149 yards at the L.A. Rams (10/13) and 124 yards versus Seattle (11/10). He finished the season second on the team in receptions with 44 for 649 yards and three touchdowns, missing the final three games because of injury. 1990: Miller was selected to his second straight Pro Bowl following the 1990 season. He led the team for the second straight season in receptions with 63 for 933 yards and seven touchdowns. He had a career high nine receptions versus Cincinnati (9/16) and finished the season with a streak of 33 games with at least one reception. 1989: Miller earned his first Pro Bowl berth with career highs of 75 receptions for 1,252 yards and 11 touchdowns. He led the team in receptions, while finishing fifth in the AFC in catches and second in yards. His 11 touchdowns were the most by a Charger since Chuck Muncie scored 13 in 1983, and his ten receiving were the most since Wes Chandler's 10 in 1985. His 1,252 were the most since Kellen Winslow gained 1,290 yards in 1980. Miller caught fire in the second half of the season, catching 47 passes and scored seven touchdowns in the final eight games, compared to 28 catches and two TDs in the first eight. He caught five or more passes in each of the final eight games, and finished the season with five 100-yard games. He made a career high eight receptions at Washington (12/10) and racked up a career high 162 yards versus Houston (9/17). Miller returned a kickoff 91 yards for a score versus the Raiders, becoming the only Charger in team history to return two kickoffs for touchdowns. He ended the year with numerous honors, including Pro Bowl, second team All-NFL (College and Pro Football Weekly), All-AFC (Pro Football Weekly), and second team All-AFC (UPI). 1988: Miller finished his rookie season second on the team in receptions with 36 for 526 yards and three touchdowns. He also finished the year with a 25.9-yard kickoff return average, third in the NFL, with one touchdown. His lone kickoff return for a touchdown went for 93 yards versus the Rams.

COLLEGE: Miller was a preseason All-America prior to his senior year at the University of Tennessee. His senior season was interrupted for five games because of a knee injury, finishing the year with just 11 receptions. As a junior Miller averaged 18.5 yards on 36 catches, ended the campaign 667 yards and five touchdowns. He was also a track star at Tennessee, and majored in physical education.

PERSONAL: Anthony is single and makes his offseason home in San Diego, CA. He played just one year of football at Muir HS in Pasadena, CA, before signing a track scholarship to San Diego State. He ran the 100 meters in :10.3 and the 200 meters in :20.6 as a prepster.

No. 12 SHAWN LEVIQUE MOORE

Quarterback

Birthdate – April 4, 1968
Birthplace – Martinsville, Va.
Residence – Baltimore, Md.
How Acquired – Draft #11, 1991
College – Virginia
High School – Martinsville HS, Martinsville, Va.
Height – 6-2
Weight – 213
Pro Year – 4th
Year with Broncos – 4th

Shawn Moore enters his fourth season with the Broncos with the hopes of winning a back-up spot behind John Elway. Blessed with unquestioned athletic ability, Moore possesses a mixture of both size and strength. He did not see action in the 1993 season after winning the battle for the job of third quarterback in training camp. 1992: Moore saw action at quarterback in three games, including the contests vs. Dallas (12/6) and at Buffalo (12/12) when he alternated snaps with Tommy Maddox. Moore last year completed 17 of 34 passes for 232 yards and three interceptions and rushed for 39 yards on eight carries. He came in late in the game at Philadelphia (9/20) for his first action as a pro. Against the Cowboys he attempted 13 passes completing seven, for 104 yards, including a 40-yard completion to Vance Johnson, and gained 24 yards on four carries. The following week at Buffalo he completed 10 of 20 passes for 128 yards, but had three passes picked off. 1991: Moore joined Denver in 1991 as the club's 11th-round draft choice. He spent the first 11 weeks of the season on the practice squad and was activated for the remainder of the campaign, although he did not play in a game. Moore spent the 1992 World League season with the Birmingham Fire.

COLLEGE: Moore set 29 school passing records at the University of Virginia, and had an impressive 23-4 record as a starter with the Cavaliers. Following an outstanding senior campaign he was honored as All-American and all-conference, and was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, the Johnny Unitas Award, and the Davey O'Brien Award. A two-time Atlantic Coast Conference Offensive Player of the Year, Moore threw for 6,629 yards and 55 touchdowns, and had a career rushing total of 1,268 yards.

PERSONAL: Shawn and his wife Kimberly make their offseason home in Aurora, Co., with their son, Michael LeviQue (9/25/93). Shawn had an illustrious prep career at Martinsville (Va.) HS and was named Group AA Player of the Year, all-state, and all-district after leading his team to the state semifinals. Shawn passed for 1,478 yards and 22 TDs as a senior, also rushing for 612 yards and seven TDs. A starting forward on Martinsville's two-time state championship basketball team, he lettered three times each in football and basketball and four times in track. Shawn has his degree in psychology from Virginia and has been enrolled in post-graduate study. He lists traveling, bowling, tennis, basketball, and reading as his hobbies.

Birthdate – September 16, 1969
Birthplace – Benin City, Nigeria
Residence – Denver, CO
How Acquired – FA 1992
College – Villanova
High School – Georgetown Prep HS, Rockville, MD
Height – 6-4
Weight – 260
Pro Year – 3rd
Year with Broncos – 3rd

Willie Oshodin was considered a long shot to make the Bronco roster in 1993 after missing his entire rookie season with a foot injury, but Oshodin quickly made believers out of the coaching staff and fellow players during the 1993 preseason and maintained his steady play throughout the year. For the year, Oshodin was credited with 21 solo tackles, 15 assists, one sack, and one forced fumble. His sack came in the season opener at the New York Jets (9/5), and his forced fumble came versus Indianapolis (10/3). 1992: Oshodin spent the entire year on the physically unable to perform list.

COLLEGE: Oshodin earned All-ECAC honors as a defensive end at Villanova and was a G.T.E. Regional Academic All-American four consecutive years. He began his Wildcat career as a linebacker, but was moved to the defensive line his sophomore year. For his career Oshodin recorded nine sacks and 82 tackles, and was named team captain as a senior. He has a degree in international business and is working towards his M.B.A.

PERSONAL: Willie is single and makes his offseason home in Denver, CO. He attended Georgetown Prep HS in Rockville, MD, lettering twice in lacrosse and once in football. He lists music and electronics as hobbies.

No. 81 MICHAEL ROBERT PRITCHARD

Wide Receiver

Birthdate – October 25, 1969
Birthplace – Shaw Airforce Base, SC
Residence – Boulder, CO
How Acquired – Trade (Atlanta), 1994
College – Colorado
High School – Rancho HS,
Las Vegas, NV
Height – 5-11
Weight – 186
Pro Year – 4th
Year with Broncos – 1st

Mike Pritchard came to the Broncos via a trade with the Atlanta Falcons on draft day 1994. Pritchard is a local favorite, playing his college ball at the University of Colorado in Boulder. In his brief three-year career, Mike has put up some very impressive numbers. His three year total of 201 receptions ranks fifth alltime, one more than perennial All-NFL receiver Jerry Rice had in his first three seasons, and one behind Gary Clark. In 1993 Pritchard was a member of a Falcon trio (Pritchard, Andre Rison, Michael Haynes) that led the NFL in receptions (232) and touchdowns (26). Pritchard and Rison's touchdown totals of 7 and 15 respectively, led the NFL among receiving tandems. For the 1993 season Pritchard finished the year with 74 catches for 736 yards and seven touchdowns. His big game came in the season opener at Detroit, where Pritchard caught a team leading 10 passes for 97 yards. He had a two touchdown day in a big win over Dallas, finishing with six catches for 71 yards. Pritchard finished the 1993 season with at least one-catch in every game he participated. 1992: Mike continued to be a potent target in the Falcons Red Gun offense in his second year in the system. He also was second on the club in receiving yards with 827 and third in touchdowns with five. He tied his personal best with a nine-catch affair against Dallas, which included the first 100-yard game of his career (105). The former Colorado product collected eight receptions (89 yards) versus the Jets and Bears (52 yards). He hauled in seven catches each against the Saints (85), Dolphins (46) and Rams (82), while establishing four of his top five career receiving yardage games in '92. He scored the Falcons' lone touchdown in the narrow 10-7 loss to the Saints from 14 yards out and grabbed four other scoring passes versus the Packers (2 yards), Dolphins (18), Buccaneers (38) and Rams (11). He had six games with seven or more receptions in '92. In addition, Mike also carried the ball for the first time in his brief career, gaining 38 yards on three carries (long of 22) against the Rams in Week 9. 1991: Pritchard was a unanimous All-NFL rookie in '91 for producing the second best totals among all first year receivers with 50 catches for 818 yards to trail only Lawrence Dawsey (55-218) of the Bucs. He posted the sixth highest numbers by a rookie wideout #1 pick in the last 12 years with only Shawn Collins, Art Monk, Sterling Sharpe, Eddie Brown and Andre Rison ahead of him. He broke into the starting lineup 11 times in his initial season, ending up tied for second on the club charts with Michael Haynes. A nine-catch, 82-yard day against the Vikes was his best rookie outing. So far in two seasons, Mike has outdistanced all other receivers from the class of '91. He flashed the skills that made him a No. 1 draft pick in his first preseason game in Jacksonville when he scored three touchdowns against the Rams in spectacular fashion with open field runs.

COLLEGE: Pritchard was a picture of versatility for Colorado with his ability to play tailback, wingback, wide receiver and returner. Mike averaged 18.8 yards every time he touched the ball in a Buffalo uniform. Breaking it down further, he boasted averages of 26.4 per reception (second best ever), 10.6 per rush and 23.1 per kick return while scoring 15 career TD's. His longs were just as impressive through the air (70t, 67, 55, 52, 48, 45t and 44t yard catches) or on the ground (78t by rush, 70 and 68 on reverses, 77 KOR). He totaled 2,538 all-purpose yards for the Boulder, CO school, including 1,528 yards as a senior for the Co-National Champions, for an average of 123.1 an outing. His 284 total yards against Tennessee outdistanced another more heralded player's best game (268 yards by Raghieb Ismail of Notre Dame). As a senior, he established a single season school record with his 733 receiving yards, and his 10 TD's were the second most ever. His 217 rushing yards vs. the Volunteers was the sixth-best total in the 102-year history of football at Colorado.

PERSONAL: Mike is single and makes his offseason home in Boulder, CO. He captured the prestigious Gatorade "Circle of Champions" National Player of the Year award for his exploits on the high school gridiron. An All-America and All-State selection at Rancho High in Las Vegas, he rushed for 1,213 yards with 17 TD's as a senior. That followed a junior season in which he scored 15 times with 1,108 yards on the ground to help the school to the Sunrise League title with a 9-2 record. The gifted runner further impressed scouts with a 169-yard rushing effort on only 14 carries in a postseason all star game. He also had a track background as a prepster running the 100 meters and competing in the long jump. The Economics major at Colorado has always been a big proponent of education. He was a member in good standing of the Academic Starters' program at the Boulder, CO school which rewarded those athletes who held a high grade point average. Mike took the time to show his dedication to education by posing in a Falcons uniform and graduation cap with the inscription, 'The Most Important Head Gear You'll Ever Wear.' The posters were given to every school in the state of Georgia.

Running Back

Birthdate – February 22, 1968

Birthplace – Dayton, Ohio

Residence – Littleton, Colo.

How Acquired – FA, 1991

College – Southwest Texas State

High School – Randolph HS,

San Antonio, Tex.

Height – 6-1

Year with Broncos – 4th

Reggie Rivers continued to be a versatile player for the Broncos in 1993, excelling on special teams. Rivers blocked two punts at critical times in the Broncos' wins over Cleveland (11/7) and Kansas City (12/12). At Cleveland, River's blocked punt resulted in a safety, putting the Broncos up 9-0. Versus Kansas City, River's block put the Broncos in position for the touchdown that put the team ahead for good. Rivers was the only NFL player to block two punts in the 1993 season. He also contributed at the running back position, compiling 50 yards rushing with one touchdown, and catching six passes with one TD. 1992: Rivers emerged as one of Denver's key offensive performers in 1992. He moved into the starting fullback position midway through the season and ended the campaign second on the team in rushing with 282 yards and three touchdowns on 74 carries. He was third with 45 receptions for 449 yards and a score. He scored two game-winning touchdowns, one on a 20-yard run vs. Houston (10/18) with 1:34 left and also with a one-yard run against the Raiders (9/6) with just 55 seconds left in the game. Rivers rushed for a career-high 66 yards at Cleveland (9/27), including a 48-yard run. He set new career marks in receiving with nine catches for 76 yards at San Diego (10/25) and a 37-yard reception vs. Seattle (12/20). Rivers received the Broncos' 1992 Bob Martin Award, which is given annually to the Broncos player who is most cooperative with the media. He also received the team's Community Action Player Award for his volunteer service throughout Colorado. 1991: He played primarily on special teams in 1991, although he did see some action as a back-up fullback. On the special teams unit Rivers registered 10 tackles, seven assists, and four knockdown blocks – enough to earn a spot on the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team as a special teams player. He also rushed two times for five yards.

COLLEGE: Rivers rushed for 2,507 yards and 10 touchdowns in four seasons at Southwest Texas State. Following a senior campaign in which he led the Southland Conference with 1,145 yards and five scores for the Bobcats, he earned numerous first- and second-team All-America honors, and was a first-team all-conference selection. In 1989 he was named second-team all-conference and as a freshman was a member of the conference's All-Academic squad.

PERSONAL: Reggie is single and lives in Littleton, Colo. Born in Dayton, Ohio, he lettered twice each in football, basketball, and track at Randolph HS in San Antonio, Tex. Reggie has a degree in journalism and has interned at the San Antonio (Tex.) Light, the Austin (Tex.) American-Statesman, and Newsday (Long Island). During the 1991-92 seasons he wrote a weekly sports column for Denver's Rocky Mountain News, and last year the column was also published in the Ft. Collins (Colo.) Coloradoan, the Laramie (Wyo.) Daily Boomerang, the Rapid City (S.D.) Journal, and the Billings (Mont.) Gazette. He has worked in the last two offseasons as a marketing specialist for Hamilton Sweeney Advertising in Denver. Reggie enjoys reading fiction novels and writing short stories and articles.

No. 36 FRANK LAWSON ROBINSON

Cornerback

Birthdate - Jan. 11, 1969
Birthplace - Newark, N.J.
Residence - Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired - Draft #5, 1992
College - Boise State
High School - Novato HS, Novato, Calif.
Height - 5-11
Weight - 180
Pro Year - 3rd
Year with Broncos - 3rd

Frank Robinson will compete with several newcomers for a spot in a Bronco secondary that's shaping up to be one of the most competitive positions. Robinson played mostly in nickel situations and on special teams in 1993, and recorded his first career interception in a Bronco loss versus Minnesota (11/14). For the year, Robinson was credited with 26 solo tackles and 14 assisted. 1992: Robinson in 1992 played in the final 12 games of the season with Denver, primarily on special teams. The Broncos' fifth-round draft choice last year, Robinson was waived by the Denver prior to the opening game and was picked up by Cincinnati. The Bengals waived him three weeks later and was re-signed by Denver on Sept. 30. As a member of the Broncos' defensive secondary he had five tackles and two assists, and on special teams he returned four kickoffs for a 22.3 average.

COLLEGE: Robinson was a two-time all-conference cornerback at Boise State, and earned All-American honors as a senior. He closed out his career with the Broncos with a conference record 22 interceptions and 46 punt returns for 455 yards. As a senior Robinson led the Big Sky Conference with eight pass thefts, returning two for scores. He had six interceptions as a junior, a season in which he also blocked two extra points, two punts, and three field goals.

PERSONAL: Frank is single and has a daughter, Kayla Davelle (12/31/92), and makes his home in the Denver suburb of Aurora. A native of Newark, N.J., he graduated from Novato (Calif.) HS, where he lettered three times in basketball and twice each in football and track. He was a 1986 Bay Area Blue Chip selection who also won academic All-American honors in high school. Frank has a degree in business administration from Boise State and likes to play basketball and Nintendo in his spare time. In the offseason he helped coach a 5th grade basketball team.

Birthdate – February 20, 1970
Birthplace – Spokane, WA
Residence – Spokane, WA
How Acquired – Draft #4, 1993
College – Idaho
High School – Ferris HS,
 Spokane, WA
Height – 6-4
Weight – 265
Pro Year – 2nd
Year with Broncos – 2nd

Jeff Robinson played sparingly in his rookie season, but improved with each game. In 1994, Robinson will challenge many of the young defensive linemen for more playing time. Regarded as a very hard worker and a good pass rusher, he showed a nose for the ball in limited action, picking up 3.5 sacks on the year. His most productive game came in the season finale at the L.A. Raiders. On the day, he was credited with two solo tackles, both sack related, and one forced fumble.

COLLEGE: Robinson was a first team All-America selection (Kodak, Walter Camp, Associated Press and Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft) as a senior at Idaho, along with being named to the All-Big Sky first team for the three straight years. He finished his collegiate career with 57.5 sacks, 16 passes defended, and 277 tackles. As a senior Robinson finished the year with 13.5 sacks, 79 tackles (58 solo), 35 pressures, six forced fumbles, five passes defended, and 27 tackles for loss. He was a general studies major while at Idaho.

PERSONAL: Jeff is single and makes his offseason home in Spokane, WA. He was an All-Greater Spokane League selection during his three-year prep career at Ferris HS in Spokane, WA, lettering in basketball and baseball as well. He was an honor roll student, graduating with a 3.7 GPA.

College – Wisconsin-Steven Point
High School – Baldwin-Woodville, Woodville, WI
Height – 6-0
Weight – 190
Pro Year – 2nd
Year with Broncos – 2nd

Barry Rose was signed to the practice squad by the Broncos after being made available by the Buffalo Bills. He remained on the practice squad for most of the season, but was activated for the last three games of the regular season, as injuries decimated the Bronco wide receiver core. Rose will battle several young wide receivers for a spot on this year's roster. 1992: Rose spent the entire season on the Bills' practice squad.

COLLEGE: Rose was voted MVP of the Division III Wisconsin State University Conference as a senior at Wisconsin-Steven Point. He led the conference in receptions with 63, and led the conference in scoring with 11 touchdowns. He also finished in the top five nationally in receptions yards per catch among wide receivers. In his collegiate career, Rose caught 161 passes for 2,623 yards with 27 touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Barry and his wife Tammy have two sons, Cody (9/27/88) and Brady (11/1/93), and the family makes their offseason home in Woodville, WI. Barry played his prep ball at Baldwin-Woodville HS, in Woodville, WI.

No. 85 DEREK DWAYNE RUSSELL

Wide Receiver

Birthdate – July 22, 1969
Birthplace – Little Rock, Ark.
Residence – Englewood, Colo.
How Acquired – Draft #4, 1991
College – Arkansas
High School – Central HS,
Little Rock, Ark.
Height – 6-0
Weight – 179
Pro Year – 4th
Year with Broncos – 4th

Derek Russell had his best year in 1993, and is expected to be a key receiver in 1994 with the addition of several free agents. Russell finished the year tied for second on the team in receptions with 44, second in reception yards with 719, and three touchdowns. He finished the year with two 100-plus receiving days, 104 at Kansas City (9/20) and 111 versus the L.A. Raiders (10/18). Russell also caught a professional high six passes at Kansas City. Russell missed the last three regular season games with an ankle injury. 1992: Russell played in 12 games with Denver in 1992, starting seven, but dislocated his left thumb at Seattle (11/30) and spent the final four weeks of the campaign on injured reserve. Russell caught 12 passes for 140 yards last year and also returned three kickoffs for a 23.7-yard average. His career stats show 33 receptions for 457 yards and a score and an average of 19.1 on 10 kickoff returns. 1991: In 1991 he did not have a catch in the first five weeks of the campaign, yet tied for fifth on the team with 21 receptions for 317 yards and a TD. Russell had three receptions in five games and his best performance came vs. Kansas City (10/20) when he had three catches for 69 yards and a score. He also averaged 17.1 yards on seven kickoff returns last year. Russell did not play in games three through five because of a groin pull, but was a member of Denver's starting lineup in each of the last five regular season games and in both postseason contests. He had a 20-yard catch in Denver's victory over Houston in the Divisional Playoff Game (1/4). Russell was taken by the Broncos with a fourth-round pick in 1991 that was acquired as part of the Gaston Green-Gerald Perry trade with the Rams.

COLLEGE: Russell finished out his career at the University of Arkansas as the school's fifth all-time reception leader with 91, and his total of 1,874 yards ranks second in Razorback annals. He caught 43 passes for 897 yards as a senior and earned All-America and all-conference honors, closing out his career with an appearance in the Senior Bowl. Russell also earned second-team All-America notice as a junior.

PERSONAL: Derek has a son, Nicolis (8/21/89), and they make their offseason home in Little Rock, Ark. A native of Little Rock, Ark., he attended Central HS there and was honored as All-America and all-state. He was also named the player of the year by the Arkansas Gazette and athlete of the year by the Arkansas Democrat. Derek was named All-America in track as well. He is a cousin of the NBA's Sidney Moncrief and lists fishing and basketball as two of his favorite pastimes.

Shannon Sharpe had his best year as a pro in 1993. He was named to his second straight Pro Bowl, along with being named to virtually every All-NFL team. Sharpe led the Broncos in receptions with 81, which ranked him third in the AFC and eighth in the NFL. His 81 receptions rank fourth in Bronco history, and are the most since Lionel Taylor's 85 in 1965. Sharpe was also on the receiving end of nine TD passes.

which tied him for second in the AFC. He accounted for at least two receptions in every game in 1993, with his season high coming against Kansas City (12/12). In that game Sharpe recorded 10 receptions for 65 yards and three touchdowns. His best game yardage wise came in the season finale at the L.A. Raiders (1/2), accounting for 115 yards on six receptions with two touchdowns. The next week in the wild card matchup with the same Raiders (1/9), Sharpe tied a playoff record with 13 receptions. He and his brother Sterling of the Green Bay Packers remain the only brother combination to lead their teams in receptions in the same year. The Sharpe brothers have now duplicated the feat for the second straight season. 1992: Sharpe led all Denver receivers in 1992 with a career-high 53 receptions for 640 yards and two touchdowns. Shannon and his brother Sterling of the Green Bay Packers became the only brother combination in NFL history to lead their respective teams in receiving in the same season. Sharpe had two 100-yard receiving games last year, catching seven passes for 109 yards at Buffalo (12/12) and nine for a career-high 118 yards vs. Kansas City (10/4). He also had nine receptions at Washington (10/12) and had seven in the season finale at Kansas City (12/27). Sharpe, who was in the starting line-up 12 times in 1992, also set a new career high with a 55-yard reception at Cleveland (9/27). 1991: Sharpe was converted from wide receiver to H-back in 1991 and had a fine season, catching 22 passes for 322 yards and a touchdown and also gaining 15 yards on a reverse. He made half of his receptions in the final three weeks of the campaign, with 11 catches for 159 yards. Sharpe established new career highs at Cleveland (12/8) with four receptions for 59 yards, and had four catches the following week vs. Phoenix (12/15). On special teams he posted a team-high 12 tackles, with five assists and two knockdown blocks. Sharpe appeared in Denver's starting line-up nine times during the regular season. He closed out the postseason with six catches for 60 yards, with three for 20 against Houston (1/4) and three for 40 at Buffalo in the AFC Championship Game (1/12). 1990: Denver's seventh round draft choice in 1990, Sharpe saw more playing time as the season progressed and closed out the year with seven receptions for 99 yards and a score. He had his top receiving game at Kansas City (12/9) with three catches for 41 yards and his first professional touchdown. Sharpe was also one of the Broncos' top special teams performers, netting 16 total tackles, six knockdown blocks, and a forced fumble.

COLLEGE: Sharpe had a tremendous career at Savannah State College, where he was a three-time All-American, All-Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, and all-state selection, as well as the three-time conference offensive player of the year. Sharpe closed out his college play with 192 receptions for 3,744 yards, a 19.5 average, and 40 touchdowns. He ended his career with appearances in the East-West Shrine and Blue-Gray all-star games. Sharpe set school records for most consecutive games with a reception (39), with a touchdown (14), and for most games with over 100 yards receiving (17). As a senior he caught 61 passes for 1,312 yards and 18 TDs, and had three games with more than 200 yards receiving and one game with four touchdown catches. Sharpe was a criminal justice major.

PERSONAL: Shannon is single with a daughter, Shannen Kaley (4/3/93), and makes his home in Glenville, GA., where he attended Glennville HS and was all-county, all-region, and all-area in football. In addition to four letters in football, he lettered three times in basketball and four times in track, setting a Georgia state class A record in the triple jump (48-3) as a junior, and breaking that mark as a senior (49-5). He won the regional triple jump title three straight years and the regional discus throwing title twice. Shannon was also a two-time all-area selection in basketball, and he scored over 1,000 points in three seasons, and averaged 30 points and 15 rebounds as a senior. He once scored 52 points in a game and once grabbed 27 rebounds in a game. His brother Sterling was an All-American at South Carolina and has earned All-NFL status in both of his first two NFL seasons with the Green Bay Packers. Shannon has several cousins who played college football, and he lists his hobbies as fishing, basketball, weight lifting, and his two Rottweilers, Kane and Killian.

No. 26 BEN SMITH

Cornerback

Birthdate – May 14, 1967
Birthplace – Warner Robbins, GA
Residence – Philadelphia, PA
How Acquired – Trade (Phil), 1994
College – Georgia
High School – Warner Robbins HS, GA
Height – 5-11
Weight – 185
Pro Year – 5th
Year with Broncos – 1st

Ben Smith came to the Broncos via a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1993 offseason. Smith began the 1993 season with concerns about his health after a left knee injury that required two surgeries had sidelined him since 11/10/91, but by season's end all doubts were erased. Smith spent the first six games as the Eagles' nickelback and platooning with Mark McMillian in the second half of games. His effort on the field goes without question. Versus the New York Jets (10/3), Smith knocked down a Jet player that freed teammate Eric Allen after an Allen interception. Smith then raced down field to pick off the last would-be tackler to allow Allen to complete a 94-yard interception return for a touchdown. Smith returned to the starting lineup versus Dallas (10/31), and started the next two games before the flu and back troubles sidelined him for games 10-12. Upon his return he played in nickel situations for the final four contest. He finished the season with 40 tackles (26 solo). 1992: Smith missed the entire season while rehabilitating from a severe left knee injury that ended his 1991 campaign at Cleveland (11/10). This injury happened just one series after Smith picked off Bernie Kosar, ending Kosar's NFL record of 309 consecutive passes without an interception. He finished the year with 34 tackles (24 solo) and two interceptions. 1990: Smith was selected in the first round (22 selection overall) and was select to the NFL's All-Rookie team (Football News) at season's end. Smith started in 13 of the sixteen games as a rookie at both safety and cornerback. He made his first career interception versus the Arizona Cardinals (9/16), and also had thefts versus Indianapolis (9/30) and Dallas (12/23). For the season Smith was credited with 91 tackles (62 solo) and three interceptions. He led the Eagles with 14 passes defended on the year.

COLLEGE: Smith moved from cornerback to free safety his senior year at Georgia. He led the Southeastern Conference in interceptions with 10 (third in the nation), which earned him second-team All-America, first-team All-SEC, and team defensive MVP honors. As a junior he was a first-team All-SEC and honorable mention All-America at left cornerback. He moved into the Bulldogs' starting lineup two games into the 1987 season after transferring from Northeastern Oklahoma A&M.

PERSONAL: Ben is single and makes his offseason home in Philadelphia, PA. As a senior Ben earned first team all-state and defensive player of the year honors (Atlanta Constitution) at Warner Robbins HS in Macon, GA. He finished the year with 10 interceptions. He is part owner of "Club Caribe," a Philadelphia nightclub that opened in January of 1993. He is the fourth of five children and enjoys basketball, fishing, dancing, and working with children.

Birthdate – September 7, 1969

Birthplace – Trenton, NJ

Residence – Trenton, NJ

How Acquired – FA 1993

College – Temple

High School – Central HS,
Trenton, NJ

Height – 6-3

Weight – 320

Pro Year – 2nd

Year with Broncos – 2nd

Alphonso Taylor was signed off the practice squad of the Arizona Cardinals in 1993, and will compete for a roster spot with several other young defensive linemen in 1994. Taylor played in three games for the Broncos in 1993, finishing the season with three solo tackles. 1992: In 1992 Taylor spent the season on the Cardinal practice squad.

COLLEGE: Taylor began his collegiate career on the offensive side of the ball for the Temple Owls. As a junior he converted to the defense, setting a Big-East record for most forced fumbles in his senior year with five. He finished his Owl career with 67 tackles (62 as a senior), five forced fumbles, and five tackles for a loss.

PERSONAL: Alphonso is single and makes his offseason home in Trenton, NJ. He was a football and track standout at Central HS in Trenton, where he earned numerous All-America honors.

No. 87 CEDRIC CARNEL TILLMAN

Wide Receiver

Birthdate – July 22, 1970
Birthplace – Natchez, Miss.
Residence – Gulfport, Miss.
How Acquired – Draft #11, 1992
College – Alcorn State
High School – Gulfport HS,
 Gulfport, Miss.
Height – 6-2
Weight – 204
Pro Year – 3rd
Year with Broncos – 3rd

Cedric Tillman made significant strides after being forced into the starting lineup late in the season in 1993, and he figures to battle several other young receivers for playing time because of the addition of veteran wide outs. Tillman had his best year as a pro in 1993, catching 17 passes for 193 yards and two touchdowns. 1992: Tillman played in 10 games with Denver in 1992 and emerged late in the campaign as a dependable receiver. He had 12 total receptions last year for 211 yards and one score, and all but one catch came in the final four games. Tillman's first reception as a pro came at Cleveland (9/27), but he was not on the receiving end of another pass until he combined with Arthur Marshall on an 81-yard TD pass vs. Dallas (12/6), the Broncos' longest play of the 1992 season. He caught five passes for 32 yards the following week at Buffalo (12/12) and had three receptions in each of the last two games. Tillman was on the active roster for the first eight games, playing in six, and was on the practice squad in weeks 10 through 12. He re-joined the active roster on Dec. 1. Tillman was drafted last year by Denver in the 11th round.

COLLEGE: Tillman closed out his career at Alcorn State second on the Braves' all-time list in receptions (129) and touchdown catches (20), while his 1,974 reception yards were third in team annals. He was a first team All-American by the Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft and an all-conference pick as a senior. In his junior season Tillman earned second team all-SWAC honors, and he played basketball as well as a freshman.

PERSONAL: Cedric and his wife Roshanda make their offseason home in Aurora, CO. The Natchez, Miss., native lettered three times each in football, basketball, and track, and garnered all-conference and all-area honors in both football and basketball. He is a cousin of NFL running back Lewis Tillman and enjoys swimming, basketball, and pool.

Birthplace – Tampa, FL
Residence – San Jose, CA
How Acquired – Trade (San Fran.), 1994
College – Louisville
High School – Tampa Tech HS, FL
Height – 6-4
Weight – 295
Pro Year – 4th
Year with Broncos – 1st

Ted Washington came to the Broncos via a trade with the San Francisco 49ers in the 1994 offseason. The former first-round draft pick finished the 1993 season with 41 tackles (36 solo) and three sacks. Washington missed four games with injuries (pinched nerve and shoulder), but turned in a team leading six tackles with a sack versus New Orleans (11/22). He was very active on the line of scrimmage, tipping a pass versus the LA Rams (10/31) that resulted in an interception. Washington's 1993 season ended when he suffered a broken leg in the NFC Championship Game versus Dallas. 1992: Washington started in six of the 16 regular season contests, finishing the year with 35 total tackles (27 solo) and two sacks. He made the first of four consecutive starts versus New Orleans (11/22), posting three tackles. 1991: Washington was drafted in the first round (25th overall) by the 49ers. He finished his rookie year with 21 total tackles (20 solo) and one sack. He played in all 16 of the 49ers' regular season games with no starts. When drafted, he became the third highest player ever taken from the University of Kentucky.

COLLEGE: All-South Independent as a senior at Kentucky, finishing the year with 76 tackles, seven sacks and three blocked field goals. Washington participated in both the senior and Japan Bowls, showing his talents to the NFL coaches and scouts. He was All-Metro as a sophomore. Washington was a physical education major.

PERSONAL: Ted and his wife Verlisa make their offseason home in San Jose, CA. He participated in football, baseball, track and wrestling at Tampa Tech HS in Florida, where he was the state wrestling champ as a senior. His father (Ted) played linebacker for the Houston Oilers (1973-82).

No. 90 DANIEL WILLIAMS II

Defensive Tackle

Birthdate – December 15, 1969

Birthplace – Ypsilanti, MI

Residence – Parker, CO

How Acquired – Draft #1, 1993

College – Toledo

High School – Ypsilanti HS,
Ypsilanti, MI

Height – 6-4

Weight – 290

Pro Year – 2nd

Year with Broncos – 2nd

Dan Williams was the Broncos' first round draft choice (11th pick overall) and was considered a force against the run in his rookie season. After suffering a knee injury in the second game of the season versus San Diego (9/12), Williams missed three games and then re-injured the same knee in the final regular season game at the L.A. Raiders (1/2). He has had a good rehabilitation period in the offseason and is expected to be ready for the 1994 season. In 1993 Williams started in 11 of the 13 games in which he played, accounting for 37 total tackles on the year, 18 solo and 19 assisted. He was also credited with 1.5 sacks and one fumble recovery.

COLLEGE: Williams was regarded as one of the premier pass rushers in the 1993 NFL draft. He was an All-American and a first team All-Mid American Conference pick as a senior at Toledo by the Football News. He posted 13 sacks as a senior to go along with 104 tackles (59 solo), and 33 quarterback pressures. For his career at Toledo Williams accounted for 256 tackles (143 solo), 28 sacks, and 80 pressures. He was a criminal justice major at Toledo.

PERSONAL: Dan and his wife Angela make their offseason home in Parker, CO, with their first child Courtney Danielle (4/4/94). Dan lettered once in both football and basketball, earning all-conference, all-metro, and all-area honors in his only varsity season.

No. 79 DAVID HAROLD WIDELL, Jr.

Guard/Tackle

Birthdate – May 14, 1965
Birthplace – Hartford, Ct.
Residence – Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired – Trade with Dallas, 1990
College – Boston College
High School – South Catholic HS, Hartford, Ct.
Height – 6-6
Weight – 292
Pro Year – 7th
Year with Broncos – 5th

Dave Widell's versatility was a major help to the Broncos' offensive line in the 1993 season, playing at both the guard and center positions. Widell is slated as the starting left guard in 1994 with most of the same offensive linemen returning for the 1994 season. Widell also remained a key contributor on special teams, as the Broncos' long snapping specialist. 1992: Widell played in every game in 1992 and started at center in the season opener against the Raiders (9/6). Besides his work on the offensive line, Widell was also Denver's snapper on punts last year. 1991: He had a good year for Denver in 1991, and his versatility proved valuable in the postseason. He started two games at left guard, including the season opener against Cincinnati (9/1), and filled in at center for Keith Kartz against Houston and Buffalo in the playoffs. He was acquired in a trade with Dallas, (8/24/90), where he had played since joining the Cowboys as a fourth-round draft choice in 1988. 1990: He played in every game in 1990 and started at left guard in the final five weeks of the campaign, while also serving as the Broncos' punt snapper. 1988-89: In two seasons with Dallas, Widell started 11 times, eight times at left tackle and three times at right tackle. He started in the season opener of his rookie year, becoming the first Cowboy rookie to start the first game of the season since Burton Lawless in 1974.

COLLEGE: Widell was a three-year starter at Boston College and was named All-East Coast and honorable mention All-America as a senior, joining his brother Doug in the Eagles' starting lineup. A versatile athlete, he backed up left tackle in his freshman year, shared the center position his sophomore season, and handled the long-snapping duties for three and a half years.

PERSONAL: David and his wife Shawn make their offseason home in the Denver suburb of Aurora, where Shawn manages a John Atencio Jewelry Store. A native of Hartford, Ct., David plays an active role in many charities both in Connecticut and Colorado: Colorado and Connecticut Special Olympics, Colorado and Connecticut D.A.R.E. Program, Connecticut Little League Baseball, National Sportcenter for the Disabled at Winter Park, Colorado Sports for the Physically Challenged, and other charity events. At South Catholic HS David was an all-state tight end and nosetackle. In college David received his degree in finance. Dave's hobbies include golf and fly-fishing.

No. 92 DAVID MATTHEW WYMAN

Linebacker

Birthdate – March 31, 1964
Birthplace – San Diego, CA
Residence – Kirkland, WA
How Acquired – Unrestricted FA, 1993
College – Stanford
High School – Wooster HS,
Reno, NV
Height – 6-2

Pro Year – 8th
Year with Broncos – 2nd

David Wyman played solid at inside linebacker in 1993, his first year as a Bronco. His veteran leadership helped fill the Bronco linebacking spot that was left vacant in the 1993 offseason. Wyman finished second on the team in tackles with 133 (91 solo), as well as scoring his first touchdown on a fake field goal play at San Diego (12/5). Wyman was also credited with one pass interception, versus Tampa Bay (12/26), and two fumble recoveries, at Seattle (11/28) and at Chicago (12/18). 1992: Wyman is in his seventh season as a pro, and is coming off a productive 1992 season. He started the first 11 games at middle linebacker for the Seahawks before injuring an arch while making a goal line tackle against Kansas City (11/22). The foot injury caused him to miss the last five games of Seattle's season. Wyman finished the 1992 season with 83 tackles, which led the team at the time of his injury. 1987: He was a second round draft choice of the Seahawks in 1987. He played in four games with no starts as a rookie. Seattle had reached an agreement to trade Wyman to San Francisco in November of 1987, but a shoulder injury caused him to fail the 49er's team physical, which voided the trade. 1988: Wyman started all 16 games in 1988, ranking second on the team in tackles with 97. In his big game against San Francisco, Wyman racked up 14 tackles, including two-and-a-half sacks. That year he had five games in which he made at least 10 tackles. 1989: In 1989 Wyman developed further as an inside linebacker. He became the only Seahawk linebacker to start all 16 games, and he finished second on the team in tackles with 98. 1990: The 1990 season saw Wyman spend the first eight games of the season on injured reserve, due to a knee injury suffered during training camp. Upon his return in the final eight games, Wyman was credited with 48 tackles, two tackles for loss, a sack, a fumble recovery and two interceptions. 1991: In 1991 Wyman started the first four games before sustaining another knee injury at Kansas City. He spent the next 10 weeks on injured reserve before returning to the starting line-up against Atlanta. He was credited with 22 tackles for the season.

COLLEGE: Wyman was a first-team All-America and a first-team All-Pac 10 selection as a senior at Stanford. He led the team in tackles in 1986 with 169, intercepted three passes and recovered one fumble. He had a season-high 27 tackles against the University of Southern California and totaled 11 tackles in a 27-21 loss to Clemson in the Gator Bowl. Wyman was redshirted in 1985 after suffering a severe knee injury in 1984. He was a second team all-conference choice in 1983 and 1984 along with the team MVP honor in 1984. He had 128 tackles as a junior and 144 as a sophomore. Wyman finished his career at Stanford with 458 tackles, seven fumble recoveries, and seven interceptions. He majored in communications.

PERSONAL: David and his wife Shannen were married on May 22, 1993, and the couple makes their home in Kirkland, Washington, with their son Jake (4/14/94). He earned the Nevada Player of honor as a senior at Wooster HS in Reno, Nevada. He also was the state champion in the shot put and lettered in basketball.

No. 65 GARY WAYNE ZIMMERMAN

Tackle

Birthdate – December 13, 1961

Birthplace – Fullerton, CA

Residence – Parker, CO

How Acquired – Trade with Minnesota, 1993

College – Oregon

High School – Walnut High, CA

Height – 6-6

Weight – 294

Pro Year – 9th

Year with Broncos – 2nd

Gary Zimmerman was acquired by the Broncos in a trade with Minnesota prior to the last preseason game in 1993, and was immediately inserted into the starting lineup. He started every game of the 1993 season at left tackle for the Broncos, solidifying an offensive line that allowed time for quarterback John Elway to post career numbers. He was a major factor in the success of the Broncos offensive line and is considered one of the games best at left tackle. Zimmerman is very durable, starting 107 straight games for the Broncos and Vikings, and he has started every game in which he has played as a pro (125). A consummate professional year in and year out, he has been elected to the Pro Bowl four times (1987-89, 1992), and was an alternate selection in 1993. He has been named All-NFL twice (1987-88), NFL Lineman of the Year in 1987, and second team All-NFL of the 1980's. 1992: In 1992 he was named to the Pro Bowl as a starter, his first trip since 1989. 1991: In 1991 he anchored a Minnesota line that helped the Vikings lead the NFC in rushing. 1990: In 1990 Zimmerman started all 16 games despite being hampered by various injuries. He underwent surgery on his ankle and elbow at the end of that season. 1987-89: In 1989 he was selected to his third Pro Bowl appearance. The other two appearances were in 1988 and 1987. 1986: Nineteen eighty-six was his first year in the NFL and he earned All-NFL honors. 1984-85: He began his pro career as a second round pick by the Los Angeles Express of the USFL in 1984.

COLLEGE: Zimmerman was a first team All-Pac 10 selection, and earned Sporting News second team and Associated Press third team honors as a senior in 1983. He was a part-time player in as a freshman, and played both ways in 1981 before becoming a starter as a junior.

PERSONAL: Gary was born in Fullerton, CA, where he was an all-league middle linebacker at Walnut High. He and his wife Lisa have two daughters, Lindsay Rae (2/9/88) and Kelsey Marie (1/14/92), and the couple makes their offseason home in Parker, CO. His hobbies include hunting, fishing, working with computers and flying.

DENVER BRONCOS STARTERS, 1960-93

Listed below are the usual starters, by position, for the Denver Broncos on a season-by-season basis from 1960-93. A player must have been the starter for the majority of the games that season to be designated as the starter. If the number of starting assignments at a position were virtually equal, two players have been listed, with the player who had the greater playing time listed first. The term "Ret" is used to designate someone who was a kick return specialist.

ALLEN RAY ALDRIDGE LB

6-1, 245 DOB: May 30, 1977

Houston

Draft Choice #2

Allen Aldridge comes to the Broncos as a versatile defender known for his aggressive play at the University of Houston. Aldridge played on the Cougars' defensive line before shifting to the linebacking unit. In 1993 he was named All-American and All-Southwest Conference first team by pre-draft publications, starting all year at strongside outside linebacker and finishing fourth on the team with 81 tackles (46 solo) and four sacks. He also had a fumble recovery and a pair of forced fumbles last year, closing out his Cougar career with an appearance in the Blue-Gray Game, in which he was named the defensive MVP. His career stats show 191 total tackles (100 solo, 91 assists), 14 sacks, 14 tackles for losses, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Last year he posted 16 tackles (nine solo), with a sack and two forced fumbles against Tulsa. He also had 16 stops (nine solo) in the Baylor contest. Other big games by Aldridge as a senior included 10 hits and one sack against Texas, eight tackles vs. Texas Tech, and six tackles each against Michigan, Southern Methodist, Texas Christian, and Cincinnati. 1992: Aldridge started the team's first eight games at right defensive end, shifting to left end for the final three contests. He recorded 48 tackles (27 solo) with five sacks, also recovering three fumbles and deflecting two passes. He had six tackles against Michigan and had three tackles and a fumble recovery vs. Texas Tech. 1991: He started all year at right defensive end, posting 47 tackles (19 solo) with four sacks, also handling deep snapping duties for the field goal unit. 1990: Aldridge was a part-time starter in 1990, playing in eight games as a true freshman and recording 15 tackles (eight solo) along with one sack and two pass deflections. He recovered a fumble and made four solo tackles against Baylor. Aldridge also competed on the Cougars' track team in 1993, finishing third in the shot put (55'0") at the SWC Indoor Championships, adding a 56'8" outdoor mark in the shot put at the Texas Relays. A native of Houston, Aldridge earned three letters each in football and track at Willowridge HS in Missouri City, Texas, where he was a Top 100 choice by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Dallas Morning News. He also was named an All-Greater Houston pick as a senior. A sports administration major at Houston, Allen is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and was a two-time "Ironman" winner in the Cougars' weight room. His father, Allen, played for the Cleveland Browns and Houston Oilers, and he also is related to former NFL defensive back Ken Houston.

KEITH BERNARD BURNS LB6-1, 233 DOB: May 16, 1972*Oklahoma State*Draft Choice #7a

Keith Burns was regarded as a very aggressive and intense competitor at Oklahoma State, finishing his two years there with 233 tackles (182 solo), six sacks, one interception, five fumbles recovered, and three forced fumbles. In 1993 he was an All-American second team and All-Big Eight first team selection by Football News, as well as being named a Playboy All-American, starting the first nine games at strongside outside linebacker before shifting to the middle vs.

Colorado and Kansas State. Burns led the Cowboys with 107 tackles (80 solo), adding a sack, three fumble recoveries, and three pass deflections. He came up with 15 tackles (12 solo) vs. Arizona State and had 11 (eight solo) vs. Nebraska. Burns had 11 tackles (seven solo) and a fumble recovery vs. Missouri and also had big games against Iowa State (14 tackles, eight solo) and Kansas (12 and 10). He had seven solo tackles against Colorado, and closed out his college career with an appearance in the East-West Shrine Game. 1992: Burns was an All-Big Eight Conference first team selection and was chosen as the Big Eight Defensive Newcomer of the Year, starting every game at the strongside outside linebacker post. He led the team with 126 tackles (102 solo), along with five sacks, also recovering two fumbles and causing three others. He deflected four passes and had an 18-yard interception return in 1992. Burns had 12 tackles (11 solo) vs. Michigan, also causing a fumble in that game, adding 10 tackles against Texas Christian and 12 (11 solo) against Missouri. Burns had 14 tackles (12 solo), a forced fumble, an 18-yard interception return, and a fumble recovery in the Cowboys' win over Iowa State, earning Big Eight defensive player of the week accolades. He followed that up with a 15-tackle (10 solo) effort vs. Kansas and registered 19 tackles (15 solo) against the Colorado Buffaloes. 1991: Burns was an All-American first-team selection at Navarro (Tex.) Junior College, recording 192 tackles (102 solo), with six sacks, also intercepting three passes, deflecting six others, causing four fumbles, and recovering three others in that campaign. 1990: He spent 1990 at Navarro JC as well. Born in Greelyville, S.C., Burns earned three letters in football, two in basketball, and one in baseball at T. C. Williams HS in Alexandria, Virginia. Keith was a two-time all-district selection in basketball while in high school. Keith has his associate of arts degree from Navarro JC and was a sociology major at Oklahoma State. He enjoys bowling in his spare time.

NFL TERMINOLOGY

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either pre-season training camp or being on an active roster for fewer than three regular-season or postseason games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player on an NFL active roster for at least six regular-season or postseason games is credited with an additional year of NFL playing experience.

GAME-BY-GAME-REVIEW GAMES LISTED LAST TO FIRST

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 33, DENVER 30

LOS ANGELES, CA., Jan. 2 — The Denver Broncos entered the final game of the season with a specific goal, win to host a playoff game, and things looked very good early. The Broncos moved 55 yards in 12 plays to set up a Jason Elam field goal from 52 yards out, 3-0. Mike Croel forced and recovered a Raider fumble at the Los Angeles 31. Three plays later, John Elway hit Cedric Tillman from 27 yards out, giving Denver a 10-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Elam made good on a 24-yarder, putting the Broncos up by 13. Los Angeles got on the board on its next drive, going 82 yards in eight plays. Tim Brown caught a Jeff Hostetler four-yard pass to cut the lead to six, 13-7. The Broncos answered when Elway hit Shannon Sharpe from 54 yards out, giving the Broncos a 20-7 lead. The Raiders answered with Jeff Jaeger's first field goal of the game from 43 yards away, 20-10. Robert Delpino then returned the ensuing kickoff 49 yards to the Raider 43. That set up a five-play drive, capped off with Elway's second touchdown to Sharpe. This time from the one-yard line, 27-10. After a short Elam kickoff, the Raiders took over at their own 36 with 24 seconds remaining. That would be enough time to move into Jeff Jaeger's range. Jaeger came on to hit from 50 yards away to end the half, 27-13. The Broncos started the second half like they started the game, with a Jason Elam field goal. This time Elam hit from 27 yards away, 30-13. Hostetler and Brown brought the Raiders within 10-points on their first possession, hooking up for a 24-yard touchdown, 30-20. The Broncos failed to move the ball on their next two possessions, but the Raiders' Jaeger hit from 39 yards out early in the fourth, 30-23. The next score would not come until the last play of regulation. Down by seven, the Raiders started from their 30-yard line and drove 70 yards in 13 plays. Jeff Hostetler hit Alexander Wright from four yards away with no time remaining to take the game into overtime, 30-30. In overtime, the Broncos drove from their 25 to the Raiders' 22, but Jason Elam missed a 40-yard game winning field goal. The Raiders took over and drove 49 yards, setting Jaeger up for the winning field goal from 47 yards away. The kick was good and the Raiders pulled out the victory 33-30.

TAMPA BAY 17, DENVER 10

DENVER, COLO., Dec. 26 — The Broncos suffered a big loss versus the Buccaneers at Mile High in their last home game, killing any division title hopes. Things looked good for the Broncos early in the contest, scoring on their first possession, Reggie Rivers hit pay-dirt from five yards out to give the Broncos the early 7-0 lead. Tampa Bay's Craig Erickson tossed a 19-yard touchdown pass to Dave Moore early in the second, tying the score at seven. Late in the second the Broncos were denied on a fourth down pass attempt at the Tampa Bay 38. The Buccaneers took advantage, driving 32 yards, setting up a 48-yard field goal by Michael Husted with just 37 seconds remaining in the half, 10-7. In the third quarter both the Broncos and the Buccaneers were stopped on their opening drives, but Glyn Milburn fumbled the Buccaneers' punt, and Roger Jones recovered for Tampa Bay. Three plays later, Erickson hit Courtney Hawkins from 14 yards out to put the Buccaneers up 10, 17-7. Tampa Bay punted on its next possession, and Glyn Milburn made amends by returning the punt 54 yards to the Tampa Bay 15. The Broncos couldn't get the ball in the end zone, and had to settle for a Jason Elam 24-yard field goal that cut the lead to seven. That was as close as the Broncos got, as the Buccaneers held on for a 17-10 victory, dropping the Broncos' record to 9-7.

DENVER 13, CHICAGO 3

CHICAGO, IL., Dec. 18 - The conditions were not the best for the high powered Bronco offense versus the Bears in Chicago, but Bronco running back Rod Bernstine shouldered most of the work. The Broncos forced a Chicago punt on the game's opening possession, but Ronnie Bradford touched the ball and Chicago's Ron Cox recovered at the Bronco 29. Kevin Butler eventually hit from 31 yards out to give Chicago an early 3-0 lead. It was the middle of the second quarter before the Broncos got on the board. Jason Elam hit from 29 yards out, after Shane Dronett forced a Tim Worley fumble, to tie the score at 3 apiece. A few possessions later, Mike Croel forced and recovered a Peter Tom Willis fumble that set up the game's only touchdown. After a 15-yard rush by Rod Bernstine, Robert Delpino took it in from one yard out to put the Broncos up 10-3. Elam tacked on a 24-yard field goal on the Broncos' first possession in the third quarter to finish the scoring at 13-3 Broncos. The Bears did threaten in the fourth, but Bronco safeties Dennis Smith and Steve Atwater stopped both Bear drives with interceptions. This was the fourth Bronco road win of the season and pushed their record to 9-5.

DENVER 27, KANSAS CITY 21

DENVER, COLO., Dec. 12 - The Denver Broncos and Kansas City Chiefs played a Monday night game early in the 1993 season that saw five field goals and one touchdown account for all the scoring, but the two teams were determined not to make this one a defensive struggle. Kansas City jumped out to an early 7-0 lead, when Joe Montana orchestrated a 9-play, 65-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard TD pass from Montana to Johnathan Hayes. The Broncos were forced to punt on their next possession, but rookie cornerback Ronnie Bradford picked off a Montana pass that set up a 36-yard field goal by Jason Elam, 7-3. Kansas City marched 80 yards in the second quarter to take a 14-3 lead after a Marcus Allen four-yard TD run. The Broncos answered with their first touchdown of the game just before half-time, after Nick Lowery missed from 44 yards out. The Broncos took over at their 26, taking 11 plays to go the 74 yards with Elway hitting Shannon Sharpe from nine yards out to pull within four, 14-10. In the second half, the Broncos wasted no time in taking the lead, driving 80 yards in 12 plays on their first possession. Shannon Sharpe caught his second TD of the game from 14 yards out, 17-14. Albert Lewis picked off John Elway on the Broncos' next possession, which set the Chiefs up at the Bronco 25. Two plays later, Montana hit Willie Davis from 29 yards out to take a 21-17 lead. In the fourth Reggie Rivers got through to block a Bryan Barker punt, which set up the third Elway to Sharpe touchdown, this time from six yards away, 24-21. Jason Elam later tacked on a 53-yard field goal to put the game out of reach, and when the final gun sounded John Elway had his first fourth quarter comeback of the season and the Broncos had a 27-21 victory.

SAN DIEGO 13, DENVER 10

SAN DIEGO, CA., Dec. 5 – The Broncos entered the Charger game with a 7-4 record and a two-game winning streak on the line. Things looked very good early after the Broncos took their opening drive and went 86 yards to set up a 30-yard Jason Elam field goal to take an early 3-0 lead. In the second the Broncos added a little razzle-dazzle to the game, when back-up quarterback Tommy Maddox tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to linebacker Dave Wyman on a fake field goal. That put the Broncos ahead 10-0 at the half. In the second half the Chargers began to chip away at the Bronco lead. John Carney hit a 27-yard field goal after Darren Carrington picked off a John Elway pass on the Broncos' first possession of the second half, 10-3. Natrone Means capped off an 11-play drive early in the fourth on a one-yard run to tie the score at 10. The Broncos drove to the Charger 24 on their next possession, but Jason Elam missed a 42-yard field goal that would have put the Broncos ahead by three. On the Chargers' last drive of the game, Stan Humphries led his team 80 yards in 12 plays to set up a 34-yard field goal by John Carney to finish the scoring. The final score read, 13-10 Chargers.

DENVER 17, SEATTLE 9

SEATTLE, WA., Nov. 28 - The Denver Broncos traveled to the Kingdome to take on the Seahawks in a critical AFC West matchup. The Broncos hadn't beaten the Seahawks in Seattle since 1989. After a scoreless first quarter that saw five punts and a Eugene Robinson interception of John Elway, the Broncos broke the drought on an acrobatic 50-yard touchdown pass from Elway to Shannon Sharpe. That would be all the first half scoring as the Broncos took a 7-0 lead into intermission. On the Broncos' first possession of the second half, Rod Stephens sacked John Elway for a safety, 7-2. Jason Elam hit a 25-yard field goal late in the third to put the Broncos up 10-2. Rick Mirer tossed his first touchdown in the fourth, when he hit Kelvin Martin from 10 yards out cutting the lead to one, 10-9. The Broncos regrouped and drove 80 yards in eight plays with Rod Bernstein taking the ball in from two yards out for the score. The Broncos broke a three year drought in Seattle by winning 17-9.

DENVER 37, PITTSBURGH 13

DENVER, COLO., Nov. 21 – The Denver Broncos got back on the winning track in a big way versus the Pittsburgh Steelers at Mile High Stadium. Denver jumped out to a 20-point lead, and unlike in previous weeks, the Broncos never looked back. Jason Elam got the Broncos on the board first with a 48-yard field goal on their opening possession. Tyrone Braxton recovered a Leroy Thompson fumble on Pittsburgh's first possession, which set up the Broncos' first touchdown scoring drive of the game. Robert Delpino capped the drive by going in from one yard out, 10-0. In the second quarter John Elway hooked up with Shannon Sharpe on a 63-yard pass play, which Sharpe fumbled into the end zone. Derek Russell picked up the loose ball to give the Broncos the score, and a 17-0 lead. Just before the end of the first half, Elam tacked on a 27-yard field goal to give the Broncos a 20-0 lead at the half. The Steelers scored first in the second half, when Gary Anderson hit from 37 yards away, cutting the score to 20-3. The Broncos drove 65 yards in seven plays, capping the drive with another Delpino one-yard touchdown, 27-3. Darryl Hall forced a Rod Woodson fumble on the ensuing kickoff, and Reggie Rivers recovered. The Broncos capitalized on the Steeler miscue, when John Elway hit Vance Johnson from 13 yards out, giving the Broncos a commanding 34-3 lead. Anderson hit a 38-yard field goal in the third, and Elam hit a 28-yarder in the fourth, after a Le-Lo Lang interception of Neil O'Donnell, 37-6. Mike Tomczak came on in relief of O'Donnell for the last Steeler drive, and tossed a 39-yard touchdown to Yancy Thigpen to finish the score, 37-13.

MINNESOTA 26, DENVER 23

DENVER, COLO., Nov. 14 - The Denver Broncos suffered a disappointing defeat at the hands of the Minnesota Vikings at Mile High Stadium. The Broncos led by as many as 17 points midway through the second quarter only to see the lead slowly disappear. After fumbles early in the game by both teams, Bronco cornerback Frank Robinson picked off a Sean Salisbury pass and returned it to the Vikings' 31. John Elway then led the Broncos on a six play, 31-yard drive, resulting in a four-yard touchdown pass from Elway to Derek Russell. The extra point was blocked, so the Broncos led 6-0. The Vikings responded to the Bronco score with a 25-yard field goal by Fuad Reveiz to cut the lead to three. In the second quarter Robert Delpino capped a seven-play drive with a three-yard score, 13-3. Karl Mecklenburg forced a fumble of Barry Word that was recovered by Tyrone Braxton on the Vikings' first possession. That turnover resulted in another Bronco score, when Elway hit Vance Johnson from 15 yards out, 20-3. The Vikings bounced back with two scores before the end of the half. Salisbury hit Chris Carter from nine yards out and Roger Craig from 17 yards away, to cut the Bronco lead to three, 20-17 at the half. Reveiz tied the score on the Vikings' first possession of the second half with a 19-yard field goal, and put the Vikings ahead for the first time in the fourth when he hit from 35 yards away, 23-20. Jason Elam responded to the Reveiz challenge by hitting from 53 yards away on the Broncos' next possession, tying the score again 23-23. The Vikings had the momentum, and they proved it when Salisbury hit Chris Carter on a 55-yard pass reception, which set the Vikings up for the eventual winning field goal from 43 yards out by Fuad Reveiz, 26-23 Vikings. The Broncos did move the ball on their next possession, but a Glyn Milburn fumble at the Vikings' 26 cost Denver a final shot. The 26-23 loss to the Vikings gave the Broncos a 5-4 record.

DENVER 29, CLEVELAND 14

CLEVELAND, OH., Nov. 7 — The Broncos extended their win streak over the Browns to three games, winning all three in Cleveland. The Broncos held the ball for seven and one-half minutes in their opening drive, only to cough it up at the Cleveland seven, when Jerry Ball forced a Robert Delpino fumble. Cleveland couldn't capitalize and the first quarter ended scoreless. On the Broncos' first possession of the second, John Elway led an eight-play, 69-yard drive, that ended with a Glyn Milburn two-yard touchdown reception, 7-0. The Broncos were leading 7-0 when Reggie Rivers blocked a Brian Hansen punt through the end zone for a safety on the next Cleveland possession, 9-0. After the free kick, the Broncos marched 62 yards in five plays for a touchdown, culminating with an Elway to Derek Russell 38-yard score to take a commanding 16-0 lead at the half. Cleveland scored first in the second half, driving 69 yards in nine plays. Bernie Kosar hooked up with Michael Jackson for an eight-yard score which brought the game closer, 16-7. The Browns answered back, when Elway hit Shannon Sharpe from 33 yards out to take a 23-7 lead. Jason Elam tacked on two more field goals from 22 and 38 yards out in the fourth quarter to finish the Bronco scoring, 29-7. Kosar and Jackson hooked up for a second touchdown late in the game for the Browns, but when the final tick hit the clock the Broncos had a 29-14 victory.

DENVER 28, SEATTLE 17

DENVER, COLO., Oct. 31 - After two straight defeats by three points, the Broncos got back on the winning track at home against the Seattle Seahawks. Again it was a team effort, as the defense forced two interceptions (Charles Dimry and Tyrone Braxton) and the offense hit pay-dirt four times. Seattle struck first after a Rufus Porter interception of John Elway that set the Seahawks up at the Denver 42. It took the Seahawks eight plays to capitalize on the turnover, when John L. Williams went in from 10 yards out to give Seattle a 7-0 lead. Denver didn't score until the second quarter, when John Elway led an eight-play, 80 yard drive, that was capped by a 20-yard touchdown pass from Elway to Vance Johnson, 7-7. Seattle was forced to punt on its next possession, which set the Broncos up first and 10 at their 44. Six plays later, Robert Delpino found himself in the end zone to give the Broncos their first lead, 14-7. Rick Mirer was intercepted by Tyrone Braxton on the Seahawks' next possession, which set up a 65-yard drive by the Broncos. The drive culminated with an Elway to Shannon Sharpe five-yard TD to take a commanding 21-7 lead into half-time. John Kasay hit a 53-yard field goal on the Seahawks' first possession of the second half, and the Broncos answered with another 80-yard drive. Robert Delpino topped off the drive with his second rushing touchdown, 28-10. John L. Williams scored his second TD in the fourth for Seattle, and that rounded out the scoring, 28-17.

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 23, DENVER 20

DENVER, COLO., Oct. 18 - In a game seen nationally on Monday night, the Broncos and Raiders played a heart-stopping contest. The Broncos took the opening kickoff and marched 69 yards to the Los Angeles 11, but that was as far as they would go on that possession, after John Elway was picked off by Derrick Hoskins at the L.A. three. Hoskins returned the interception to the Raiders' 11, where they started their march. It took the Raiders nine plays to go 89 yards for a 11-yard touchdown from Jeff Hostetler to Alexander Wright, giving the Raiders a 7-0 lead. The Broncos were unable to move the ball on their next possession and punted to Tim Brown, who returned the punt to the Broncos' 32. That set up a Jeff Jaeger 32-yard field goal to give the Raiders an early 10-0 lead. The Raiders went up 13-0 in the second quarter, when Jaeger hit from 49 yards away, giving the Raiders a 13-point cushion at half-time. The Broncos tacked on three points in the third quarter, when Jason Elam hit from 40 yards out, to cut the lead to 10, 13-3. In the fourth the pace picked up as the Broncos scored on their first two possessions. First, Elway hit Arthur Marshall on a 27-yard touchdown pass to pull within three, 13-10. Jeff Hostetler fumbled on the Raiders' first play of the fourth quarter, and Greg Kragen came up with the loose ball at the Raider five. Two plays later, Elway tossed his second touchdown pass, this time to Reggie Johnson for the Broncos' first lead, 17-13. The Raiders struck back quickly, when Hostetler hit a streaking James Jett on a 74-yard touchdown reception, to put the Raiders back ahead 20-17. The Broncos then responded with a game tying field goal by Jason Elam from 37 yards out, 20-20. Punts by both teams set the Raiders up with their last chance to take the lead with 16 seconds remaining. After moving 26 yards, Jeff Jaeger came on to make a 53-yard field goal to give the Raiders a 23-20 win, dropping the Broncos to a 3-3 record.

GREEN BAY 30, DENVER 27

GREEN BAY, WI., Oct. 10 – The Broncos took a 3-1 record into historic Lambeau field in a Sunday night nationally televised matchup with the Green Bay Packers, and things looked mighty ugly early on for Denver. Robert Brooks took the opening kickoff 68 yards for Green Bay, which set up a field goal by the Packers' Chris Jacke from 28 yards out, giving Green Bay an early 3-0 lead. Following a Tom Rouen punt, Green Bay took over on its own 35 and drove the 65 yards in eight plays, taking a 10-0 lead on a one yard touchdown by John Stephens. Green Bay's George Teague recovered a Glyn Milburn fumble on the next kickoff, setting the Packers up in great field position at the Broncos' 22. Eight plays later Edgar Bennett plowed in from one yard out, giving Green Bay a commanding 17-0 lead in the first quarter. The Broncos answered back early in the second quarter, marching 88 yards in 11 plays. Vance Johnson came up big for John Elway on the drive, capping it with a 14-yard touchdown reception to cut the Packer lead to 10, 17-7. The Packers answered quickly on their next drive. Brett Favre hit a streaking Jackie Harris on a 66-yard touchdown on second down. The point after put the Packers up 24-7. The Broncos continued to make mistakes on both offense and defense and on the next possession, John Elway was picked off by the Packers' Wayne Simmons. The Packers again capitalized on a 32-yard field goal by Chris Jacke, putting them ahead 27-7. The Broncos gave the Packers the ball at Green Bay's 38 after failing to convert on a fourth down play, and again the Packers worked the possession into points. Chris Jacke hit a 21-yard field goal to give the Packers a 30-7 half-time lead. The Broncos mounted a furious comeback in the second half, spearheaded by the defense. Mike Croel picked off a Brett Favre pass and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown, to cut the Packer lead to 30-14. After a Green Bay punt, the Broncos drove 68 yards in 12 plays, with the payoff coming on a two-yard touchdown run by Rod Bernstine, 30-21 Packers. Jason Elam tacked on a 47-yard field goal in the fourth to cut the lead to six, 30-24. Shane Dronett picked off a Brett Favre pass on the Packers' next possession, setting up the offense first and 10 at the Green Bay 37. After nine plays, Elam came on to kick a 37-yard field goal to bring the Broncos within three, 30-27. Late in the fourth, Denver's Le-Lo Lang came up with a big interception to give the Broncos a chance, but the Packers' Reggie White put an end to Denver's hopes by sacking John Elway on both third and fourth down. The Packers won 30-27 and dropped Denver to a 3-2 record.

DENVER 35, INDIANAPOLIS 13

DENVER, COLO., Oct. 3 – The Broncos returned to the friendly confines of Mile High Stadium in a big way, beating the Colts by 22. Denver played well in all facets of the game, the defense accounted for two interceptions (Dennis Smith and Tyrone Braxton), a forced fumble (Willie Oshodin), and held the Colts to just 165 passing yards. The offense chipped in with 196 yards rushing, with two touchdowns, and they tallied 260 yards passing with three touchdowns. Denver scored touchdowns on its first four possessions, after three Colt punts and a Tyrone Braxton interception of Jack Trudeau. Robert Delpino got the scoring barrage started on a two-yard plunge, giving the Broncos a 7-0 lead. Then it was Rod Bernstine on a nine-yard scamper that put the Broncos up 14. Glyn Milburn got into the act next as the beneficiary of a three-yard toss from John Elway, 21-0 Broncos. Not to be forgotten, Shannon Sharpe got loose for a 22-yard touchdown pass from Elway, putting the Broncos up by 28, still in the first half. Indianapolis answered with a Dean Biasucci 28-yard field goal, and following a John Elway fumble at the Broncos' 20 yard line with 35 seconds remaining in the half, Indianapolis scored its first touchdown, when Trudeau hit Kerry Cash from four yards out. Denver had a 28-10 lead at the intermission. Indianapolis scored first in the third quarter on another 28-yard field goal by Biasucci, cutting the score to 28-13. The Broncos answered back with another touchdown pass, but it wasn't Elway making the toss. Arthur Marshall threw his second career TD, with Derek Russell as the receiver. That would prove to be all the game's scoring, as the Broncos walked away with a 35-13 win to go 3-1 on the season.

KANSAS CITY 15, DENVER 7

KANSAS CITY, MO., Sept. 20 — In a Monday night game billed as a matchup between two of the AFC's best offensive teams, and two of the NFL's greatest quarterbacks, the defenses took center stage. Only one touchdown was scored in the game, along with five field goals. The Chiefs started the scoring on the game's opening drive. Nick Lowery made good on a 34-yard field goal to give the Chiefs an early 3-0 lead. The Broncos' first possession looked to start with promise, but a 23-yard completion from John Elway to Derek Russell resulted in a Russell fumble that was recovered and returned to the Denver 38 by the Chiefs' Kevin Ross. That turnover didn't hurt the Broncos in the scoring column, as the defense came on to force a Bryan Barker punt that pinned the Broncos in at their one-yard line. Denver quickly got some breathing room, as Elway hooked up again with Russell for a 36-yard gain. The drive ultimately ended with a Tom Rouen punt to the Chiefs' two yard line. Starting in the hole proved to be a little more successful for the Chiefs, as they took 11 plays to go 74 yards, to set up a 41-yard field goal by Lowery, giving the Chiefs a 6-0 lead. The Broncos' next possession also ended in a punt, but the Chiefs' Dale Carter fumbled the return, and the Broncos' Jeff Robinson recovered the loose ball at the Chiefs' 34. Again the Broncos couldn't go the distance, and Tom Rouen came on to punt the ball back to the Chiefs. The Chiefs took over at their own 13 and drove 53 yards in 10 plays, to get up yet another Lowery field goal. This time Lowery hit from 52 yards out, to give his team a 9-0 lead. After another Rouen punt, the Chiefs found themselves up nine in the middle of the second quarter, but the team added to its total on Lowery's fourth field goal of the half, a 44-yarder, taking a 12-0 lead into half-time. Neither team could move the ball effectively in the third period, but Lowery broke the scoring drought early in the fourth by hitting his fifth field goal in as many attempts, putting the Chiefs up 15-0. Elway and Vance Johnson later hooked up for the game's only touchdown from two yards out, but it wouldn't be enough as the Chiefs walked away with a 15-7 win.

DENVER 34, SAN DIEGO 17

DENVER, COLO., Sept. 12 — The Broncos' home opener was truly a team effort, as the offense tallied 34 points, with 342 net yards, and the defense bent a little but didn't break, forcing two turnovers and holding the Chargers scoreless in the first half. Denver jumped out to a 17-0 lead in the first half, scoring all 17 points in the second quarter. A 34-yard touchdown from John Elway to Arthur Marshall started the scoring barrage, then it was Elway to Reggie Rivers from 12 yards out, and Jason Elam tacked on a 20-yard field goal to round out the first half's scoring. The Chargers came back in their first two drives of the second half. Following a Marquez Pope interception of Elway. Stan Humphries led the Chargers on an eight play, 47-yard drive, that ended with a 25-yard touchdown pass from Humphries to Derrick Walker. The Broncos' next drive also ended because of a turnover, when Reggie Johnson fumbled after a pass completion. Again it was the Chargers' Pope forcing the fumble with the recovery going to Darrien Gordon, setting up the Chargers first and 10 at the Broncos' 35. Four plays later, Humphries hooked up with Nate Lewis for a 24-yard touchdown, which closed the gap to three, 17-14. The Broncos answered the challenge on their next possession, going 80 yards in 12 plays. The drive ended on a one-yard touchdown plunge from Rod Bernstine, giving the Broncos a ten-point lead. The Chargers drove down field on their next possession, adding their first field goal from John Carney to pull within seven, but that was all the scoring they could muster, as the Broncos tacked on another Elam field goal and a Robert Delpino touchdown to win by 17 points, 34-17.

DENVER 26, NEW YORK JETS 20

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J., Sept. 5 - The Denver Broncos opened the regular season with an impressive win over the New York Jets, 26-20. This was the first regular season game for Wade Phillips as the Broncos' new head coach. The Broncos came into the game with a high-powered offense led by quarterback John Elway, but rookie kicker Jason Elam accounted for all of the first quarter scoring, hitting field goals from 28 and 30 yards out. New York's Cary Blanchard answered Elam's challenge by hitting field goals from 22 and 43 yards in the second quarter, tying the score 6-6. Cornerback Tyrone Braxton had a big first half, his interception and forced fumble put the Broncos into position for the two first half field goals. Just before half-time, Elway started the Broncos' last drive with 58 seconds remaining. That proved to be more than enough time as Elway handed off to running back Glyn Milburn for 15 yards. Then it was Elway to tight end Shannon Sharpe for a 34-yard gain. On the next play Elway hit Derek Russell for 17 yards, setting up a first and goal from the three with 32 seconds left. It was on the very next play that Elway hit Cedric Tillman for the game's first touchdown. The Broncos took a 13-7 lead into the locker room. On the Broncos' first possession of the second half Milburn capped off an 80-yard drive with 25-yard touchdown pass from John Elway, making the score 20-6. On the Jets' first possession, Denver's outside linebacker Simon Fletcher applied enough pressure to force a fumble by the Jet's quarterback Boomer Esiason. That turnover would eventually lead to a 31-yard field goal by Elam, putting the Broncos up 23-6. After another failed drive by the Jets, and with a 36-yard punt return by Milburn, the Broncos again found themselves in good field position, starting at their own 43. This possession yielded yet another Elam field goal, this time from 41 yards out, giving the Broncos a commanding 26-6 lead. In the fourth quarter the Jets made some noise with two touchdown passes from Esiason to Johnny Mitchell and Rob Moore, but in the end it would not be enough as the Broncos walked away with a 26-20 road win.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1993 WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 42, DENVER 24

LOS ANGELES, CA, Jan 9 — The Broncos returned to the playoffs after a one-year hiatus and faced the L.A. Raiders for the second time in as many weeks, but unlike the previous week, this time it was a do-or-die situation for both teams. Early on the game looked to have the makings of a defensive struggle, with both teams going four downs and out on their first possession, but the game's pace quickly picked up on the second possession. The Raiders struck first on a seven-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off with a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Jeff Hostetler to TE Ethan Horton. QB John Elway and the Broncos responded with a drive of their own, going 63 yards in seven plays, as Elway hooked up with TE Shannon Sharpe for a 23-yard touchdown. The Raiders bounced back with a 65-yard TD toss to WR Tim Brown to take a 14-7 lead. The Broncos, not to be out done, drove 64 yards in 11 plays setting up a 16-yard TD toss from Elway to TE Reggie Johnson to tie the score. Hostetler continued to be red hot on the Raiders' next possession, leading the Raiders 84 yards in just five plays. WR James Jett helped pad Hostetler's totals by catching a 54-yard TD pass in the five-play drive. As bad as the Bronco defense looked in three straight possessions, the Bronco offense picked up the slack. In the Broncos' last drive of the half, the offense chewed up nearly seven minutes and went 77 yards to tie the score 14-14. WR Derek Russell was on the receiving end of a six-yard TD pass that tied the score, but the real hero of the drive was John Elway. Elway completed passes to six different receivers on the drive and showed his versatility by running twice. At the half both teams had showed how potent their offenses could be, racking up nearly 500 yards of total offense combined. In the second half good things continued to happen for the Raiders, but for the Broncos, their playoff advancement hopes quickly began to fade. After receiving the opening kickoff of the second half, the Broncos failed to move the ball on their first three possessions, giving the Raiders great field position after three punts that averaged 30 yards by P Tom Rouen. The Raiders took advantage of the field position, starting drives at the Denver 43 and 35, and their own 48. The Raiders punted on their first possession to the Bronco three, but in their next two possessions they hit paydirt, scoring touchdowns on drives of three and five plays to take a commanding 35-21 lead. The Broncos made a dent in the score at the beginning of the fourth period on a 33-yard field goal by K Jason Elam, but the Raiders responded to that with a 10-play, 76-yard drive that was capped by Napoleon McCallum's third touchdown of the game from one yard out. That would prove to be all of the scoring, as the Raiders walked away with a 42-24 victory.

1991 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

BUFFALO 10, DENVER 7

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Jan 12 — The Broncos were denied their fifth AFC Championship, losing 10-7 to the Bills before 80,272 in Rich Stadium. Denver's defense shut down the high-powered Buffalo offense, limiting it to just 213 total yards and only 12 first downs, but the Bronco offense failed to capitalize on several first-half opportunities. Buffalo punted after its first two drives netted minus two yards. On the second play of the Bills' third possession, NT Greg Kragen deflected a pass at the line and turned and dove for the ball, making an interception on the Buffalo 29. After three plays gave Denver a third-and-11 on the 30, David Treadwell's 47-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. The defense rose up again to thwart the Bills and the Broncos began their next drive on their own 24. Fifteen plays into the drive, on fourth-and-19 from the Buffalo 24, Treadwell attempted a 42-yard field goal but the ball hit the right upright. Once again the Bills punted after failing to get a first down, and a 10-yard punt return by Vance Johnson set Denver up on the 50. On first down, QB John Elway threw a middle screen to RB Steve Sewell, who gained 26 yards to the Buffalo 24. The Broncos could move no closer than the 20, and David Treadwell's 37-yard attempt hit the right upright, ending the last scoring threat of the first half. Through the first two quarters Denver outgained the Bills 123 yards to 58, had nine first downs to Buffalo's three, and had a time of possession of 20:19, but at halftime the score stood at 0-0. The Bills' second drive of the third quarter began at their 20 and 11 plays later they faced a third-and-seven on Denver's 26. Kelly attempted to hit WR James Lofton but CB Tyrone Braxton intercepted the ball and returned to the Denver 19. On second-and-ten Elway attempted another middle screen to Sewell, but LB Carlton Bailey picked off the pass and ran 11 yards for a touchdown. The Broncos' first possession of the fourth quarter began with Gary Kubiak at quarterback, replacing Elway, who left the game with an injured thigh muscle. Kubiak drove Denver from its 21 to the Buffalo 23, but the Broncos failed to convert a fourth down attempt. The Bills then drove 50 yards in nine plays to score on a 44-yard field goal by Scott Norwood. Now down 10-0, Kubiak engineered a frantic drive in which Denver covered 85 yards in eight plays, and Kubiak scored a three-yard quarterback draw to pull Denver within three points. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by the Broncos' Steve Atwater, and Denver began its last chance drive on its 49 with 1:43 left on the clock and two time-outs. On first down, Kubiak hit Sewell for seven yards, but CB Kirby Jackson stripped the ball away and he recovered on the Buffalo 44. The Bronco defense forced the Bills to punt, but Denver could only reach the 50 as time ran out. Kubiak, playing his final game as a pro, outgained both Elway and Kelly, completing 11 of 12 passes for 136 yards.

1991 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

DENVER 26, HOUSTON 24

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 4 — The Denver Broncos advanced to their fourth AFC Championship Game in six years after defeating Houston 26-24 before 75,301 in Mile High Stadium. David Treadwell's 28-yard field goal with 20 seconds remaining capped a 12-play, 78-yard drive in which the Broncos converted two fourth down plays. On the first play of the game, QB Warren Moon connected with WR Haywood Jeffries for a 49-yard gain, giving the Oilers a first down on the Denver 21. Two plays later Moon hit Jeffries for 15 yards and a score, giving Houston a 7-0 lead with only 1:46 gone in the game. After a Denver punt, Moon again drove his team down the field and threw his second TD pass, this one for nine yards to WR Drew Hill. The Broncos started their next possession on their 35 and covered 65 yards in eight plays to score on a 10-yard pass from QB John Elway to WR Vance Johnson, but a fumbled snap on the conversion attempt left the score 14-6. On the sixth play of the ensuing Oilers' drive, Moon was intercepted by FS Steve Atwater, but a roughing the passer call nullified the effort. Three plays later Houston scored on a six-yard pass from Moon to WR Curtis Duncan. The next Oilers' possession ended when Atwater intercepted a pass and gave Denver the ball on its own 12 with 6:03 left in the half. In a drive that saw Elway complete all six passes for 64 yards, and Steve Sewell complete one to Johnson for 10, the Broncos covered 88 yards in 12 plays to score on a one-yard run by RB Greg Lewis, cutting the Houston lead to 21-13. Denver reached the Houston 30 on its first possession of the second half, but Elway was intercepted by CB Richard Johnson and the Oilers took over on their 33. That led to a 33-yard field goal attempt by Al Del Greco, but the ball sailed wide right. The Broncos then drove from their 20 to Houston's 31 and David Treadwell nailed a 49-yard field goal, the longest in Denver postseason history. Now up by only five at 21-16, the Oilers reached the Broncos' seven on their next drive, but had to settle for a 25-yard field goal. Denver started on its 20 and nine plays later faced a fourth-and-four from the Houston 41. Elway threw a short pass to WR Michael Young, who broke two tackles and was finally brought down on Houston's 15, a gain of 26 yards. Three plays later Lewis bowled over from one for his second TD of the day, making the score 24-23 in favor of Houston. The Oilers' next drive stalled and Greg Montgomery punted to the Denver two. With 2:07 and no time outs remaining, Elway hit Young for a 22-yard gain on first down, but three plays later the Broncos had a fourth-and-six on the 28. Elway dropped back, then scrambled left upfield and ran out of bounds a yard past the first down marker. Three straight incompletions again left Denver with a do-or-die fourth down situation. Elway again dropped back and scrambled left, but as he headed upfield he tossed a pass to Johnson, who ran to the Houston 21 for a 44-yard gain. RB Steve Sewell ran for 10 yards on first down, and two plays later Treadwell came on for the winning kick.

1989 SUPER BOWL XXIV

SAN FRANCISCO 55, DENVER 10

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Jan. 28 — The San Francisco Forty-Niners captured their fourth World Championship with a 55-10 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXIV, played in the New Orleans Superdome. San Francisco QB Joe Montana completed 22 of 29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns, three to WR Jerry Rice. The Forty-Niners scored two touchdowns in every quarter and outgained the Broncos 461 yards to 167. After stopping Denver on the game's initial possession, San Francisco drove 66 yards in 10 plays, scoring on a 20-yard pass from Montana to Rice. The Broncos next possession covered 49 yards in 10 plays and resulted in a 42-yard field goal by David Treadwell. After limiting the Niners to four yards on their next drive, Denver took possession on its own 49, but on first down RB Bobby Humphrey fumbled and DE Kevin Fagan recovered for San Francisco on the Niners' 46. That turnover led to a seven-yard TD pass from Montana to TE Brent Jones, and after a failed extra point attempt, San Francisco led 13-3 with three seconds left in the first quarter. The Broncos failed to cross mid-field in the second period while the Niners scored on a one-yard run by RB Tom Rathman and a 38-yard pass from Montana to Rice. San Francisco was unable to move the ball to the initial drive of the second half, but Elway was intercepted on the first play of Denver's next drive and the Niners took possession on the Broncos' 28. On first down Montana threw a TD pass to Rice to put his team up 34-3. The next Denver drive also ended with an interception, leading to a 35-yard scoring pass from Montana to WR John Taylor. The Broncos, spurred by a 34-yard run by Humphrey, moved 61 yards in five plays and a penalty to score on a three-yard run by Elway. San Francisco roared back with an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a three-yard TD run by Rathman. Following another Bronco fumble, RB Roger Craig plowed one-yard into the endzone to round out the scoring.

1989 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DENVER 37, CLEVELAND 21

DENVER, COLO., Jan. 14 — The Denver Broncos won their third American Football Conference Championship in four years with a dynamic 37-21 victory over Cleveland before 76,005 fans in Mile High Stadium. Broncos QB John Elway threw for 385 yards and three TDs, RB Sammy Winder tied a Denver postseason record with two touchdowns, and SS Dennis Smith nabbed two of the Broncos' three interceptions. Denver had 497 yards of total offense to the Browns' 256 and had a time of possession of 36:53. The Broncos took the opening kickoff and drove to the Cleveland one, but on third down, Elway's pitch to RB Bobby Humphrey was fumbled and the Browns' Andrew Stewart recovered on the eight. With five minutes left in the first quarter, Smith picked off a Bernie Kosar pass and returned it to the Cleveland 32. Denver moved to the Cleveland 12 but had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by David Treadwell. Neither team mounted scoring drives until the Broncos took possession on their own 18 with 6:54 left in the half. On first down Elway hit WR Mark Jackson for 12 yards, and three plays later he connected with WR Michael Young for a 70-yard touchdown play. The Browns took the opening kickoff to the second half and drove 70 yards in six plays, scoring on a 27-yard pass from Kosar to Brian Brennan. Denver roared right back on its next possession, going 80 yards in six plays and scoring on a five-yard pass from Elway to TE Orson Mobley. The key play on that drive was a 53-yard pass from Elway to Young. Cleveland was unable to move the ball and punted back to Denver. The Broncos moved from their own 40, and buoyed by a 25-yard run by Elway, covered 60 yards in six plays and scored a seven-yard run by Winder, making the score 24-7. The Browns needed just six plays to go 72 yards and score on a 10-yard Kosar-to-Brennan pass, and two plays into Denver's next drive, Cleveland's Felix Wright recovered a Denver fumble and returned it to the Bronco one. One second down Tim Manoa barreled over from the two, cutting Denver's lead to 24-21 with one second left in the third quarter. The Broncos shut out the Browns in the final quarter while posting 13 points. Their initial drive of the quarter covered 80 yards in six plays and ended with a 39-yard touchdown pass from Elway to Winder. Denver's Kip Corrington intercepted Kosar to set the Broncos up on the Cleveland 39. Denver got as far as the Browns' 17 but had to settle for a 34-yard Treadwell field goal. Smith grabbed his second interception to end the Browns' next drive, leading to a 31-yard field goal.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

DENVER 24, PITTSBURGH 23

DENVER, COLO., Jan. 7 — The Denver Broncos advanced to their third AFC Championship Game in four years with a come-from-behind 24-23 victory over the Steelers before 75,868 in Mile High Stadium. Although Pittsburgh held the upper hand in total yards, 404 to 364, and time of possession, 34:14 to 25:46, Denver was able to mount a late fourth quarter drive and score the winning touchdown with just 2:27 remaining. The Steelers took the opening kickoff and drove 65 yards in 13 plays, scoring on a 32-yard Gary Anderson field goal. Late in the opening quarter Pittsburgh took possession at its own seven-yard line, but on first down RB Merrill Hoge ran for 45 yards to the Bronco 48. Quarterback Bubba Brister connected with RB Tim Worley for a 33-yard gain on the next play, and three plays later Hoge scored on a seven-yard run to put Pittsburgh up 10-0. The Broncos took their first possession of the second quarter and drove 75 yards in 12 plays to score on a one-yard plunge by RB Mel Bratton on third-and-goal. The Steelers roared back, traveling 77 yards in 12 plays to score on a nine-yard pass from Brister to WR Louis Lipps. The Broncos got the ball back on their own 33 with 20 seconds left in the half. On first down, QB John Elway and WR Mark Jackson combined for 26 yards, and then Elway fired a 15-yard pass to WR Ricky Nattiel, giving Denver the ball on the Pittsburgh 26 with two seconds left. David Treadwell kicked a 43-yard field, making the score 17-10 in favor of Pittsburgh at halftime. Early in the third quarter, Denver NT Greg Kragen forced a Tim Worley fumble, and CB Tyrone Braxton recovered for the Broncos on the Steeler 37. On first down Elway hit WR Vance Johnson for a touchdown, tying the score at 17 apiece. Pittsburgh's next two possessions ended in Anderson field goals and the Steelers held a 23-17 lead in the early stages of the fourth quarter. After an exchange of punts the Broncos took possession on their own 29 with 7:06 left in the game. After a first down penalty, making it first-and-19 from the 20, Elway hit Jackson for 18 yards. On the next play, Elway handed off the RB Bobby Humphrey, who pitched the ball back to Elway, and he threw a 36-yard strike to Johnson, giving Denver a first down on the Steeler 26. Humphrey ran on the next four plays, gaining 24 yards and taking the ball to the two. On third-and-goal from the one, Bratton scored again and Treadwell's extra point gave Denver its first lead of the game with 2:27 left. Pittsburgh got the ball on its own 20, but on third down Brister's signals were drowned out by the crowd and he mishandled the snap. Randy Robbins recovered for Denver on the Pittsburgh 18 and the Broncos were able to run out the clock to preserve the victory.

1987 SUPER BOWL XXII

WASHINGTON 42, DENVER 10

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 31 — The Washington Redskins scored 35 points in the second quarter to power their 42-10 victory over the Broncos in Super Bowl XXII, played at San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium. Super Bowl MVP Doug Williams of Washington completed 18 of 29 passes for 340 yards and four TDs, while rusher Timmy Smith gained 204 yards on 22 carries, scoring twice, and wide receiver Ricky Sanders caught nine passes for 193 yards and two touchdowns. Overall, The Redskins gained 602 yards of total offense to Denver's 327. The Broncos took the early lead on their first play from scrimmage, a 56-yard bomb from John Elway to Ricky Nattiel, coming with just 1:57 gone in the game. Denver's next possession stalled at the Redskins' seven-yard line, as Rich Karlis put the Broncos up 10-0 with a 24-yard field goal. In the second quarter, however, Denver's dreams of a World Championship were blown apart by Redskins. On Washington's first play of the quarter, Williams and Sanders combined for an 80-yard TD to bring the score to 10-7. The Redskins took the lead for good on the fifth play of their next possession when Williams hit Gary Clark for 27 yards and a score. Denver got as far as the Washington 26 on its next drive, but Karlis' 43-yards field goal attempt sailed wide left. Two plays later Timmy Smith scored on a 58-yard run to increase the Washington lead to 21-10. The Redskins' next possession ended with a 50-yard Williams-to-Sanders TD pass, and minutes later, Williams and Clint Didier combined for a seven-yard TD pass to give Washington a 35-10 lead at halftime. The Broncos could move only as far as the Redskins' 48-yard line in the second half, while Washington closed out the scoring late in the game on a four-yard run by Smith.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DENVER 38, CLEVELAND 33

DENVER, CO., Jan. 17 — Denver's Jeremiah Castille recovered a Cleveland fumble on the Denver three-yard line with just over a minute left in the game, halting a desperate drive by the Browns and preserving a victory for Denver. With the win, Denver became the first AFC Champion since the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1978-79 to win the conference in consecutive seasons. The Broncos were presented with the first scoring opportunity of the game when Freddie Gilbert caught a deflected Bernie Kosar pass on the contest's third play. Denver took four plays to go 18 yards, scoring on an eight-yard pass from John Elway to Ricky Nattiel. The Browns next drive reached the Bronco 45 before Kevin Mack fumbled, and it was recovered by Steve Wilson on the Denver 40. Two plays later Gene Lang took off on a 42-yard run, the longest in postseason history for Denver, taking the ball to the Cleveland 11. Six plays later, faced with a third-and-goal from the three, Elway's pass into the endzone fell incomplete, but Cleveland was penalized for holding, giving the Broncos new life at the Browns' one. Steve Sewell scored on first down, to give Denver a 14-0 lead with 11 minutes gone in the first quarter. The Browns took 13 plays to move 64 yards for their first points of the game, scoring on a 24-yard Matt Bahr field goal. On the sixth play of the following Bronco drive, Elway scrambled for seven yards to the Denver 46, and a Cleveland penalty put the Browns at the Cleveland 39. Four plays later Elway hit Ricky Nattiel for 21 yards, down to the Cleveland one, and Gene Lang carried it into the endzone to up Denver's lead to 21-3. Both teams missed field goals in the latter part of the first half, and the Broncos took their 18-point lead into the dressing room at halftime. After Elway was intercepted by Felix Wright four plays into the second half, Cleveland needed just three plays to go 35 yards and score on an 18-yard pass from Bernie Kosar to Reggie Langhorne. The Broncos answered that four plays into their next drive, when on a third-and-10 from the Denver 20, Elway scrambled right and threw a pass to Mark Jackson, who was standing at the Bronco 25. Jackson evaded two tackles and sprinted for a touchdown to complete an 80-yard scoring play and give the Broncos a 28-10 lead. Kosar and the Browns roared right back, moving 80 yards in five plays to score on a 32-yard Kosar-to-Earrest Byner pass. After a Bronco punt, Cleveland engineered another scoring drive, going 42 yards in four plays and scoring on a four-yard run by Byner to narrow the Bronco lead to 28-24. Just before the end of the third period, Rich Karlis capped off a Denver possession with a 38-yard field goal. The Browns, however, moved 86 yards in nine plays to tie the score at 31-31 on a four-yard pass from Kosar to Webster Slaughter. After an exchange of punts, Denver began a drive at their own 25 with 5:14 left in the game. On first down, Elway threw a 26-yard pass to Nattiel, and three plays later, duplicated the play to take the ball to the Cleveland 20. On the next play Elway passed to Sammy Winder, who caught it at the 23 and rambled the rest of the way into the endzone to put the Broncos up 38-31 with just over four minutes left. Kosar and the Browns rallied back and got to the Denver eight-yard line with 1:12 remaining, when Byner ran to the three, but had the ball stripped by Castille, who recovered for the Broncos. Denver was forced into a fourth down situation with 13 seconds left, and punter Mike Horan carried the ball out of the back of the endzone for a safety, making the score 38-33 in Denver's favor. After the ensuing free kick, Cleveland attempted one pass before time ran out.

1987 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

DENVER 34, HOUSTON 10

DENVER, CO., Jan 10 — The Broncos advanced to the AFC Championship game after beating the Oilers 34-10, the largest margin of victory ever for the Broncos in postseason play. The Broncos were led to on defense by Mark Haynes and Karl Mecklenburg, who both picked up key interceptions, and on offense by quarterback John Elway (14 of 25, 259 yards, two TDs) and receivers Vance Johnson (four catches for 105 yards) and Clarence Kay (three catches for 57 yards and two TDs). Punter Mike Horan put the Oilers in a hole after the Broncos' first drive stalled, sending a punt to the Houston five-yard line, where two plays later, a lateral pass from Warren Moon to Mike Rozier was fumbled, and Steve Wilson recovered for Denver on the one. Gene Lang scored two plays later to give the Broncos an early 7-0 lead. Houston's next drive reached the Bronco 20-yard line before Mecklenburg intercepted a pass and returned it to the Denver 28. Elway hit Kay for 29 yards on the next play to move into Houston territory, and five plays later the same connection was made for a 27-yard touchdown pass, giving the Broncos a 14-0 lead. Both teams added field goals on their first drive of the second quarter to make the score 17-3 in Denver's favor. On the fourth Denver play after Houston's field goal, Elway threw a 55-yard bomb to Johnson to move the ball to the Oiler 11. Five plays later Elway hit Kay, again for a touchdown on a one-yard pass to up the lead to 24-3 with less than two minutes left in the half. Denver's first possession of the second half resulted in a Rich Karlis field goal. Houston then took 10 plays to reach the Denver seven, but Mark Haynes picked off a Moon pass in the end zone and returned it 57 yards, a Bronco playoff record. Houston's next drive reached the Bronco 11 but a pass on fourth down fell incomplete. The Oilers got the ball back three plays later when Patrick Allen intercepted an Elway pass, and that led to a 19-yard TD pass from Moon to Ernest Givins, cutting Denver's lead to 27-10. The Broncos' Kevin Clark recovered the onside kick that followed, and Denver moved 52 yards in seven plays to score the final points of the game on a three-yard run by Elway.

1986 SUPER BOWL XXI

NEW YORK GIANTS 39, DENVER 20

PASADENA, CA., Jan. 25 — The New York Giants broke open a close game with 24 unanswered points to open the second half, capturing a 39-20 win over the Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. The game, played before a crowd of 101,063 in Pasadena's Rose Bowl, featured outstanding performances by the two quarterbacks, Super Bowl MVP Phil Simms of New York (22 of 25, 268 yards, 3 TDs) and Denver's John Elway (22 of 37, 304 yards, 1 TD). The Broncos won the toss and opened their first drive on the Denver 24, taking eight plays to reach the Giants 31-yard-line. Rich Karlis scored the first points of the game with a 48-yard field goal, tying the Super Bowl record. New York roared right back with a nine-play, 78-yard scoring drive that culminated with a six-yard touchdown pass from Simms to tight end Mark Bavaro. On the possession, Simms was six-for-six for 69 yards, and running back Joe Morris gained 19 yards on just three carries. With five-and-a-half minutes remaining in the first quarter, the Broncos took possession on their own 42 after a 28-yard kickoff return by Ken Bell. Elway completed passes on the first three plays of the drive as Denver reached the New York 33. Two Giant penalties left the Broncos with a first-and-10 at the 12, and on third down, Elway called his own number, scoring from four yards out on a quarterback draw to give Denver a 10-7 lead. The Giants next drive stalled and the Broncos got the ball back at the 14-minute mark of the second quarter. On the third play of the drive, on third-and-18, Elway unleashed a 54-yard bomb to Vance Johnson, giving the Broncos a first down on the Giant 28. Seven plays later Denver had a first-and-goal at the New York one, but failed to score in three plays and Karlis was wide right on a 23-yard field goal attempt. Denver's Orange Crush defense stifled the next Giant drive at the New York 47, and after a punt, the Broncos got the ball back on their own 15. Controversy entered the game when, on second-and-twelve, Elway threw an apparent completion for a first down to Clarence Kay. The pass was ruled incomplete, and that decision was upheld after review of the television replay. On the next play, Giant defensive end George Martin sacked Elway in the end zone for a safety to pull New York within a point of Denver at 10-9. The Giant offense was unable to move the ball on its next possession and punted to Denver. Taking the ball at their own 37, Elway quickly hit Steve Watson for 31 yards and Gerald Wilhite for 11 more to give the Broncos a first-and-10 at the Giant 21 with 43 seconds left in the half. Denver was able to get to the 16-yard-line, but Karlis was wide right on a 34-yard field goal attempt with 13 seconds left in the half. New York shot out of the starting blocks in the second half and never looked back, scoring on all three third quarter drives and outgaining Denver in the period 163 yards to two. With the score at 26-10, the Giants mounted a scoring drive on their first possession of the fourth quarter, and they went up 33-10 after Phil McConkey caught a deflected pass in the end zone, Simms's third TD strike of the day. Denver got the ball back at its own 16 and Elway moved the squad to the New York 10, as Karlis kicked a 27-yard field goal to make the score 33-13. The Giants took only five plays to move 46 yards for their next TD, a two-yard run by Otis Anderson which made the score 39-13. Elway took Denver down the field again and hit Vance Johnson with a 47-yard TD pass for the game's final points.

1986 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DENVER 23, CLEVELAND 20 OT

CLEVELAND, OH, Jan. 11 — Rich Karlis kicked a 33-yard field goal 5:48 into overtime to give the Broncos a 23-20 victory over the Browns. The game was played before a crowd of 79,915 people, who braved a wind chill of five degrees. Cleveland scored first, on the heels of a 14-play, 86-yard drive. Bernie Kosar threw a six-yard TD pass to Herman Fontenot with 5:19 left in the first quarter to put the Browns up 7-0. The next Cleveland drive ended when Ricky Hunley intercepted a Kosar pass, and he returned 14 yards to the Browns' 36. Although the Broncos' ensuing drive stalled, Kosar threw another interception, this one to Jim Ryan, and he returned the ball 26 yards to the Cleveland nine. Four plays later Karlis nailed a 19-yard field goal to make the score 7-3. Denver got another break on Cleveland's next play when Keven Mack fumbled and Ken Woodard recovered the ball on the Browns' 37. On first down John Elway rambled 34 yards, and two more rushes got Denver to the one-yard line. On fourth-and-goal Gerald Willhite plunged into the end zone to give the Broncos a 10-7 lead. Cleveland kicker Mark Moseley tied the score at 10 apiece with a 29-yard field goal with 20 seconds left in the first half. Both teams saw their first two possessions of the second half end in punts before Denver engineered the first scoring drive of the second half. Elway drove the Broncos 61 yards in 11 plays, and Karlis put Denver up 13-10 with a 26-yard field goal 12 minutes into the third quarter. The Browns wasted no time mounting a scoring march of their own. Mack rushed for 34 yards in a 10-play, 76-yard drive that culminated with a 24-yard Moseley field goal, knotting the score at 13-13. The Broncos next two possessions ended in punts, and when Cleveland got the ball on its own 48 with 6:40 left in the fourth quarter, the Browns struck quickly. On third-and-six from Denver's 48 yard line, Kosar threw a TD pass to Brian Brennan to give the Browns a 20-13 lead with 5:43 left in regulation. The ensuing kickoff rolled to the Denver two-yard line where Gene Lang fell on it. Pro Bowl-bound Elway then engineered the longest and most important drive of his four-year career. On the fifth play of the drive (on second-and-seven from the Broncos' 15), Elway rushed for 11 yards and a first down. He hit Steve Sewell for a 22-yard gain on the next play, and followed that with a 12-yard strike to Steve Watson to give Denver a first down on the Cleveland 40. After an incompletion and an eight-yard sack, Elway threw a 20-yard pass to Mark Jackson, moving the team to the Cleveland 28. Another incompletion was followed by a 14-yard, Elway-to-Sewell pass, giving the Broncos a first down on the Browns' 14 with 57 seconds left. Elway's next pass was incomplete, and on second down he ran nine yards to the Cleveland five-yard line. On the next play, he hit Jackson for a TD, and Karlis's extra point tied the score at 20 with 39 seconds left in regulation. Cleveland was unable to move the ball as time ran out in the fourth quarter. The Browns won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. Three plays into the drive, (on third-and-two from the Cleveland 38), the Orange Crush rose up to snuff Herman Fontenot for no gain. Cleveland punted and Willhite returned it to the Bronco 25, where the Denver juggernaut revved it up again. On second-and-five, Elway hit Orson Mobley for a 22-yard gain, and three plays later Elway threw a 28-yard pass to Watson. With a first down on Cleveland's 22-yard line, the Broncos rushed three times to get to the 15, and on fourth down, Karlis hit the 33-yard game winner. Elway accounted for 300 total yards in the game, rushing for 56 and completing 22 of 38 passes for 244 yards. The Broncos kept alive a 1986 record of 13-0 when they scored 20 or more points. Denver also notched its 11th win on natural turf, losing only to San Diego at home on grass.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME DENVER 22, NEW ENGLAND 17

DENVER, CO., Jan. 4—Rulon Jones sacked Tony Eason in the end zone for a safety with 1:37 left on the clock to put Denver up 22-17 and halt the Patriots' final comeback drive. The playoff victory was the first since Jan. 1, 1978 for the Broncos, when they defeated Oakland for the AFC Championship. The two teams traded punts in the first nine minutes of the game before Denver posed the initial scoring threat. Starting at their own 20, the Broncos took four plays to reach the New England 7, behind John Elway completions of 39 and 21 yards. On second-and-goal from the four, Elway rolled around the left side and was hit just short of the goal line. He was penalized (delay of game) for spiking the ball after the play, and that set Denver back to the six. Two plays later Rich Karlis nailed a 27-yard field goal to give Denver a 3-0 lead. New England mounted a seven-play, 87-yard drive later in the quarter, with Eason hitting Stanley Morgan for a 19-yard TD. The Broncos roared right back with a 13-play, 82-yard drive that was punctuated by a 22-yard TD run by Elway, giving Denver a 10-7 lead midway through the second quarter. The Patriots tied the score on the last play of the half with a 38-yard Tony Franklin field goal. Denver received the kickoff to open the second half and proceeded to chew up over nine minutes off of the clock. The Broncos ran the ball 11 times on the drive, which stalled on the Patriot five. Karlis's 22-yard field goal put Denver up 13-10. Five plays into the next New England drive, the Patriots took a page out of Dan Reeve's bag of tricks, scoring on a flea-flicker that ended with a 45-yard TD pass from Eason to Morgan to give New England its first lead of the game at 17-13. Denver jumped right back on top, traveling 86 yards in six plays to score on a 48-yard Elway-to-Vance Johnson pass on the last play of the third quarter. The two teams both punted three times in the fourth quarter, and the last one, a Mike Horan punt of 54 yards, backed New England to its own 10. On first down, Eason dropped back to pass but was sacked for a safety by Rulon Jones. Denver recovered the onsidess free kick and held on to the ball to preserve the win.

1984 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

PITTSBURGH 24, DENVER 17

DENVER, CO., Dec. 30—Denver had two possessions in the final two minutes of the game but failed to score as Pittsburgh advanced to the Conference Championship game. Denver's opportunistic defense recovered two Steeler fumbles in the first quarter. The first one resulted in a Rich Karlis field goal attempt, but it sailed wide right. Pittsburgh fumbled on the next play, and the Broncos recovered again. That turnover led to a seven-yard touchdown pass from John Elway to Jim Wright. Pittsburgh scored on a 28-yard field goal on the first play of the second period, and just before intermission, the Steelers took the lead on Frank Pollard's one-yard TD plunge. Denver tied the game early in the third quarter on a 21-yard Karlis field goal. The Broncos regained the lead on their next possession, scoring on a 20-yard pass from Elway to Steve Watson. For the game, Watson gained 177 yards on 11 receptions. The Steelers mounted a scoring drive of their own, tying the game at 17-17 on a Mark Malone to Louis Lipps pass late in the quarter. Later, Pittsburgh's Eric Williams intercepted an Elway pass and returned it to the Denver two-yard line with only 2:45 left in the game. Pollard scored two plays later to give the Steelers the lead 24-17. Denver couldn't move the ball on its final two possessions as time ran out.

1983 WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

SEATTLE 31, DENVER 7

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 24—Seattle broke open a close contest with two second-half Dave Krieg touchdown passes as the Seahawks beat Denver 31-7 in the AFC Wild Card playoff game. Seattle scored on its first possession of the day with a 17-yard pass from Krieg to Steve Largent. Later in the first quarter, Denver mounted a nine-play, 76-yard drive, scoring on a 13-yard pass from Steve DeBerg to Jesse Myles. Seattle cornerback Kerry Justin intercepted a DeBerg pass on Denver's next drive and the Seahawks drove to the Denver 20-yard line, with Norm Johnson converting a 37-yard field goal. Denver then drove down to the Seattle four-yard line, but Gerald Willhite fumbled and Seattle recovered, and then ran the remaining time off the clock. The second half belonged to the Seahawks as Krieg passed for two touchdowns and running back David Hughes ran for another, making the final score 31-7.

1979 WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

HOUSTON 13, DENVER 7

HOUSTON, Tex., Dec. 23—Toni Fritsch kicked two field goals to provide the margin of victory as the Houston Oilers played strong second half defense and defeated the Broncos, 13-7, earning the Oilers advancement in the American Football Conference playoffs.

Fritsch opened the scoring with a 31-yard first period field goal, but Denver came back to take a 7-3 lead on a seven-yard pass from Craig Morton to running back Dave Preston, an 80-yard drive that took the Broncos 13 plays.

Houston went ahead to stay on a three-yard burst by Earl Campbell at 14:14 of the second period. However, Campbell was injured on the play and did not return to action in the second half. Oiler quarterback Dan Pastorini and wide receiver Ken Burroughs also left the contest due to injuries, both early in the second half, putting a severe crimp in the Houston attack. But the Broncos were able to move the ball for only 216 yards total offense, and the tenacious Houston defense sacked Morton six times for 40 yards in losses as the Oilers held on to win.

Linebacker Bob Swenson intercepted a Gifford Nielsen pass at the Oiler 26-yard line midway through the fourth period, but two sacks of Morton led to a 50-yard field goal attempt by Fred Steinfort. Steinfort's kick hit the upright, and the Oilers later drove for a second field goal by Fritsch, this one of 20 yards, providing the final victory margin.

Denver drove to the Houston 27 at the two minute mark, but the Oiler defense again rose to the occasion to stifle the threat and secure the win, eliminating the Broncos from the playoffs.

1978 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

PITTSBURGH 33, DENVER 10

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 30—Two fourth quarter touchdown passes by Pittsburgh quarterback Terry Bradshaw lifted the Steelers to a 33-10 victory over the Denver Broncos and into the American Football Conference championship game.

Bradshaw's scoring tosses included a 45-yard bomb to John Stallworth and a 38-yarder to Lynn Swann, capping a brilliant performance by the Pittsburgh passer.

The Broncos took the early lead on a 37-yard Jim Turner field goal, but Pittsburgh's Franco Harris ran one and 18 yards for touchdowns and Roy Gerela kicked a 24-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 16-3 advantage. Denver cut the margin to 16-10 on a three-yard Dave Preston TD, but Gerela kicked another field goal to make the halftime margin 19-10. Denver threatened to come closer in the third period, but Turner's 29-yard field goal attempt was blocked, and Bradshaw's passing sealed Denver's fate early in the final stanza. The Steelers rolled to 425 yards total offense, with Bradshaw accounting for 272 through the air, 156 on ten receptions by Stallworth. The eventual World Champion Steelers limited the Broncos' ground game to just 87 yards in earning the right to play the Houston Oilers for the AFC crown the following week.

1977 SUPER BOWL XII

DALLAS 27, DENVER 10

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 15—The Dallas Cowboys evened their Super Bowl record at 2-2 by defeating the Denver Broncos 27-10 before a sellout crowd of 76,400, plus 90 million television viewers, the largest audience ever to watch a sporting event. Dallas converted two pass interceptions by safety Randy Hughes and cornerback Aaron Kyle into 10 points and Efren Herrera added a 35-yard field goal to give the Cowboys a 13-0 halftime advantage. The Denver offense had trouble getting untracked against the hard-hitting Cowboy defense. The Broncos lost three fumbles and were intercepted twice on their last five possessions of the first half. The Broncos came back momentarily at the outset of the third period. Craig Morton engineered a drive to the Cowboys 30-yard line from where Jim Turner booted a 47-yard field goal to make the score 13-3. After an exchange of punts, Dallas wide receiver Butch Johnson made a spectacular diving catch in the end zone to complete a 45-yard pass from Roger Staubach to put the Cowboys ahead 20-3. However, the momentum swung back to the Broncos as Rick Upchurch returned the kickoff 67 yards to the Dallas 26. On the second play of the series, Norris Weese relieved Craig Morton at quarterback. Morton, who was intercepted only eight times during the regular season, had thrown a Super Bowl record four interceptions. Weese guided the Broncos to a touchdown — a one-yarder by Ron Lytle — to cut the Dallas lead to 20-10 with 5:39 left in the third quarter. Dallas clinched the victory when running back Robert Newhouse threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Golden Richards on an option play with 7:04 remaining in the game. It was the first pass thrown by Newhouse since the 1975 regular season. The Cowboys offense amassed 325 yards while the defense limited the Broncos to 156 in a game which saw the Cowboys control the ball 38:34 to Denver's 21:26. Roger Staubach completed 17 of 25 passes for 183 yards while Harvey Martin and Randy White, who were named Co-MVPs, led the Cowboys defense which recovered four fumbles and intercepted four passes.

1977 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DENVER 20, OAKLAND 17

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 1—Denver quarterback Craig Morton threw two touchdown passes to Haven Moses as the Broncos defeated the defending NFL Champion Oakland Raiders 20-17 and moved into their first Super Bowl. Morton, who was drafted and spent nine-and-a-half years with the Cowboys, would face his former Dallas teammates after completing 10 of 20 passes for 224 yards. It would be the second meeting in five weeks for these two teams—Dallas won 14-6 in the regular season finale as Morton played only the opening series due to a bruised hip. On a sunny, 18-degree day before 74,982 Denver partisans, the Raiders scored on their initial possession as Errol Mann kicked a 20-yard field goal to climax an 18-play drive. Morton hit Moses on their first scoring hookup two plays later on a 74-yard touchdown bomb, and the Broncos were on top to stay. Denver took advantage of two Oakland turnovers in the second half to win its second game in three meetings with the Raiders during the 1977 season. Defensive end Brison Manor recovered running back Clarence Davis' fumble at the Oakland 17 and running back Jon Keyworth scored from the 1-yard line to increase the margin to 14-3 in the third quarter. Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler hit tight end Dave Casper on the first of two scoring passes to narrow the lead to 14-10 with 39 seconds elapsed in the final period. But on Oakland's next possession, linebacker Bob Swenson intercepted a Stabler pass and ran to the Raiders' 14. Morton then threw 12 yards to Moses for the Broncos' final touchdown. Oakland finished the scoring on the next series as Stabler threw 17 yards to Casper for the game's last touchdown. Denver controlled the ball for the final 3:08 and gave Red Miller the AFC title in his first year as a head coach. Moses, a 10-year veteran, had five receptions for 168 yards. The Denver defense, which was No. 1 against the rush in the NFL during the regular season, held the Raiders to 94 yards on the ground.

1977 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

DENVER 34, PITTSBURGH 21

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 24—After ties at 7, 14, and 21, veteran Jim Turner kicked a 44-yard field goal to put Denver ahead to stay as the Broncos—in their first playoff game ever—beat the perennial AFC Central Champion Steelers. Leading 24-21, the Broncos capped their victory with two fourth-quarter interceptions by linebacker Tom Jackson, the last of which set up Craig Morton's 34-yard game-clinching touchdown pass to Jack Dolbin. Denver capitalized on a blocked punt and a fumble recovery for two scores in the first half, which ended 14-14. Morton and Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw traded touchdown passes in the second half before Turner's kick. Jackson's interceptions, and Morton's arm kept Pittsburgh from the AFC title game for the first time in four years. The Denver victory set up a third game between the AFC Western Champion Broncos and the AFC Wild Card Raiders, who split two regular season games.

DENVER BRONCOS ALUMNI COUNCIL

The Denver Broncos Alumni Council was formed in 1991 to provide an opportunity for former players to remain actively involved with the Broncos' organization.

The Alumni Council serves as a goodwill extension of the Denver Broncos and the members are available to counsel current players on life after football.

The original 15 members of the alumni council are Odell Barry, Barney Chavous, Steve Foley, Randy Gradishar, Larry Kaminski, Fran Lynch, Gene Mingo, Claudie Minor, Haven Moses, Jim Ryan, Jerry Sturm, Bob Swenson, Bill Thompson, Steve Watson, and Louis Wright. Otis Armstrong and Rich Karlis were added as new members in 1993.

BRONCOS IN HALL OF FAME

The Denver Broncos are represented in the Pro Football Hall of Fame by four individuals, including a former player, two former coaches, and a former administrator.

Fred Gehrke, who was the Broncos' General Manager for four years (1977-1980) and a member of the team's staff for 16 years, was the first winner of the Hall of Fame's Pioneer award in 1972.

Gehrke, as a Los Angeles Rams' halfback in 1948, painted golden rams' horns on his team's helmets and thus started the trend toward today's colorful, uniquely-decorated helmets worn by all NFL teams.

Cornerback Willie Brown, inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1984, played for the Broncos from 1963-66 and was named All-American Football League in 1964, a season in which he intercepted nine passes, including a team-record four in one game (vs. New York, 11/15/64).

Stan Jones, whose 1991 induction honors a 12-year career with Chicago and Washington, gained All-Pro honors four times as an offensive guard and appeared in seven Pro Bowls. Jones coached Denver's defensive line for 18 years, from 1967-71 and 1976-88.

Doak Walker, who was the Broncos' receivers coach in 1966, was inducted into the Hall in 1986 on the basis of his brilliant six-year career (1950-55) with the Detroit Lions.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame is located in Canton, Ohio.

RETIRED NUMBERS

The Denver Broncos have retired two jersey numbers in their 34-year history, quarterback Frank Tripucka and running back Floyd Little.

Tripucka, who wore number 18, was Denver's first quarterback and called signals for the Broncos from 1960-63. He played in the American Football League all-star game in 1962 and passed for 7,676 yards in his Denver career.

Little, who wore number 44 for the Broncos as well as during his legendary college career at Syracuse, played in Denver from 1967-75 and is the team's all-time leader in rushing (6,323 yards) and total touchdowns (54). Little was All-AFL in 1969 and played in two AFL all-star games (1968, 1969) and three Pro Bowls (1971, 1972, 1973).

The Broncos converted two fourth down plays to keep the possession alive. JANUARY 12 — Despite a sterling effort by Denver's defense, the Broncos fall 10-7 to Buffalo in the AFC Championship Game. The Bills' high-powered offense managed just 213 yards and 12 first downs in the game. FEBRUARY 2 — Running back Gaston Green, linebacker Karl Mecklenburg, and safeties Steve Atwater and Dennis Smith represent the Broncos in the Pro Bowl. MARCH — The Broncos conclude season ticket renewals and waiting list additions for 1992, virtually assuring the franchise of its 23rd consecutive sellout season. Denver is also named a participant in America Bowl '92, to be played in Berlin. AUGUST 15 — The Broncos lose to the Miami Dolphins, 31-27, in American Bowl '92 in Berlin's Olympic Stadium. DECEMBER 28 — Denver Broncos President Pat Bowlen announces that the franchise will not renew the contract of Dan Reeves, thus creating a coaching vacancy in Denver for the first time since 1981. Reeves ends his Denver career with a record of 116-78-1.

JANUARY 25 — Wade Phillips is hired as the 10th head coach in Broncos history, signing a three-year contract as head coach after four seasons as the Broncos' defensive coordinator. MAY — The Broncos conclude their season ticket sales, guaranteeing the 24th straight sellout campaign at Mile High Stadium. DECEMBER — Quarterback John Elway is named AFC Most Valuable Player (UPI, Kansas City 101 Club, Football News) after his best pro season, in which he led the AFC in rating (92.8), attempts (551), completions (348), completion percentage (63.2), touchdowns (25), and yards (4,030).

1994

JANUARY 9 — The Broncos return to the playoffs as a Wild Card team, dropping a 42-24 first round game to the Los Angeles Raiders at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The wild card playoff game marked Denver's ninth nationally televised game of the 1993 season, bringing the Broncos' eight-year total (1986-93) to 84 national television dates. FEBRUARY 6 — The Broncos are represented in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game by quarterback John Elway, tight end Shannon Sharpe, linebacker Karl Mecklenburg, and safeties Steve Atwater and Dennis Smith. MARCH — The Broncos and Raiders are named to oppose each other in an American Bowl '94 Game in Barcelona. The Broncos thus join San Francisco as the only two teams to have been asked to represent the NFL in London, Tokyo, Berlin, and Barcelona. MAY — The Broncos conclude season ticket renewals and waiting list additions for 1994, leading to an anticipated 25th consecutive season of sellouts at Mile High Stadium.

MISCELLANEOUS

TIGHT END SHANNON SHARPE ENDED 1993 JUST FIVE YARDS SHORT OF A 1000-YARD SEASON. HE LED THE TEAM IN CATCHES WITH 81 AND WAS NAMED TO THE 1993 PRO BOWL TEAM FOR THE SECOND TIME IN AS MANY YEARS. SHARPE ALSO TIED THE NFL PLAYOFF SINGLE GAME RECEPTION RECORD WITH 13 AGAINST THE RAIDERS.

THE DENVER BRONCOS YOUTH FOUNDATION

The Denver Broncos Youth Foundation (DBYF), a nonprofit organization, was established in 1982 to help meet the needs of young people from the physical, emotional, social and spiritual aspects of their lives. With this mission in mind, the DBYF works to provide leadership and to foster cooperation rather than competition among existing youth-serving organizations. Its efforts are aimed at creating awareness in Colorado communities about youth needs and at helping address those needs with available time and money.

The DBYF is funded by a broad base of public support which includes individuals and corporations. The Foundation enlists the support and resources of media, school districts, state and local governments, service clubs, para-church groups, and other youth organizations to address issues which impact primarily middle and high school age kids. The Youth Foundation focuses on four particular areas including drug and alcohol programs, educational programs, leadership programs and inner-city programs.

The DBYF enjoys a unique position around the State of Colorado through its affiliation with the Broncos. By utilizing the energy and enthusiasm for the Broncos name, the DBYF is able to capture the attention and imagination of local youth and youth leaders and focus community awareness on contemporary adolescent issues. Admittedly, no single organization can meet all the needs of young people; but the DBYF aims to play a significant role by unifying separate efforts—locally and statewide—and helping to create specific plans to meet those needs.

The Youth Foundation is separate from the Football Club, but Denver Broncos' owner, Pat Bowlen is a DBYF Board member.

JIM RYAN
President

September 1, 1992, Jim Ryan assumed the position as President of the Denver Broncos Youth Foundation from Randy Gradishar. Having been a board member for four years, he is well informed and personally concerned about the needs of Colorado's youth. He has also served on several boards and advisory groups such as Centennial Task Force for Drug Free Youth and the Executive Network. Being a professional athlete requires determination and commitment. These attributes, coupled with his regard for the direction of today's youth, have influenced him to invest much of his time speaking to groups of young people on self-esteem and drug and alcohol awareness.

Jim graduated from the College of William and Mary in 1979 with a BA in Business Management. There he played football, where he received numerous honors. Ryan signed as a free agent with the Broncos in 1979 and embarked on a 10 year career. He was a starting linebacker for seven years, missing only one game. As a highlight of his career, Ryan was voted MVP in 1987 at the AFC Championship game which took the Broncos to the Super Bowl. Jim is a charter member of the Alumni Council.

Jim and his wife, Sara, have three sons, Ben, Jonathan and Sam.

RING OF FAME

The Denver Broncos' Ring of Fame was inaugurated in 1984 to honor former players and administrators who played significant roles in Bronco history.

In 1993 cornerback Louis Wright (1975-86) was inducted into the Ring of Fame, and linebacker Tom Jackson (1973-86) entered the Ring of Fame in 1992.

Linebacker Randy Gradishar (1974-83) was the only 1989 inductee into the Ring of Fame, while quarterback Craig Morton (1977-82), wide receiver Haven Moses (1972-81), and kicker Jim Turner (1971-79) were inducted in 1988.

Former defensive back Billy Thompson (1969-81) was honored in 1987 and three players joined the elite group in 1986, quarterbacks Frank Tripucka (1960-63) and Charley Johnson (1972-75), and defensive end Paul Smith (1968-78).

In 1985, former owner Gerald H. Phipps became the first non player to have his name placed on the Ring.

Four former players were the original Ring of Fame inductees, running back Floyd Little (1967-75), defensive end Rich Jackson (1967-72), wide receiver Lionel Taylor (1960-66), and safety Austin "Goose" Gonsoulin (1960-66).

The Ring of Fame is on the facade of Mile High Stadium's east stands, just below the third level.

MILE HIGH STADIUM

Mile High Stadium, home of the Denver Broncos, has been filled for every regular season game since and including the 1970 season, with the exception of two replacement games played during the 1987 player's strike (both games were sold out before the strike). The Broncos have sold out 179 consecutive non-strike regular season games, and with postseason contests the total reaches 188 over the 24-year period.

Expansion of the stadium, begun in 1975, was completed for the 1977 season to give the Broncos the seventh largest home facility in the league.

Denver voters passed a $25 million bond issue in 1974 to expand and improve the stadium from its capacity of 51,706 to 75,100. The stadium held 63,532 for the 1976 season, halfway through the project.

Bringing the stadium capacity to its present 76,273 in 1986 was the construction of the Penthouse Suites atop the west stands. There are 60 luxury suites which seat 14, 16, or 24 fans each, accessed by private elevators and fully serviced for every Bronco home game.

Making Mile High Stadium unique, however, is its movable east stands. The east stands move in a single section which, when fully extended, is in a horseshoe configuration for football. When the section is retracted, the stadium is in position for baseball.

The dynamics involved in the move are fascinating. First, bear in mind that the east stands section is a three-tiered structure, 535 feet long, 135 feet tall and 200 feet deep, weighing nearly nine million pounds. Second, the stands must be moved a distance of 145 feet.

How is it done? The answer, says DMJM-Phillips-Reister, the engineering-architectural firm in charge of the project, is water.

More than 90,000 square feet of runways serve as the operating surfaces over which the stands will move. Water is pumped onto the runways and form a .003 inch sheet upon which the stands rest. Hydraulic rams then push the stands forward at the rate of three feet per minute, making the move last somewhere around two hours.

Originally called Bears Stadium, the facility was built in 1948 for the Denver Bears of baseball's old Western League, with long range plans to utilize it for football as well. When Denver became a charter member of the American Football League in 1959, the south stands (8,100 seats) and portable east stands (9,616 seats) were added to give a capacity of 34,657 for football.

After Denver voters turned down a stadium bond issue to build an all-purpose metropolitan stadium in 1967, a non-profit group began a fund-raising drive with the goal of purchasing the stadium for the city.

In February of 1968, the group bought the stadium from Rocky Mountain Empire Sports for $1.8 million and presented it to the city of Denver. A 16,000-seat upper deck was immediately constructed over the west stands, raising the capacity to over 50,000 for the 1968 season. In December of 1968, the stadium was renamed Denver Mile High Stadium.

BRONCOS RADIO NETWORK

For the 25th consecutive season, Denver's 50,000-watt station KOA (850) will serve as the flagship station for the Denver Broncos game broadcast network.

Larry Zimmer is in his 24th consecutive season as a member of the Broncos' broadcast team and his fourth handling play-by-play. He was the color commentator from 1971-89. Zimmer has been named the Colorado Sportscaster of the Year three out of the last six years, including 1991. He also does play-by-play for the University of Colorado football team.

Joining Zimmer on the broadcast is Dave Logan, who will provide color commentary for his fifth year as a part of the KOA announcers team. He played with the Cleveland Browns from 1976-83 and the Broncos in 1984, and has been active in Denver sports radio since leaving the NFL. Logan was named the Colorado Sportscaster of the Year for 1992 and 1993.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Broncos' media guide was prepared to assist in coverage of Denver's 1994 NFL season. Regarding game credentials, contact:

JIM SACCOMANO

Director of Media Relations

Denver Broncos, 13655 Broncos Parkway,
Englewood, CO 80112

Telephones: Office — (303) 649-9000

Office (after 5 p.m.) — (303) 649-9338

Home: Jim Saccomano — (303) 288-1182

When making requests for working press credentials, please allow time for mailing. Press credentials are normally issued approximately seven days before the game. Should transmission facilities be required, please arrange for same through local representatives.

As a general rule, the Denver Broncos do not issue any types of press credentials to weekly newspapers or magazines, unless they are of national circulation on specific assignment.

It is understood that all credentials will be used for the purpose for which they were issued, without exception. Violation of this policy will subject the bearer to ejection from Mile High Stadium.

WORKING PRESS: Admittance to the Broncos' press box is restricted to the WORKING PRESS ONLY. Credentials are marked with individual identification. Passes are non-transferable.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are asked to take special note of the following conditions for use of press credentials, as set by the National Football League:

"This working credential is issued to an organization for the sole purpose of providing stadium access to an accredited individual who has a legitimate working function (media or game service) in connection with this game. It is non-transferable. Any unauthorized use of this credential subjects the bearer to ejection from the stadium and prosecution for criminal trespass.

Any secondary non-editorial use of any picture, film/tape or drawing of the game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including but not limited to use in advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the National Football League. Additionally, television stations are prohibited from making available game film or tape to any other organization even though the planned use may be editorial in nature without advance written permission from the NFL or one of its member clubs. Such film or tape may be aired only by the specific station or entity to whom this credential is issued.

Television stations filming or taping NFL games recognize that any films or tapes may only be used in connection with a regularly scheduled television newscast within a seven-day period following the game and the film clip or taped portion of each such showing will not exceed two (2) minutes in length.

Additionally, television stations agree not to use more than six (6) minutes of filmed or taped "same-day" highlights from NFL games on any regularly scheduled news programs (i.e. no more than six minutes of highlights on Sunday night). This is the only exception to the two-minute limitation.

Television stations wishing to use NFL film or tape in any other manner must obtain written permission for such usage from National Football League films.

Acceptance of the credential constitutes agreement by the bearer and his organization to abide by the foregoing conditions. Thank you for your cooperation."

Sideline photo passes will be tightly controlled by the Public Relations Department and are generally limited to photographers shooting for a daily newspaper, wire service, or magazine of national circulation on specific assignment, or television station.

RADIO-TELEVISION: In making requests for broadcast credentials, please specify requirements for spotters and/or statisticians.

STADIUM ACCESS: To get to Mile High Stadium, which is located at 19th Avenue and Eliot Street, take Interstate 25 to the Mile High Stadium Exit(19th Avenue Exit).The Press Box is located on the West side of the stadium.

DRIVING INSTRUCTIONS TO MILE HIGH STADIUM FROM STAPLETON INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT: Exit airport on Quebec North and continue to Interstate 70. Take Interstate 70 West to Interstate 25 South, which will be a left lane exit.Continue West on Interstate 25 South until you come to Mile High Stadium Exit (19th Avenue Exit).

DRIVING INSTRUCTIONS TO STAPLETON INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT FROM MILE HIGH STADIUM: Take one of two routes depending on your parking lot location. You can take 20th Avenue East to Clay Street, turning left at Clay and proceeding to 23rd Avenue. Take a right at 23rd Avenue and continue to Interstate 25 entrances. Another route (Northbound) would be to take 17th Avenue East, which will continue beneath an overpass and will take you directly to Interstate 25 north. The alternate South bound route would be to take 1 7th Avenue East, turning left at Bryant Street and proceeding to the Interstate 25 South bound entrance, approximately two blocks.

TRANSMISSION FACILITIES: The Broncos provide five complimentary telephones in the visitors area of the working pressbox for use with VDT or telecopier equipment. Only collect, credit card or third party billing calls can be made from these telephones. Should you wish a private telephone installed at your seat, the Broncos will be pleased to assign you a seat location and provide you with a contact for you to make the appropriate arrangements with the local telephone company.

POST-GAME TRANSPORTATION: Please advise Broncos PR personnel as soon as possible should you require transportation following the game. The amount of time you must wait will obviously decline as time goes by following the conclusion of the game. All taxis will make pick-ups curb side at the Ticket Office, which is located at 19th Avenue and Eliot Street. Should you wish to make your own arrangements, the number of Yellow Cab Company is 777-7777.

DENVER BRONCOS HIGHLIGHT VIDEO

NY Life is the sponsor of the Denver Broncos highlight video which is available at no cost to groups of all sizes through the Broncos public relations department. The 1993 highlight video, titled Armed for the Future, can be obtained by calling the public relations department of the Broncos at (303) 649-9000. The team address is 13655 Broncos Parkway, Englewood, CO 80112. Please give as much advance notice as possible in requesting the 1993 video, or other films available through the Bronco library.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint — Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct — Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion — Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess — An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct — Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Adhesion — Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic — Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids — Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic — Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock — Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome — Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) — A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament — A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory — Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Anterogram — A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram — X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope — An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy — A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration — The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy — To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy. Avascular Necrosis — Death of a part due to lack of circulation. Avulsion — The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst — Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan — An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus — Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise — A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa — A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule — An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage — Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan — Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis — Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae — Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck

Charley Horse — A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intra-muscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Colles' Fracture — A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction — A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion — Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion — An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object

Cortical Steroids — Used to suppress joint inflammation. Costochondral — Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage. Cryokinetics — Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy — A treatment with the use of cold. Cyst — Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease — Changes in the joint surface as a result of repetitive trauma

Deltoid Ligament — Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle — Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back

Disc, Intervertebral — A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Disc, Intervertebral — A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. This disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation — Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction — An overall lengthening of the muscles as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis — Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect

Edema — Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion — Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) — An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) — Test to determine nerve function. Epicondylitis — Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride — "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fat Percentage — The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula — Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility — The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise — General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture — Breach of continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb — Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen — Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury — A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury — A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury — A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring — Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps — Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion — Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke — Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup — Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma — Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack — Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus — Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy — Treatment using water.

Hyperextension — Extreme extension of a limb or body part

Iliotibial Band — A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation — The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation — Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lesion — Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament — Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae — Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) — Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Meniscectomy — An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus — Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals — Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals — Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myositis — Inflammation of a muscle. Necrotic — Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene — Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area

Neuritis — Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic — Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia — Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella — The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis — Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."

Patellofemoral Joint — Articulation of the knee cap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles — Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx — Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges. Phlebitis — Inflammation of a vein.

Plica — Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) — A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" — A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography — Taking of X-rays.

Radius — Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction — Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain — Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction — The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff — Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by over use. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome — A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum — Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula — Shoulder blade.

Sciatica — Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve — Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint — A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the skin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane — An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) — Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen — Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis — Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis — Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis — Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain — Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum — The breast bone.

Steroids — Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Strain — Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.—

Stress Fracture — A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray — A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching — Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation — Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus — The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate — A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals — Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneal, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) — The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis — Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon — Tissue that connects muscle to bone. Tennis Elbow — General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tennis Elbow — General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic — Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome — A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia — Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph — A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea — The windpipe.

Trascutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) — An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process — Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius — Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps — Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna — Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve — Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound — An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus — Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus — Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction — Decrease of local blood flow.

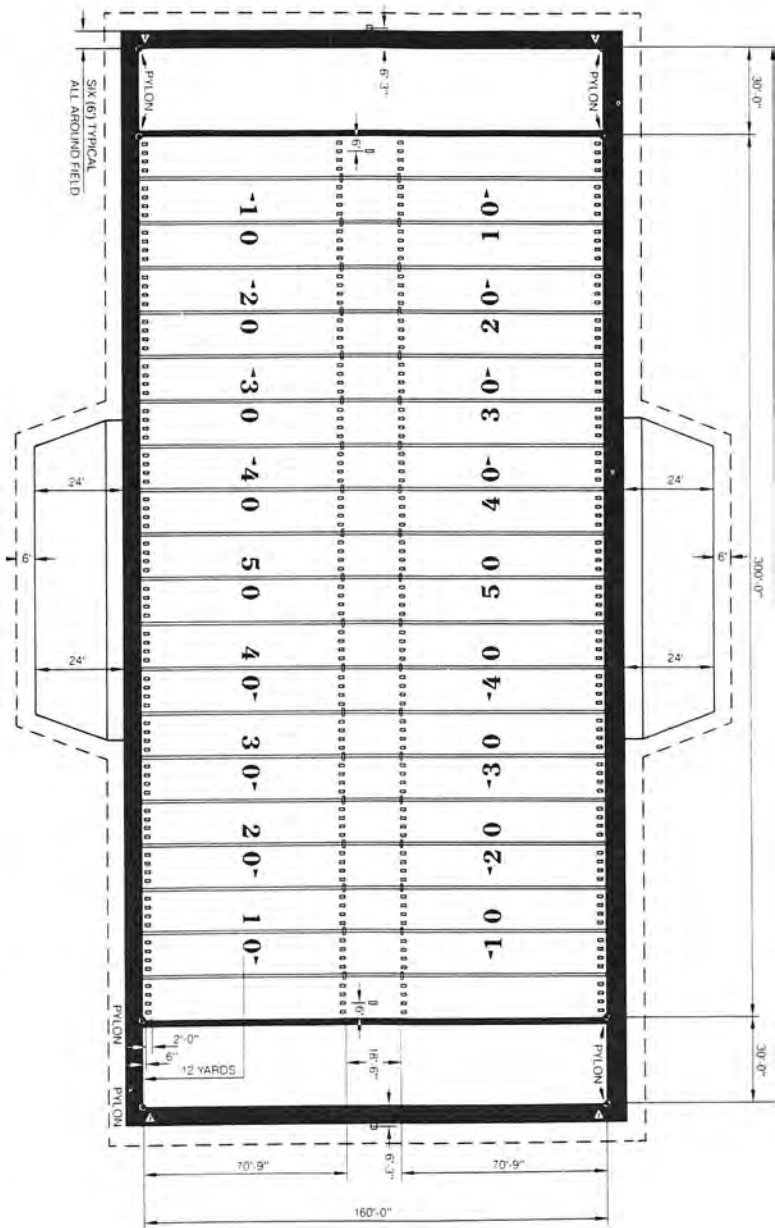

Vasodilation — Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" — Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist — The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma — The cheekbone.
